Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3) Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

In today's Gospel, Jesus claims, "One does not live by bread alone" (Matthew 4:4). Jesus forewent food in the wilderness for forty days to prove it was possible. Because He is so abundant, God's spirit can sustain any need.

Our fasting shows us that this is possible in a personal, experiential way. Fasting is an act of faith that "No, I don't have to satisfy every urge." Relying on God, we aren't subservient to our urges.

Jesus tasked our parish with the mission to reach hungry souls with Jesus' sustaining bread of life. Through your generosity, you can help our Annual Diocesan Appeal feed those who hunger—physically and spiritually. Jesus' angels ministered to Him at the end of His fast and we, too, need your help to minister to the weak. Some souls have been fasting from His love for far too long. This Lent let's work together to end that fast. They need to know His name. May the name of Jesus be glorified through our Appeal!

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: When he calls to me, I will answer him; I will rescue him and honor him; with long life will I satisfy him.

Offertory: The Lord will overshadow you with his pinions, and you will find refuge under his wings. His faithfulness will encompass you with a shield.

Communion: He will overshadow you with his pinions, and you will find refuge under his wings. His faithfulness will encompass you with a shield.

Psalm 90 pervades the Propers this First Sunday of Lent. The Psalmist is referring to the just man and how he will be protected by God in all his doings because of his faithfulness. Our Lord Jesus Christ is the perfect fulfillment of this psalm, relying on His Father in all things and undoing disobedience of Adam through His perfect obedience. We see in the Gospel today how the devil manipulates the psalm by goading Jesus to test God's promises, but Our Lord gives us an example of utter dependence on God. We must strive to love the Commandments of God and the teachings of His Church in order to form our consciences, enabling us to hear the voice of God and respond to it with promptness and cheerfulness. As we strive to detach ourselves from distractions this season, let us look to the consoling words of the Entrance Antiphon from Ash Wednesday: "Your mercy extends to all things, O Lord, and you despise none of the things you have made. You overlook the sins of men for the sake of repentance. You grant them your pardon, because you are the Lord our God."

BECOMING A PROFESSED LAY DOMINICAN is a lifelong vocation open to all practicing Catholic men and women, single or married, who embrace Dominican Spirituality that includes the four pillars of prayer, study, apostolate, and community. Lay Dominicans meet in community once a month for prayer, study, and friendship, then —fortified by Grace and their Chapter meeting—go out into the world to serve secular society. By making a commitment to an apostolate, the Lay Dominican finds ways to share with all the Truth and Love of God for man.

The St. Thomas Aquinas Chapter is the local Dominican Laity Chapter. If you are interested in visiting the local Chapter, please email OLaity511@gmail.com and a Lay Dominican will contact you with additional information.

MINISTRIES

OUTREACH: We appreciate your generous support to Outreach through your contributions and donations! During the month of January, we gave out food bags to 119 households/325 individuals. And we served 244 meals at Soup Kitchen. Please leave your food donations in the basket in the Commons. God Bless You! (This USDA pantry institution is an equal opportunity provider).

WORKS OF MERCY MINISTRY is pleased to announce an opportunity to serve Holy Comforter's homebound or hospitalized members as an Extraordinary Minister (EM) of Holy Communion. If you are looking for a meaningful way to "give back," this ministry promises richness. Training is provided. Call the parish office (434) 295-7185 or email mercy@holycomforterparish.org if interested. A commitment to this ministry could be a great way to start off your Lenten program. Also, a parishioner who lives at the Colonnades on Barracks Road needs a ride to Sunday's 11AM Mass. To help, email mercy@holycomforterparish.org

THE HEARTS FOR HAITI fundraiser was successful. We still need two hundred additional sponsors to be where we were pre-COVID. It is a tax-deductible donation. The United States Government (USG) has initiated or is in the process of initiating an immigration policy called the "Parole program for Cubans, Haitians, Nicaraguans, and Venezuelans". The status of the "Parole program for Haitians", allowing individuals or families to come to the US for up to two years, is a bit nebulous at this point. I will be attending a course on the Parole program and will keep you informed. Also, a member of the Haiti Committee the is seriously ill, please keep him in your prayers. Please continue to keep St. Michel, Saltadare, and Haiti in your prayers. Thank you for supporting our Tri-Parish Haiti mission.

FROM THE PASTOR

WELCOMING LENT 2023:

Part I

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

"You have abandoned your first love. Therefore, remember how far you have fallen. Repent and perform the deeds you did at first" (Rev. 2:4-5).

On Wednesday we entered the holy season of lent, a season of grace, a season of hope and joy. We marked our foreheads with ashes, proclaiming a time of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving. We received ashes with the words, "Repent and believe the Gospel" (Mark 1:15) or "Remember you are dust, and to dust you shall return".

I invite you during this season to take into your heart these two words: LOVE and REPENT. In the text from the Book of Revelation Chapter 2, the Lord expresses his disappointment with the people he loves. They showed Him love and devotion initially, but then it faded and was lost. These are haunting words. What it means is that you can do all the right things – teach a Bible study, even stand up for the truth – and yet your heart can be cold! This challenges us to pause and do some self-reflection this season. When was the last time you spent time with Jesus? When did you come before Him and ask for His help to know Him more? I'm sure we all remember what it was like when we first came to Christ and enjoyed His presence and were amazed by it all, to be overjoyed when we sang of how our sins have been nailed to the cross entirely at our Baptism and in the sacrament of penance!

Jesus gives three actions to help get us back to where He expects us to be: remember, repent, do the works you did at first (Rev. 2:5). These probably seem too simple, but often the best solutions are simple. Remembering is a mental action with no outward manifestation, yet is an important start, for we cannot bring ourselves anywhere if we don't remember from where we came. It leads us to the next action: repentance. Repenting calls us to turn away from sin and is observable because true repentance is accompanied by the doing of works. This is important because to get back the first love involves letting go of something AND regaining something in the process. Someone wrote a book called The Expulsive Power of a New Affection on how we cannot get rid of an old love unless something better comes. So, for us there must be an active action and change that needs to be done during this graced period of Lent. What is pulling you and keeping you away from your first love today? Let it go!

The call to repentance by Jesus, and the real call of Lent, is to take a new look at God, to refresh our image of him. It is to come to a vivid realization that God loves us now, as we are, and even before we changed. The main thing in Lent is not that we should do things for God but that we should become more aware of how much God is loving us. Each day we want to see more and more that God loves us powerfully, unfailingly, permanently. We want to bring home to ourselves that God is all tenderness and compassion, rich in graciousness and ready to relent.

The real repentance of Lent is to "turn" and look into the eyes of Jesus and see how much he loves us, how totally forgiving he is. It is to let God be God in every aspect of our lives, and from this new awareness of God's love there comes the power to turn our backs on sin, to turn away from what is wrong and embrace with our whole being all that is good. The means are simple: Self-denial, amplified by prayer and generous giving, open our eyes to God's love and our desire to care for other people. May all of us have a fruitful season of LENT.

Consider the following:

- Have you lost your first love? What is the state of your current relationship with Jesus Christ?
- Do you love your Catholic Church? What is your current relationship with God's loved ones?
- What is the one thing you can do differently during this Lent of 2023?
