OUR LADY OF PROMPT SUCOR, HASTEN TO HELP US

Our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us from all harm during these current times and the hurricane season.

Please protect us, our family, our homes and businesses from all disasters, especially those of nature.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.

~ Amen.

Lord God, may we, your people, who look forward to the birthday of Christ experience the joy of salvation
and celebrate that feast with love and thanksgiving.
We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen

"Now is the time of mercy, for us to correct ourselves. The time for judgment has not yet come. There is no need to despair. Because of our human, pardonable, and more trivial sins, God has established in the Church set times for requesting mercy. We have a daily medicine in our saying 'forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors,' so that we may share in the Body and Blood of Christ.

St. Augustine - Sermon 17,5

May our Advent reflect this time of mercy that has been so graciously allotted to us. Let us pray for the strength to make the necessary adjustments to persevere in the face of sin, and to raise our hearts to the Lord with His prayer.

~Megan Coote

SERVITE DOMINUM IN TIMORE

My sincerest greetings to all our visitors who have joined us for the conclusion of Advent and the beginning of Christmas! How blessed we are to take refuge in the beauty of our Catholic Faith! This world is so full of distractions and noise, that it takes focus and perseverance to be mindful of the sacred and uplifting truths of this sacred time. As we welcome our new-born Lord, and kneel before His great humility, let us implore Him to lend His power to our efforts, His insights to our minds, and His love to our sacrifices!

May I ask you to take a moment to read my letter regarding this year's Advent Appeal? We have undergone multiple capital projects to prepare for St. Patrick's interior restoration. With an improved A/C system, waterproofed walls, repaired structural members of our bell tower, and significant repairs to address roof leaks, we are ready to plan for the more delicate work of interior plaster repair and repainting. While the project may not begin for some time, now is our chance to build our savings so that we can continue to carry out these improvements debt-free. Your generosity of the past has been a blessing from the Lord. With this year's Advent Appeal, we can do our part in passing on to the next generation all the beauty truth and goodness we have received from generations past! Contribution envelopes are in the rear of church.

Continuing this year of the Eucharist, I share with you today the teachings of St. John Chrysostom (d. 407). He explicitly encourages reverence for the Sacrament of the Altar and he lauds the practice of reserving the Eucharist in the Church for private prayer. With these words, he illuminates the connection between heaven and earth that occurs in the Mass, "When you see the Lord immolated and lying upon the altar, and the priest bent over that sacrifice praying, and all the people empurpled by that Precious Blood, can you think that you are still among men and on earth? Or are you not lifted up to heaven?" The Mass truly is Heaven on Earth!

With genuine devotion St. John recommends this prayer to the faithful as they contemplate the effects of the Eucharist in their life, "When you see [the Body of Christ] lying on the altar, say to yourself, "Because of this Body I am no longer earth and ash, no longer a prisoner, but free. Because of this Body I hope for heaven, and I hope to receive the good things that are in heaven, immortal life, the lot of the angels, familiar conversation with Christ. This Body, scourged and crucified, has not been fetched by death...This is that Body which was blood-stained, which was pierced by a lance, and from which gushed forth those saving fountains, one of blood and the other of water, for all the world." May this kind of awe ever prevails over our hearts! ~Fr. O'Brien
