SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

I gave my back to those who beat me,
my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
my face I did not shield
from buffets and spitting. (Is 50:8)

PSALM:

I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living. (Ps 116)
Or Alleluia.

SECOND READING:

What good is it, my brothers and sisters,
if someone says he has faith but does not have works?
Can that faith save him? (Jas 2:14)

GOSPEL:

And he asked them,
"But who do you say that I am?"
Peter said to him in reply,
"You are the Christ." (Mk 8:29)

Prayer Before Mass

Almighty and ever-living God, I approach the sacrament of Your only-begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, I come sick to the doctor of life, unclean to the fountain of mercy, blind to the radiance of eternal light, and poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. Lord, in your great generosity, heal my sickness, wash away my defilement, enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty, and clothe my nakedness.

May I receive the bread of angels, the King of kings and the Lord of lords, with humble reverence, with purity and faith, the repentance and love, and the determined purpose that will help to bring me to salvation. May I receive the sacrament of the Lord's Body and Blood, and its reality and power.

King God, may I receive the Body of Your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, born from the womb of the Virgin Mary, and so received into His mystical body and numbered among His members.

Loving Father, as on my earthly pilgrimage I now receive Your beloved Son under the veil of a sacrament, may I one day see him face to face in glory, who lives and reigns with You forever. Amen

Every Holy Mass,
heard with devotion,
produces in our souls
marvelous effects, abundant spiritual
and material graces
which we, ourselves,
do not know...

It is easier for the earth to exist without the sun than without the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass!

Pio of Pietrelcina

REFLECT

FIRST READING

Despite his suffering, the prophet Isaiah insisted "the Lord God is my help." In what way do you need the Lord's help today?

SECOND READING

James sees faith alone as insufficient for Christians. He even asserts: "I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works." Could you do the same?

GOSPEL READING

We hear today Jesus' definition of discipleship: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." How well do you measure up to this definition of discipleship?

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We Remember

This Saturday, September 11, 2021, marks the 20 anniversary of the terroristic attacks on our country. For most of us, we will never forget where we were and what we were doing when the first plane hit the World Trade Center in New York City. I had just returned from New York after visiting the city on a family trip over the Labor Day weekend. I had just had my picture taken in front of the twin towers, having no idea that in just a few days, the buildings would no longer be standing. How quickly things can change, and how uncertain is the world in which we live. It reminds us that only the Kingdom of God provides us with the certainty, protection, and fulfillment in which we so often seek.

As we reflect and remember the sacrificial courage that so many demonstrated on this day in the years to follow, let us lift in prayer those who lost their lives, their families, the first responders, and military who protected and continue to defend our country, along with the people of Afghanistan, that Christ's Divine love will conquer the sorrow, pain, and evil that exists in the world today. Let us also pray for those who lost their lives on this day that Christ, the Risen Lord, will grant them eternal rest.

Tuesday All Day Eucharistic Adoration

Eucharistic Adoration is an essential devotion of our Catholic Faith. To think that the Lord humbly gives us the blessing of being able to come before His true presence in the Blessed Sacrament is an amazing gift. This Tuesday, at the end of Mass, the Eucharist will be exposed for adoration, which will continue throughout the day. We must make sure that every hour of the day has two individuals present to be with our Lord in prayer. Please sign up for a time slot by visiting our parish website or there is a sign-up sheet on the table in the back of the Church. If you can only come for a short time, please come. Having the opportunity to sit in quiet, before Christ is a fantastic experience. You will be surprised how fast the time goes. I encourage everyone to think about this opportunity, especially our younger families who live such busy lives. At 6:30 p.m. we will end the day with solemn Evening Prayer and benediction. This is a great way to end the day. All are welcome to attend.

My Visit to Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary

We currently have two seminarians at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia, Deacon Christopher Pujol, and David Slusarick. I will be making my visit to the seminary this week from Thursday until Saturday. On Saturday the 18th, David Slusarick will be admitted into the ministry of Lector, which is one of the official steps a seminarian makes as he advances to ordination. I am grateful that I can be there to celebrate this important step with him. I will return late Saturday evening to the parish. Please keep David in your prayers, along with our other nine seminarians of our diocese.

Text to Join for Updates

Some of you may have already taken advantage of this opportunity. If not, I am encouraging all of you to do so. The diocese offers texting updates for diocesan events and news. They are respectful of their texting and send out only necessary information. Joining this service also gives the parish your most up-to-date contact information. This is important as we will soon be adding a new messaging system that will allow the parish to communicate through emails and texting. To join, please text the word "Faith" to the number 724-305-3057.

Blessing for the Fallen of 9-11

*God of mercy,
in your word of Scripture, you instruct us to "Do to others as you would have them do to you."
Give us today the courage to assist those around us who may need our assistance.*

*Give us patience when we become impatient.
Remind us to pray for all those who perished on
United Airlines 93, American Airlines 11,
United Airlines 175, American Airlines 77,
and those in the Twin Towers and Pentagon.*

*Give us a heart
thankful for those who gave their lives
as first responders, as did the men and women who ran into danger to be of aid.*

We ask all this in the name of the One who first responded to our need for a savior, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

Grandparents Day Blessing

God of our ancestors, we thank you for our children and our children's children. They are reminders from you about how precious life can be. We humbly ask for wisdom and patience as we take pride and wonder in our grandchildren. Those of us who now pray to you also seek your blessing upon these men and women who are our grandparents or who act in place of grandparents. Bless all the children and their parents and grandparents with your abundant grace. We ask all this through the intercession of Saints Joachim and Anne, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary, patron saints of grandparents, in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
