Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3) Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Rosary of Reparation

The Transfiguration reveals Jesus as the Son of God—but this isn't for Jesus's sake. He already knows his identity. Instead, the Transfiguration is a gift for His apostles. Just before the Lord's entry into Jerusalem, where He will suffer His passion and death,

He gives Peter, John, and James a glimpse of His glory and the truth of who He is. It is this experience of His glory and the conviction that He is the Son of God that will sustain these apostles at their darkest hour—in John's case, at the foot of the Cross, and for Peter, in the aftermath of his denial of Christ.

The Transfiguration is a gift for us as well. We're on our own journey with Jesus towards Jerusalem, as we move into the second week of Lent. Jesus reminds of His glory, and His power over death, just as the going can get a little tough for us—when the Lenten practices and penances we committed to so eagerly just over a week ago can begin to feel like burdens. By revealing His power and glory, Jesus shows us that He isn't a prize we'll receive on the other side of Easter, but He's a presence that will be with us throughout the journey—including in our Lenten "darkest hours!"

One practice we're emphasizing as a parish this Lent is almsgiving — especially giving to our Annual Diocesan Appeal. The Transfiguration helps us see that when we pick up our cross through our giving —especially when it involves some sacrifice on our part — we are not alone. We're with Jesus, the Lord of Life. Let's meditate upon the Transfiguration and see how we might be moved to give in light of the truth of who Jesus is and His closeness to us.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: Remember your mercies, Lord, and your love which is from all eternity. Do not let our enemies triumph over us; deliver us, O God of Israel, from all our tribulations.

Offertory: I shall meditate upon your commandments which I greatly love; I will extend my hands towards your commandments which I love.

Communion: Tell no one about the vision you have seen until the Son of Man has risen from the dead.

Jesus reveals to Peter, James, and John today His double nature of the God-Man. This was meant to confirm that everything He taught was true and to give them strength to endure His imminent Passion. Alas, that we could receive such a grace! Now, not only does He hide His Divinity from us but also His Humanity. Our lives of faith are quite incredible in this regard! In the hymn Adoro Te Devote there is a nice turn of phrase about the Eucharist: "On the cross the Godhead alone lay hidden, but here likewise lies hidden the manhood". We are called to stake our lives on hidden truths, a superhuman feat that is impossible without heavenly aid. This why the virtue of Faith is supernatural; it is a gift, unlike, say, prudence, which can be acquired through practice. God does not ask of us that which we cannot handle, and if it is beyond our natural abilities, He supplies grace. Hence, our Lord reveals Himself to His closest apostles in order to prepare them for trials that would likely break even the most loyal of disciples. Let us receive the prayer of the Entrance Antiphon into our hearts, trusting in God to deliver us "from all our tribulations". When the Scriptures speak of trials, they are often spiritual in addition to temporal, including the temptation to doubt what has been handed down to us and thereby despair of God's mercy and even His very existence. We must learn to meditate on His commandments and see the joy and peace they bring to the soul, which should compel us to "greatly love" them because in them we see a merciful God showing us how to navigate the troubled waters of this life. May we find the strength with God's help to persevere unto the end so that we can truly say with Peter, "Lord, it is good to be here [in heaven]". Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy and Music

FROM THE PASTOR

THE JOURNEY OF RENEWAL—LENT 2022

Part II

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“Just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down, and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful...So shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; it shall not return to me void, but shall do my will.”

Isaiah 55:10-11

During this time of Lent, we are encouraged to listen more to the word of God with the view of renewing of our lives. We know that rain and snow are part of a cyclical water process. Rain comes upon the earth, drains into the land, and produces the growth of crops, achieving the refreshment and sustenance of human life. Rain and snow come from above and do not return above without accomplishing their purpose. God compares His Word to the rain and snow because, like the rainfall, God’s Word always fulfills His good purposes.

When God says that His Word will not return to Him void, we can know that He has an intention for His Word. God’s Word is from above. He “breathed” His words to us, and they were recorded in the scriptures: “All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness” 2 Timothy 3:16. Every word He gave humanity is purposeful and was given for a reason. Like the rain and snow, God’s words bring forth life and produce good fruit in our lives, as the Lord said: “The words I have spoken to you—they are full of the Spirit and life” (Jn. 6:36). Through His Word, we know that God loves us and that Jesus died to free us from sin and death; we also learn how to live in light of those truths.

When God says that His Word will not return to Him void, we are encouraged to abide in His Word, allowing it to seep into our lives and soaking it up as the ground soaks up the rain and snow. The truth will not return void as our hearts are changed. God’s Word rebukes us and corrects us when we are wrong, and it trains us in godly living. His Word is a light guiding us in this dark world: “Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path” Psalm 119:105. It is relevant to every pressing and practical problem. God’s Word will always accomplish what He desires, whether it is teaching, correcting, training, leading us to Him, revealing our sin, or some other good and profitable end.

When God says that His Word will not return to Him void, we are also made to understand that God is sovereign. The promise is that God’s Word will accomplish what He wants it to, not necessarily what we want it to. We may share the Word with the purpose of changing someone’s mind—and the person’s mind doesn’t change. Was God’s Word void? No, but our personal goals may have been different from God’s. Like the wind that “blows wherever it pleases,” the Holy Spirit moves in mysterious ways. God may use His Word in surprising ways, at surprising times, and in surprising people. We can’t predict exactly how God will use His Word any more than meteorologists can predict with certitude the rainfall and snowfall.

God’s Word will not return void. It is too powerful. When God said, “Let there be light”, the immediate result was that “there was light” Genesis 1:3. When Jesus said, “Peace! Be still!” Mark 4:39, the wind ceased, and the sea calmed. God’s Word will always prevail; God will succeed, and those who receive His Word will succeed as well, 1 John 5:4.

During this season of conversion, let us renew our faith, draw from the “living water” of hope, and receive with open hearts the love of God, who makes us brothers and sisters in Christ. At the Easter vigil, we will renew our baptismal promises and experience rebirth as new men and women by the working of the Holy Spirit. This Lenten journey, like the entire pilgrimage of the Christian life, is even now illumined by the light of the resurrection, which inspires the thoughts, attitudes, and decisions of the followers of Christ.
