Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3)
Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: When I cried out to the Lord, he heeded my call against my assailants; he who is before the beginning of the world and who endures forever has humbled them. Cast your cares upon the Lord, and he will sustain you.

Offertory: Unto you, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; O my God, I trust in you, let me not be put to shame; do not allow my enemies to laugh at me; for none of those who are awaiting you will be disappointed.

Communion: The sparrow has found herself a home, and the turtle dove a nest in which to lay her young: at your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God! Blessed are they who dwell in your house, they shall praise you for ever and ever.

The Antiphons for today are so rich in meditations! Wandering souls shall find rest in the house of the Lord, i.e., one who obeys the commands of the Lord will find abundant inner joy and peace. This is the thread that unites the readings, which all speak of obedience to the laws God has given to us first in the Old Testament and then in Christ's teachings as given in the Gospels and Tradition. We already see in the Entrance Antiphon confident faith in God's Providence towards those who place their trust in Him. In the Offertory Antiphon, the psalm, as if emboldened by the aforementioned confident proclamation, turns to God in prayer, confident that He will answer. The Communion Antiphon, then, crowns this train of thought with the wonderful revelation that those place themselves under God's care and follow Him no matter what will find themselves in His friendship, which provides rest against the tumults of this life and is a blessed assurance that the next life will be free of the danger of becoming separated from God by sin. "My cup with blessings flows over!"

FROM THE PASTOR

FROM THE RESURRECTION TO LIFE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT

Part VI

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“Teach me Your way, O LORD, that I may walk in Your truth. Give me an undivided heart, that I may fear Your name. I will praise you, O Lord my God, with all my heart; I will glorify your name forever”

Psalm. 86:11-12

Can we ever show God the kind of honor and devotion that he deserves? If we are ever going to give God the kind of homage that we owe him as his creatures and adopted children, then we will need the help of the Holy Spirit. St. Paul put it this way; “Now in the same way the Spirit also helps our weakness; for we do not know what to pray for as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words” (Rom.8:26).

The gift of Piety is the particular Gift by which God the Holy Spirit himself enables us to come to God paying the kind of homage and worship that is appropriate and best. This gift helps us to realize the ultimate purpose of our existence; “God puts us in the world to know, love and to serve him and so come to heaven to be with him forever.” While fear of the Lord helps us shun evil, Piety enables us to make right and holy approach to God so as to deepen and advance our relationship with him through worship and good works. Pope St. Gregory taught, “Through fear of the Lord, we rise to piety.” The basic definition is “to give filial worship to God precisely as our Father and to relate with all people as children of the same Father.” Here a person shows reverence for God as a loving Father, and respects others as children of God precisely because that is what we all are.

The gift of piety fosters the following spiritual dispositions: first, filial respect for God as a loving Father; second, a generous and childlike love, so that a person wants to please God, even if it means making sacrifices; and third, a loving obedience toward the teachings and commandments, respecting them as expressions of God’s love for us. As such, a person approaches prayer or worship at Mass not as a task or burden but as an act of joyful love; a person adheres to the commandments and teachings of the Church — as difficult as it may be at the time, given “popular” opinion — because he/she knows they express God’s truth and therefore show the way to eternal life. So we can see, why fear of the Lord and piety are so closely linked.

Piety also makes us love and have affection for “God’s friends” — the Blessed Mother Mary, the saints and the angels; or “God’s representatives” who exercise His authority — the Holy Father, the bishop, or parents; or “God’s treasures” — the Bible, the church, or blessed religious objects. Concerning piety toward God’s treasures, as a child, I was taught to kiss the Bible and the crucifix, to bow my head at the name of Jesus, to be quiet and respectful in God’s house, and to avoid walking on blessed graves — all acts of piety. As such, the gift of piety perfects the virtue of justice, enabling the individual to fulfill obligations to God and neighbor, and to do so willingly and joyfully.

All in all, the gift of piety makes us grow in our relation and communion with God and leads us to live as His children; at the same time it helps us to pour this love also on others and to recognize them as brothers.
