Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3)
Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: We have received your mercy, O God, in the midst of your temple; even as your name, so also does your praise extend to the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with righteousness.

Offertory: You will save the humble nation, O Lord, and bring down the eyes of the proud. For who is God, other than you, O Lord?

Communion: O taste and see how gracious the Lord is; blessed is the man who trusts in him.

It is striking the kind of trust that our Lord demands from His disciples, telling them to go proclaiming the Kingdom of God while depending on the generosity of others to care for their temporal needs. We must become as a "humble nation" because God will then manifest His power in our weakness. Hence, Christ sends the disciples out "as lambs among wolves". This kind of trust stems from the knowledge that we are loved and that God will not abandon us. We therefore rejoice for having received His mercy "in the midst of [...] the temple", i.e., Holy Mass and the lifegiving Eucharist, and can give our hearts to God with confidence, letting Him lead us where He wills, that we might find our true and lasting happiness. May He give us the strength to persevere that we might rejoice "because your names are written in heaven."

FROM THE PASTOR

FROM THE RESURRECTION TO LIFE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT

Part V

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“I will praise the LORD, who counsels me; even at night my heart instructs me” (Ps.16:7).

Counsel builds on both wisdom, which allows us to judge the things of the world in light of our final end, and understanding, which helps us to penetrate to the very core of the mysteries of our faith. “With the gift of counsel the Holy Spirit speaks, as it were, to the heart and in an instant enlightens a person what to do,” writes Father Hardon. It is the gift that allows us as Christians to be assured that we will act correctly in times of trouble and trial. Through counsel, we can speak without fear in defense of the Christian Faith. Thus, the Catholic Encyclopedia notes, counsel “enables us to see and choose correctly what will help most to the glory of God and our own salvation.”

The Holy Spirit reveals God’s care for us as He lends us His aid in knowing and choosing goodness. By this Gift of Counsel, the Holy Spirit helps us to recognize the moral law as a gift from God that leads us to true goodness and to act in love. This is especially true when doing so requires sacrifice and hardship.

The Gift of Counsel is a great example of how God invites us to take part in the Divine Life. The gift of counsel bears very practical consequences, for counsel keeps us from foolishness, from acting without thinking. By endowing the soul with divinely shaped reasoning, counsel saves us from the risk of rash and ill-formed practical judgement on our way to eternal life. Through the Gift of Counsel, our conscience becomes a place where the human heart meets the Holy Spirit. This gift is of particular importance for our cooperation with the Lord in the workings of his providence for others. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church says, “God wills that each receives what he needs from others, and that those endowed with particular talents share the benefits with those who need them. These differences encourage and often oblige persons to practice generosity, kindness and sharing of goods”. The gift of counsel ensures that divine distribution of talents will continually take place according to God’s plan in a manner that provides for our cooperation in the sharing of God’s blessings.

Like all the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, the Gift of Counsel is active in all of us, but it is especially strong in some Christians. Saint Martin de Porres is a great model of the Gift of Counsel. Not only did St. Martin live a morally upright life, but he also always strove for the greater good. He was known as the servant of the poor – not in some generic “social justice” sense but in a very personal way. The Gift of Counsel guided him in judging how he needed to respond to the unique needs of each person he served so they could experience God’s love and mercy.

What course of action can we take to grow in this gift: 1- Learn more about the moral law and the moral teachings of the Church! Because these help us to live a more fully human life as we follow the two Great Commandments of love. 2- Pray for a deeper appreciation of the moral law as a sign of God’s love for you. 3- Turn to the Holy Spirit whenever you struggle to know what is right in a particular situation. 4- Pray that the Holy Spirit would lead you beyond simply avoiding the “big sins.” Thirst for excellence, selfless love and holiness.
