Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3)
Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: Your mercy extends to all things, O Lord, and you despise none of the things you have made. You overlook the sins of men for the sake of repentance. You grant them your pardon, because you are the Lord our God.

Offertory: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits; and your youth shall be renewed like the eagle's.

Communion: You have made known unto me the ways of life; you will fill me with joy at the sight of your countenance, O Lord.

What great hope today's texts provide! The Entrance Antiphon is a direct quote from the first reading – the Book of Wisdom – which goes on to say, "For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made; for what you hated, you would not have fashioned." Because we exist, it is clear as day that God love us! The Offertory Antiphon takes on a whole new level of joy in this light; it is not just a generic act of thanksgiving to God for His goodness but a personal response of gratitude to the realization that we occupy a unique place in His plan by virtue of our very existence. This realization of our uniqueness will renew our youth "like the eagle's", i.e., love for God and zeal for His glory will reawaken in our souls, and we will become like young lovers! We will then be filled "with joy at the sight of [his] countenance", learning to love Him more perfectly not with the servile fear of judgment but of the perfect fear of losing His friendship. Bless the Lord, O my soul! Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy and Music

FROM THE PASTOR

OUR LIFE AND STRENGTH IN THE EUCHARISTIC JESUS

Part VII

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

"In a certain sense, Mary lived her Eucharistic faith even before the institution of the Eucharist by the very fact that she offered her virginal womb for the Incarnation of God's Word"
(Ecclesia de Eucharistia, Pope St. John Paul II)

In his encyclical, Ecclesia de Eucharistia, Pope St. John Paul II continues to say; "Mysterium fidei! If the Eucharist is a mystery of faith which so greatly transcends our understanding as to call for sheer abandonment to the word of God, then there can be no one like Mary to act as our support and guide in acquiring this disposition. In repeating what Christ did at the Last Supper in obedience to his command: 'Do this in memory of me!', we also accept Mary's invitation to obey him without hesitation: 'Do whatever he tells you' (Jn 2:5). With the same maternal concern which she showed at the wedding feast of Cana, Mary seems to say to us: 'Do not waver; trust in the words of my Son. If he was able to change water into wine, he can also turn bread and wine into his body and blood, and through this mystery bestow on believers the living memorial of his Passover, thus becoming the 'bread of life.'"

St. Peter Julian Eymard, that marvelous Saint so totally devoted to the Eucharist, declared that even in this world, after Jesus' Ascension into Heaven, the Blessed Virgin "lived a life in and by the Blessed Sacrament", and so he liked to call her "Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament". Padre Pio would sometimes say to his spiritual children, "Do you not see the Madonna always beside the tabernacle?" And how could she fail to be there—she who "stood by the Cross of Jesus" on Calvary (John 19:25). St. Maximilian Kolbe used to recommend that when we go before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, we never fail to remember Mary's presence, calling on her and associating ourselves with her, at least seeing to it that her sweet name comes to mind.

It is in the Eucharist, and especially in Holy Communion, that our union with the Blessed Virgin Mary becomes a full and loving conformity with her. We receive her devoted care and protection along with the Blessed Sacrament. Her tender attentions overlook nothing as Christ is united to each of us, her children, moving her to pour out all her motherly love on our souls and bodies. The great St. Hilary, Father and Doctor of the Church, wrote this excellent passage: "The greatest joy that we can give Mary is that of bearing Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament within our breast." Her motherly union with Jesus becomes a union also with whoever is united to Jesus, especially in Holy Communion. What can give as much joy to one who loves as union with the person loved? And we, are we not beloved children of the heavenly Mother?

When we go before Jesus on the altar, we always find Him "with Mary His Mother," as the Magi did at Bethlehem (Mt. 2:11). Further, Jesus in the sacred Host, from the altar of our hearts, can repeat to each of us what He said to St. John the Evangelist from the altar of Calvary, "Behold thy Mother" (John 19:27). St. Augustine beautifully illustrates even better how Mary makes herself our own and unites herself to each one of us in Holy Communion. He says: "The Word is the Food of the Angels. Men have not the strength to feed It to themselves, nor need they do so. What is needed is a mother who may eat this supersubstantial Bread, transform it into her milk, and in this way feed her poor children. This mother is Mary. She nourishes herself with the Word and transforms It into the Sacred Humanity. She transforms It into Flesh and Blood."

We must always keep this in mind: Every time we go to Holy Communion, something sweet to recall is that Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the Bread of Life produced from Mary with the flour of her Immaculate flesh, pressed with the mixture of her virginal milk. She has made this for us, her children, and we realize more fully our brotherhood with one another as we all partake of this delicious, delightful Bread of our Mother.
