Fourth Sunday of Easter April 30, 2023

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

That like the man born blind, we will allow Jesus to open our eyes and hearts to His will and to inspire more men and women to respond to His call to serve Him and His Church as priests,
deacons, and in the consecrated life,
we pray to the Lord.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT: We, the members of Holy Comforter Parish, united in faith by God, nourished by Jesus through the Word and the Eucharist, and guided by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, believe that we are called to worship, formation, service, and evangelization within our parish, our local communities, and all those in need.

Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3)
Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

HOLY COMFORTER HAS EXCEEDED OUR ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL GOAL! THANK YOU!!

In today's Gospel, Jesus makes clear how different he is from other religious leaders: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10).

He is the good shepherd, and our Annual Diocesan Appeal exists so that more might find comfort in His fold. We, His sheep, have His voice to guide us. In moments of darkness, He guides us. He gives us clarity, peace, and confidence as His peace is more potent than any earthly trouble. Please consider supporting our Appeal so we can help other souls gain peace.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: The earth is full of the mercy of the Lord, alleluia; by the word of the Lord, the heavens were established, alleluia, alleluia.

Offertory: O God, my God, from daybreak do I watch for you; and in invocation of your name will I lift up my hands.

Communion: I am the good shepherd, alleluia; I know my sheep and my own know me, alleluia, alleluia.

*Christ is the Good Shepherd, as the Communion Antiphon reminds us; hence this Sunday is called "Good Shepherd Sunday". What is interesting is that the antiphon highlights the voice of the shepherd – "my own know me". The first reading also mentions this recognition of the voice: "For the promise is made to you and to your children and to all those far off, whomever the Lord our God will call." Jesus calls His sheep by name, and they recognize Him. How do we recognize His voice? We listen to Him in the Scriptures, at Mass, and in the quiet of our hearts in prayer. Staying close to the Sacraments overall disposes us to hear that still voice, which is quiet in order that we might listen attentively. The Offertory Antiphon provides us with the proper attitude for listening to God: "from daybreak do I watch for you". There is a profound sense of longing in this passage; having tasted the goodness of God, the Psalmist now anxiously awaits Him to speak again. Let the love of Christ, poured out for us on the Cross, touch our hearts that we might long for His presence more and more and recognize the Shepherd's voice. The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

First Sacraments

Please pray for Holy Comforter's children in First Sacraments as they prepare for their First Communion. First Communion will be May 7, at the Saturday 5 PM Mass. It is a beautiful Sacrament and a wonderful blessing to witness.

Please keep in mind that that several rows of pews will be reserved for the 10 children, their families and friends. You may want to arrive early.

Thank you so much for remembering our children in your prayers!

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading Acts of the Apostles 6:1-7

The early Christian community chooses seven people to serve at table so that the Twelve can devote themselves to prayer and the ministry of the word.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 33:1-2,4-5,18-19

The Lord is merciful toward those who trust in him.

Second Reading

1 Peter 2:4-9

Those who have faith are chosen in Christ to be a holy priesthood.

Gospel

John 14:1-12

Jesus tells his disciples, "I am the way and the truth and the life."

FROM THE PASTOR

THE JOY OF THE RESURRECTION

Part IV

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, ‘Have you anything here to eat?’ They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them” Lk. 24:41-43

“Incredulous for joy” – what a great description of the disciples’ reaction to Jesus! To be “incredulous” means that the disciples were not sure what to believe. The resurrection of Jesus was too much, it was beyond their understanding as it should be for us. They were hesitant to believe in what they were seeing. There was Jesus, Whom they saw crucified, standing before them with the wounds in His hands and feet. He was talking to them and asked for something to eat. They were in shock, disbelief, and uncertainty. Was he real? Or they were seeing “a ghost”?!? Yet the description says that they were incredulous “for joy”. It’s as if they were waiting to explode with joy, they wanted to experience joy in what they were seeing, but something was holding them back. It all seemed to be too good. Was it true? Could it be that Jesus really conquered death and was once again back with them?

This reaction of the disciples reveals an experience that we all have at times when invited by God to enter His glory and grace. So often, when God invites us closer to Himself, when He invites us to experience the joy of His Resurrection, we react with uncertainty. We can find it hard to let ourselves experience the reality of the Resurrection in our lives. This can happen for many reasons.

Discouragement is one cause for our hesitation to fully embrace the Resurrection. The disciples were deeply discouraged at the death of Jesus. Now that He had risen, and was standing there before them, they were hesitant to let go of that discouragement they let take hold. So also, we can easily let the weight of the world, of our sins, or the sins of others get to us. We can get angry or upset and find ourselves brewing over the apparent problems we face. Taking joy in the Resurrection means we turn our eyes away from those things and look intently at the realities God wants us to focus on. It does no good to become discouraged with the many problems that come our way. Instead, our Lord is repeatedly calling us to look beyond them to something greater. He is calling us to look to His victory!

Looking at His victory is freeing and produces an incredible faith and hope in our lives. That faith in the Risen Lord will have the effect of a wonderful joy that God wants us to have. Take time during this season of Easter to spend some time gazing upon the Risen Lord. Look at His victory. Look at His glory. Look at Him who calls you to a deeper faith. With your eyes fixed on Him, all else that tempts you to discouragement simply fades away.

Let this be our prayer: Lord, I do want to gaze upon You. I want to see Your splendor and glory. I want to see You risen from the dead and take great joy and delight in this reality. Help me, dear Lord, to experience the incredible joy that comes from knowing You and put my trust in You.
