Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3)
Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: I am the salvation of the people, says the Lord; from whatever tribulations they cry out to me, I will give heed to them; and I will be their Lord for ever.

Offertory: If I walk in the midst of tribulation you shall preserve my life, O Lord; you shall stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies; your right hand has delivered me.

Communion: You have ordered that your commandments be kept diligently; O that my ways may be guided towards the keeping of your statutes. Today's Entrance and Offertory Antiphons complement the stark warning from God in the first reading. Amos chastises Israel for mistreating the poor and depriving them of their just wages; the Antiphons, on the other hand, promise God's protection to those who follow His ways. Remarkably, the Entrance and Offertory elegantly bookend all the readings after the manner of a dialog. God speaks to us in the Entrance Antiphon, promising deliverance when we cry out. The Offertory Antiphon is our response to that promise – a prayer of confidence and trust: "your right hand has delivered me." An interesting change in direction then occurs in the Communion Antiphon with the Psalmist begging for the grace to remain steadfast in keeping God's laws, which also illuminates the Entrance Antiphon. There is a profound thirsting in the plea to keep His statutes. This thirsting hearkens back to a text from the same chapter as the first reading, though it is not actually included. God said that Israel, as punishment, would suffer a famine of hunger and thirst for "hearing the word of the Lord". When we turn away from God as a society, we cease to treat each other with dignity, and it becomes difficult to encounter God in the example of our neighbor. We begin to thirst for mercy and compassion but can find none among our confreres. Authentic preaching and living of the Word becomes scarce. How beautiful, then is God's promise in the Entrance that He will deliver us from tribulation! Give thanks to God, for He is good; His mercy endures forever!

In today's Gospel, we see that prudent decisiveness means that we recognize that all our choices in daily living are choices for eternal life. Our neighbors in need are messengers of God, sent to prove our justice and charity, and to save us by our works. St. Vincent de Paul learned that Christian love must weave together deep affection and hard work, a love that takes flesh in works of charity. Members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Holy Trinity Conference invite you to share in our ministry of experiencing God in serving your neighbors-in-need. Please email us at info@sudp-ht.org. Sign up for our Friends of the Poor Walk Sept. 27, 2022, 6pm after the 5:15pm Mass at St. Thomas Aquinas. # FROM THE PASTOR

OUR LIFE AND STRENGTH IN THE EUCHARISTIC JESUS

Part I

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you” John 6:53

In June 2022, the bishops of the United States invited all dioceses to begin a three-year plan to revive and foster Eucharistic devotion in parishes and in the hearts of the faithful. In response to that invitation, I would like to share with you the power and the strength we can experience in the Eucharistic Jesus.

Fr. Lawrence in his book, The Basic Book of the Eucharist, says, “The Eucharist, as a sacrament, produces in you an increase of habitual, or sanctifying, grace by its own power. Its effects are like those of food: it maintains, increases, and repairs your spiritual forces, also causing a joy that is not necessarily felt, yet it is real”. Holy Communion not only preserves the life of your soul, but increases it, just as the body is not only supported by means of natural food but grows stronger.

Jesus, Whom we receive in Holy Communion, preserves and increases all the various virtues which are bestowed upon our souls together with sanctifying grace. By increasing the theological virtues (faith, hope, and charity), Holy Communion enables you to enter into closer union with God, and by strengthening the moral virtues (prudence, temperance, justice, and fortitude), Holy Communion enables us to regulate better our whole attitude toward God, our neighbors, and ourselves. By rendering the seven gifts and the twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit more abundant, Holy Communion opens our understanding and will to the inspirations and promptings of the same Holy Spirit.

The Gospels frequently speak of Jesus’ feelings for others, especially sinners and those who suffer (cf. Matthew 20:34, Mark 6:34, Luke 19:41). Through a profoundly human sensibility, he expresses God’s saving will for all people – that they may have true life. Each celebration of the Eucharist makes sacramentally present the gift that the crucified Lord made of His life, for us and for the whole world. In the Eucharist, Jesus also makes us witnesses of God’s compassion towards all our brothers and sisters. The Eucharistic mystery consequently gives rise to a service of charity towards neighbor, which consists in the very fact that, in God and with God, I love even the person whom I do not like or even know. This is a new way of living my life with courage which does not come from me but from the One I receive in the Eucharist – Jesus my Lord. This can only take place based on an intimate encounter with God, an encounter which has become a communion of will, affecting even my feelings. Then I learn to look on this other person not simply with my eyes and my feelings, but from the perspective of Jesus Christ.

The Eucharistic Jesus compels all who believe in him to become “bread that is broken” for others and to work for the building of a more just and fraternal world. Keeping in mind the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes, we need to realize that Christ continues today to exhort us, his disciples, to become personally engaged: “You yourselves, give them something to eat” (Matthew 14:16). How can we manage to do this? The Lord answers in these words: “Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me. I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For without me you can do nothing” (John 15:4-5).
