Fifth Sunday of Lent

March 26, 2023

That priests, deacons, sisters and brothers who, for the sake of Christ, have suffered the loss of all things, will be strengthened in their vocations to bring many souls to the knowledge of salvation, we pray to the Lord.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT: We, the members of Holy Comforter Parish, united in faith by God, nourished by Jesus through the Word and the Eucharist, and guided by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, believe that we are called to worship, formation, service, and evangelization within our parish, our local communities, and all those in need.

Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3) Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

In today's Gospel, Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead. In doing so, he forecasts two events: his return from the dead and ours.

Death, and the events that follow, are challenging and often hide at the edge of our consciousness. It drives us to avoid aggressive drivers, work harder, or hold close the ones we love at goodbyes.

As difficult as death is, the Resurrection is our hope and Lent is our time to pray, give and spread the word! "I am the Resurrection and the Life," says Jesus (John 11:25). When you support our Annual Diocesan Appeal, you enable us to deliver this same hope and mercy to those in need.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: Vindicate me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly nation; from wicked and deceitful men deliver me, for you are my God and my strength.

Offertory: I will praise you, O Lord, with my whole heart; deal bountifully with your servant, that I may live and observe your word; revive me according to your word, O Lord.

Communion: When the Lord saw the sisters of Lazarus in tears near the tomb, he wept in the presence of the Jews and cried: Lazarus, come forth. And out he came, hands and feet bound, the man who had been dead for four days. This Sunday was traditionally called "Passion Sunday" because the original Gospel focused on the tension that arose between Jesus and the Pharisees when He very poignantly accused them of blindness and hardness of heart and also solemnly declared His divinity, which directly led to their plotting to have Him killed. The memory of that Gospel is still present in the entrance antiphon where the Psalmist (and now Christ) pleads for deliverance from the "ungodly nation", i.e., those Jews who had become blind to the Prophets and Scriptures and refused to believe in Christ, and by extension those who are opposed to goodness because of their blindness due to sin. Because this is the beginning of Christ's Passion, we cover our statues to remind us that He was taken away from us for a time. Against this interesting historical backdrop is placed the Gospel for Year A, which tells of the raising of Lazarus from the dead. It is striking because we see that, as darkness increases, God's glory is more greatly magnified. The Apostles were afraid to return to Judea because of the Jews, and yet Jesus returned to raise Lazarus from the dead, that all might believe in Him – by far one of his most stunning miracles. When we find ourselves in the darkness of our sins or decaying societal values, let us turn to God and ask Him to "revive me according to your word".

THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL is a network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness, and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need. We seek the face of Christ in all we meet. Your almsgiving helps to prevent evictions, utility disconnections and relieve stress in the hearts of many struggling neighbors. Those we visit share in God's blessings from the charity of our Catholic Community. Thank you. If you would like to help us by joining the Society, please contact us at info@svdp-ht.org or call (434) 226-8022, and we will get back to you. We are in urgent need of members who can speak Spanish to help us support and communicate with our many Spanish speaking friends in need. Thank you! God bless you for your prayerful consideration.

JOIN US FOR THE 28TH ANNUAL CHARLOTTESVILLE CATHOLIC SCHOOL GALA AUCTION, which will be held on Saturday, April 29 at the Omni Hotel. The Gala Auction is a fabulous evening for the CCS community to come together and support the school! Featuring cocktail hour and a seated dinner, live and silent auctions, and a number of fun raffles, this is our school's biggest fundraising effort each year—you don't want to miss it!

WELCOMING LENT 2023

Part V

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

"Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not hide my iniquity; I said, 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lord,' and you forgave the guilt of my sin"

Psalms 32:5

We have passed the halfway point in our Lenten journey; during this season we have been spending time with the Word of God and receiving reassurance of forgiveness. We have heard words like "God is our refuge and our fortress", that we live "under the protective cover of God's wings", and heard the promise of God's steadfast love surrounding us. These are words of divine grace that offer us comfort and encouragement, especially when life's circumstances are challenging.

Forgiveness is the greatest gift that we can receive. The whole reason why Jesus came among us as a man and suffered and died for us on the cross was to give us the gift of reconciliation with his Father and with our brothers and sisters. His whole purpose was to heal the conflict that had been caused by the sin of Adam. Jesus' goal is for us to be brought into a perfect union with His Father and with each other. He wants us all to have that amazing experience of being forgiven—not just for a moment but for all eternity.

Psalms 32 promises happiness to those whose transgressions are forgiven and whom God has deemed not guilty, and "in whose spirit there is no deceit". However, the psalmist warns that "while I kept silent, my body wasted away through my groaning all day long. For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer" (Ps. 32:3). What we need to know and appreciate is that, when forgiven, we will be happy and filled with joy, but first we have to acknowledge the presence of that sin, about which the Psalmist confesses having kept silence about. If we're to experience the blessings and joy of forgiveness, we need to acknowledge our sin.

The season of Lent invites us to look more closely at our lives and ask whether there are signs of deceit or guile, signs of iniquity, transgression, or sin! What we call sin comes in different forms, but whatever form it takes, it can be destructive. Some sin is personal, and some sin is systemic. When it comes to the systemic forms, it's like a virus in the water. Think for a moment of racism. Why does racism exist in our culture? Are we born racist? I don't think so. Or, rather, do we soak it in like a virus that's present in the water? We may not be fully aware of its presence, but when we drink the water of our culture, we become infected. As we know, this virus is prevalent and destructive.

While the Psalmist at first kept silent about his sin, eventually he confesses: "I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not hide my iniquity; I said, 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lord,' and you forgave the guilt of my sin" (Ps. 32:5). In this there is blessing and happiness and joy! So, let's not be stubborn like a horse or mule and refuse to acknowledge what we know to be true about ourselves. May we embrace the promise that while "many are the torments of the wicked... steadfast love surrounds those who trust the LORD" (Ps. 32:10). When we let go of our own self-righteousness and trust in God's grace, there is joy. Everyday we can celebrate Jesus—the salvation He won for us by dying and rising from the dead, His precious gift of new life in Him, and the way He pours out his mercy upon us when we repent.
