Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3) Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: The earth is full of the mercy of the Lord, alleluia; by the word of the Lord, the heavens were established, alleluia, alleluia.

Offertory: O God, my God, from daybreak do I watch for you; and in invocation of your name will I lift up my hands.

Communion: I am the good shepherd, alleluia; I know my sheep and my own know me, alleluia, alleluia.

"The earth is full of the mercy of the Lord," – our entrance Antiphon for today – really captures the beauty and hopefulness of this particular Sunday, named "Good Shepherd Sunday" because of the Gospel. Everything that exists because God, in the depths of His mercy, so wills it. There is nothing He created that He does not will to exist, and this is good news! We see in the first reading that now the Gentiles (non-Jews), created in God's image and likeness yet excluded from salvation, are now receiving the Word. The message of salvation, once reserved for the Chosen People, is now universal. Israel was chosen to shine in the world as a light that would become a blessing to all peoples through the coming of the Messiah. Now we live in the age in which the designs of God are being realized: Christ, the Good Shepherd, through His Church, is seeking lost souls to restore them to the glory God intended for His creatures. Whether we will choose to "prefer the darkness" belongs to our free wills, but this does not take away from the fact that God created us out of pure love and wishes us to be with Him for all eternity. Let us strive to cultivate a longing in our souls for the Presence of God, that we might dispose ourselves to "know" the Shepherd's voice and live in accordance with way of life He has modeled for us in His own earthly existence. May we persevere in this life that we might "sing thy praise within thy house forever."

FROM THE PASTOR

THE POWER IN HIS RESURRECTION

Part IV

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

"And He died for all, that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again."

2 Corinthians 5:15

Some people believe that Jesus was the most surprised person about his own resurrection. I would say that His Incarnation was more surprising to Him since he is the Son of God, and becoming the Son of Man by taking on our human nature might have been a shock. As one reads the four gospels, one is struck by the fact that Jesus predicted, over and over again, His betrayal, death, and resurrection:

"So the Jews answered and said to him, 'What sign do you show to us, since you do these things?' Jesus answered and said to them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' Then the Jews said, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the temple of his body. When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this; and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had spoken." John 2:18-22

"From that time Jesus began to show to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day." Matthew 16:21

"The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men. They will kill him, and after three days he will rise."

Matthew 17:22-23

No doubt the resurrection of Jesus Christ is the foundation of Christianity and the Christian faith. The risen Christ is the reality of our faith and is a living hope. If Christ didn't rise from the dead, then our faith is futile, and we are still in our sins (see 1 Corinthians 15:14-19). Jesus proved that He wasn't a liar or a lunatic but showed that He is the Son of God by rising from the dead (Mark 9:31; Romans 1:4). Each member of the Godhead or Trinity (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) in unity was involved in raising Jesus from the dead (Acts 2:24; Galatians 1:1; John 2:18-19; John 10:18; Romans 8:11; 1 Peter 3:18). His resurrection validates His death and finished work on the cross, certifying that the righteousness He came to work out was completed 2 Corinthians 5:21

How can we live out the Resurrection? That's an important question to ask during this Easter season. Well, maybe the first answer to that question is that to live out the Resurrection we first have to truly believe in Jesus's resurrection. Through His resurrection on that first Easter Sunday, Jesus shows us the way, thus empowering us. The Risen One shows us that life is stronger than death, that hope is stronger than despair, that love is stronger than hate, and that nothing is impossible with God. That should give us all hope in our lives not only because Jesus conquered death, but because he is showing us, revealing to us, a pattern for our own lives. He's showing us that we can always hope that suffering is not the last word, and that God always can bring new life out of what seems to be a dead situation.

Oftentimes we may feel a sense of despair, that nothing can ever change in our lives. Thomas Merton once said that sometimes that kind of despair can be a manifestation of pride. We sometimes think that God can't change anything and that we know better, but that's not what Easter tells us! So, one way to live out the Resurrection in your life is, first, to believe in Jesus's resurrection, which means that new life is possible for you too!
