Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3) Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls out an uncomfortable truth about our fallen human nature: we like to locate fault and blame outside ourselves. Jesus corrects this tendency, which is too often an excuse for ignoring our own need for conversion — our own need to produce good fruit.

Lent is a season dedicated to overcoming this "blame-shifting" tendency. It's a season of self-reflection, repentance, and growth in our relationship with God. Our Lenten disciplines and practices give us a concrete opportunities to stop focusing on the perceived shortcomings of others, and to focus on making concrete acts of love and producing good fruit.

One discipline we've been focusing on this Lent is the practice of almsgiving. Being challenged to give to others doesn't allow us to point fingers and highlight their shortcomings. It forces us to reflect on our own generosity and trust in the Lord. Rather than something scary, this should be a welcomed opportunity to be more fully converted to Christ. We have many concrete opportunities for almsgiving, including giving to our Annual Diocesan Appeal. Reread Christ's parable about the fig tree and see what kind of good fruit he might be asking you to produce.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: My eyes are forever turned towards the Lord; for he shall release my feet from the snare; look upon me and have mercy on me, for I am abandoned and destitute.

Offertory: The ordinances of the Lord are right, bringing joy to all hearts, sweeter than honey or the honeycomb. Therefore your servant will observe them.

Communion: The sparrow has found herself a home, and the turtle dove a nest in which to lay her young: at your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God! Blessed are they who dwell in your house, they shall praise you for ever and ever.

It is striking how eschatological (end-times related) the Mass gets this week! The call for repentance rings like a clarion call in the Gospel, reminding us that destruction awaits those who obstinately refuse to turn away from evil. St. Paul provides us with the example of the Israelites in the desert, who offended God by their faithlessness and "grumbling" after everything He had done for them. As we know, most of them died wandering in the desert and never made it to the Promised Land. He described them as a "warning to us, upon whom the end of the ages has come." The "end of the ages" – more eschatological language! Against this backdrop of "Repent!" and "time is running out", the Propers offer us a fitting response to the Gospel message. By acknowledging our weakness ("I am abandoned and destitute"), we open the door into our souls to let God transform us so that we learn to love the things of God and not merely respond in a robotic manner. Obeying the laws of God ultimately brings "joy to all hearts" because there is peace in relying solely on God instead of trying to carve out our own paths, fraught with the dangers of our tendency towards self-centeredness. The laws of God direct our gaze heavenward and to our neighbor, i.e., outside of ourselves, enabling us to "forget ourselves", so to speak, and freeing us from the fear that arises from self-concern. God is in charge, and if we are faithful to Him and call out to Him in our need, He will surely not abandon us! "The sparrow [our soul] herself a home[...]at your altars, O Lord of hosts." The internet/phone system is bad in the village and deteriorating. School is in session, but frequently cancels mid-day because of these conditions and Father Petina said it is the reason we are not getting reports or hearing from him. Hence, the Haiti committee decided to investigate increasing the solar power and battery backup at the church and rectory. This will eliminate using a generator, except for extreme emergency situations. Cost of diesel fuel has become very costly, at times exceeding $10 per gallon.

FROM THE PASTOR

THE JOURNEY OF RENEWAL—LENT 2022

Part III

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“Do not conform to the pattern of this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.” Romans 12:2

The Second Vatican Council Document, Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, #109 says: “The season of Lent has a twofold character: primarily by recalling or preparing for baptism and by penance, it disposes the faithful, who more diligently hear the word of God and devote themselves to prayer, to celebrate the paschal mystery. This twofold character is to be brought into greater prominence both in the liturgy and by liturgical catechesis.”

From such a statement we can say that Lent has two equally important aspects: A baptismal one and a penitential one. Often, we tend to over-emphasize the penitential one. Traditionally those preparing to be baptized or received in the Church do their final preparations during Lent. They are called Catechumens, and we do see a special emphasis on baptism for them during Lent, but all of us should be recalling our Baptism. At the Easter Vigil we will all be renewing our Baptismal promises.

What really happens at Baptism? By going through the waters of Baptism, literally plunging into the waters (the word baptism comes from the Greek baptizein, which means “to plunge”) just as the people in the time of Noah went through the flood, we die to sin; all sin is buried in the waters, and we come up on the other side, reborn into a new life of Christ. Baptism is a death and a resurrection. St. Paul says that all who are baptized are baptized into the death of Christ, we are buried with him, so that as Christ is raised, we too can walk in the newness of life (Rm 6:3-4; Col 2:12). We can say that the renewal of our baptismal promises is the goal of Lent. All our Lenten activities should move us toward this goal. For example, when we go to Confession during Lent, it has an added significance. Our Lenten Confessions should prepare us to reject Satan, all his works, and all his empty promises and to make a deep act of faith in the Father, Son, and Spirit.

When we give alms, pray, and fast during Lent, we should do so secretly and sacrificially (Mt 6:1-18). We should let the Lord put us in a position where we need help, when only our heavenly Father knows our need. Then, when our Father provides, we will know that He did it, for He was the only One Who knew our need. Thus, we will have a greater faith in our Father. This will encourage us to simplify our lifestyle, which will give God the Father more opportunities to father us. We will then be in a lifestyle of ever-increasing faith. This kind of lifestyle is the best context for renewing our baptismal promises.

When we read, pray, and study God's word during Lent, we are not merely reading for information or inspiration. We are reading to grow in faith, for faith comes through hearing and hearing through the Word of God (Rm 10:17). With our faith growing deeper, we are preparing to make the greatest act of faith: the renewal of our baptismal promises.

When we see that all the roads of Lent lead to the renewal of our baptismal promises, we understand that a "good Lent" does not merely mean that we've gone to Confession and have been faithful to our Lenten practices. This is a necessary start, but a good Lent also means that I have repented of all sin in my life and have gone to Confession. Despite my weakness, by God's grace, I have committed myself to obeying the Lord. Therefore, I can renounce Satan and be protected from his retaliation (Acts 19:13 ff). I can use my authority over him and bring down his strongholds (2 Cor 10:4). The extent of my penitential practices has put me in a position where I obviously needed God's practical help immediately. My heavenly Father has fathered me, and I now have a deeper faith than ever before.

If the Lord has His way, the renewal of our baptismal promises on Easter Sunday will be the greatest act of faith of our lives. Even if we previously have totally committed our lives to the Father, Son, and Spirit, this Easter's renewal of our baptismal promises should not be a re-run, but especially a new life in God.
