Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary(x3)
Adopted from Pope Francis.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

LITURGICAL NOTES

In the Propers for this weekend, we see the Old and New Testament inextricably linked, united in the Person of Jesus Christ. Manna rains down on the Israelites from heaven (mentioned in both the Entrance and Offertory Antiphons!), prefiguring the Eucharist in these latter days. Right away we notice that the manna comes from heaven, signifying God's Providence, and that it is given during the forty-year sojourn in the desert. The Eucharist for us is "bread for the journey", the life of Christ in us to keep our souls alive to survive the arid and dangerous world of temptations. In fact, Viaticum means "food for the journey" and is when a person receives the Eucharist as part of last rites to prepare for the ultimate journey of crossing the abyss from life to death. The psalms accompanying the Offertory and Communion Antiphons add a great deal of richness to our considerations. Psalm 78, accompanying the Offertory, exhorts us to pass down what has been transmitted to us, which is exactly what the Mass accomplishes! "Do this in memory of Me." Psalm 119, accompanying the Communion, reminds us that true happiness can only be found in conforming one's life to the Law of God. The Liturgy, then, is reminding us that Communion is in fact a communion of persons. When receiving Our Lord, we bind ourselves to His Church, her pastors, and everything she teaches. Strive, then, always to know "the things our fathers have told us" and embrace them with Faith. Failing to do so while still going to Communion makes us, according to St. Paul, "guilty of the Body and Blood of Christ." May we never find ourselves in such a position! Protect us, O Lord, from error.

Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy and Music

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Our next event for Holy Comforter's children will be Vacation Bible School! It is in the planning stages and may have a modified format, but it will take place. Since this year honors Saint Joseph, the theme for VBS will also be on Saint Joseph. As our holy example of patience, love and protection, we can look to him for virtues to incorporate into our own life.

There will be more information to follow as the committee and I plan this wonderful opportunity for your children to become more familiar with who Saint Joseph is and how he came to be the Protector of the Holy Family and the Terror of Demons!

Melinda Wells, Director of Religious Education

Parish Life invites you all our first annual St. John's Eve bonfire! This event will take place on June 23, the eve of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. Details of time and location will be forthcoming. If you want to help plan this event, please contact Emily Pierson (parishlife@holycorforterparish.org).

FROM THE PASTOR

FINDING JOY IN THE LORD NOT IN THE WORLD. (Pt.1).

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!”
(Phil.4:4)

Joy is “a feeling of great pleasure and happiness.” It is the emotion we feel when life is good — when the sun is shining, when we are successful in all ways, when we are healthy, happy, and heartened. Most people do not typically speak of the happiness of heartbreak, the pleasure of migraines, or the bliss of losing.

Everyone wants joy in life. But is it possible to rejoice always? What does this mean? Am I supposed to go around with a perpetual smile on my face? Is it a sin to feel depressed or sad? Am I supposed to deny pain or sorrow? How can you command a feeling, anyway? Are these the words of Paul to the Thessalonians and to the Philippians be proved true and helpful? Just reading the verses might get some people depressed, because they despair of ever being able to do it! But again, what does the world offer? Happiness and Joy? It is said that; “Christianity is a religion of joy”. Because real joy comes from God, who has created and loved us from the beginning the one who has liberated us from eternal death and sadness—who has given us hope and joy because He has poured out His love within our hearts by the Holy Spirit whom He has given us. ( Rm. 5:5). Prophet Isaiah says: I rejoice heartily in the Lord, in my God is the joy of my soul; for he has clothed me with a robe of salvation, and wrapped me in a mantle of justice, like a bridegroom adorned with a diadem, like a bride bedecked with her jewels. ( Is. 61:10ff). Joy comes from God, not from within. When we look within, we just get sad. We have joy only when we look outside ourselves to Christ. Without Christ, joy is not only hard to find, but also impossible to find. The world desperately seeks joy, but in all the wrong places. However, our joy comes because Christ sought us, found us, and keeps us. We cannot have joy apart from Christ because it does not exist. Joy is not something we can conjure up. Joy is not the absence of sadness—it is the presence of the Holy Spirit; it is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. And although the Holy Spirit produces joy within us, He often does so by humbling us so that we would take our eyes off ourselves and fix our eyes on Christ. Real joy exists even amid real sadness, and real joy does not always mean there’s a smile on our faces. It sometimes means we are on our knees with tears of repentance. A Benedictine nun once told me, “I do not know when I am more perfectly happy than when I am weeping for sin at the foot of the cross.” Joy comes in repentance and forgiveness and by daily looking to Christ and living for His glory, not by looking to self and living for our glory. But if we live each day bearing the shame of yesterday and the anxieties of tomorrow, we will never experience the joys of today. So let us always be quick to run to the cross to seek the joy that only Christ can give, for trying to find joy apart from Christ is like trying to find day without the sun. Though our hearts may be heavy with sorrow or grief because of trials, beneath the surface is the abiding confidence that our God is sovereign and that our lives are in His hand, so that not even the hairs of our heads fall to the ground without His knowledge. Paul had learned to be content in every situation (Phil. 4:11-13). “Every situation” for Paul included some severe trials, in some cases where he despaired even of life. But this, he writes, was “in order that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead;” then he adds, “He on whom we have set our hope” (2Cor. 1:8-10). Christ was a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief in order that we might have fullness of joy, now and forever. That is why it is said, “man’s chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy Him forever.” C.S. Lewis rightly said that “joy is the serious business of heaven.” But having real joy that comes from enjoying God is not something we will experience only in heaven. It is what we experience now. For the greatest joy in this life is to know that our greatest joy is not in this life but in the one to come. We live each day in light of our hope for the future, when Christ “will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away” (Rev. 21). And when we see Christ, He will dry every tear from our eyes—not just our tears of sadness, but our tears of joy as well. Otherwise, we would never be able to see Him.
