Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3) Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

In today's Gospel, Jesus gave a radical commandment – "When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one to him as well" (Matthew 5:39). Today, it is cliché and remains radical, because it has the power to change hearts and nations.

Ask Gandhi. Even though he wasn't Catholic, Gandhi leveraged the power of nonviolence to bring about a new kind of revolution. His peaceful tactics inaugurated a massive movement which eventually resulted in economic independence for India.

With that we might also reveal the power of such a disposition in our lives! Christ himself did not hide his face "from insults and spitting" (Isaiah 50:6). We all experience being "struck on the cheek" in various ways. We want our parish and diocese to be a haven where people can find the strength to face the evils in their lives. When you support our Annual Diocesan Appeal, you help increase our ability to heal and sustain the bruised and weary. Through your generosity of prayer, gifts, and good words, we can continue to offer the bread of angels to the hungry and make the Annual Appeal shine brightly! God bless you.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: O Lord, I have placed my trust in your merciful love; my heart has rejoiced in your salvation. I will sing unto the Lord who has dealt bountifully with me.

Offertory: Hearken to the voice of my prayer, O my King and my God, for it is you, O Lord, whom I implore.

Communion: I will relate all your wondrous deeds. I will be glad and rejoice in you; I will sing to the honor of your name, O Most High.

This last Sunday before Lent, the Church fittingly draws our attention to God's mercy in both the readings and the Propers. The call to repentance so characteristic of Lententide is only possible because God receives those who turn away from sin back into a relationship with Him. His justice is perfect, which makes His mercy all the more wondrous. The Offertory Antiphon is particularly striking in its acknowledgment of God's mercy. The Psalmist (and us through him) implores God to hear his prayers by virtue of the fact that mercy is part of Who God is: "for it is you, O Lord, whom I implore." One might rephrase this prayer as, "I could turn to anyone for help and a kind word, but I am turning to You, Lord, because You will always be there for me." Even before we arrive at this beautiful acknowledgment of God's mercy, the Entrance Antiphon proclaims the goodness of God, "who has dealt bountifully with me". Concluding with the evangelical Communion Antiphon, "I will relate all your wondrous deeds", we see an elegant progression in the Antiphons of hearing of God's mercy, experiencing God's mercy, and sharing God's mercy. Let us consider the beautiful words of a 16th century piece of music: "Nolo mortem peccatoris"; "I do not wish the death of the sinner." Thanks be to God.

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS

Part V

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God”.

Romans 8:14-17

It must be explained to the faithful that the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace (Roman Ritual, Rite of Confirmation Introduction 1). For “by the Sacrament of Confirmation, [the baptized] are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence, they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed” (LG 11; cf. OC, Introduction 2; Catechism #1285). The effects of Confirmation include a permanent change in character to the soul, a perfection of baptismal grace, an increase in the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit, a deepening of our identity as adopted sons and daughters of God, a closer bond to the Church and her mission, and helps for bearing witness.

The truth is that Confirmation can be confusing at times. Perhaps the name itself can be misleading. It is thought, at times, that Confirmation is your opportunity to “confirm” your faith. Well, yes—you certainly must do this as you receive the sacrament, but this ultimately does not get to the heart of Confirmation. It is not so much about you confirming your choice to be Catholic; rather, it’s about God the Holy Spirit confirming you! It’s much more something that God does to you and your eternal soul than something you do for God or even yourself.

Now, finishing our discussion from last week about the gifts of the Holy Spirit that we receive at Confirmation—when it comes to the gift of understanding, this gift stimulates us to work on knowing ourselves as part of our growth in knowing God. It is what St. Augustine meant when he prayed, “That I may know You, may I know myself.” When the Spirit pours fortitude or courage into our hearts, we can trust that we will be prepared to stand up for Christ and the Gospel when challenged. As the gift of counsel or right judgment grows in us, we can sense the quiet teaching that the Spirit gives us about our moral lives and the training of our consciences.

The gift of piety or reverence is an act of respect for the Father who created us, for Jesus who saved us, and for the Spirit who is sanctifying us. We learn reverence for God and people from our parents and others who train us in virtue. The Spirit fills us with this gift at the liturgy, which is a masterful school of reverence, as well as through popular devotions and piety.

Finally, the gift of fear of the Lord or wonder and awe in God’s presence can infuse honesty into our relationship with God, a frankness that places us in awe before the majesty of God. Yet the gift also imparts an attitude of grateful wonder that God loves us and that we can share in his life.

When we are responsive to the grace of Confirmation and the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, we begin to bear the fruits of the Spirit. The tradition of the Church names twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity (CCC, no. 1832 and Gal 5:22).

Like Baptism, Confirmation changes your soul. You receive a spiritual character (an indelible mark) on your soul. This marking becomes a permanent source of grace for you throughout eternity. It is important, then, from time to time to tap into the grace of Confirmation by praying to the Holy Spirit daily for an increase of this grace.
