Pentecost Sunday May 28, 2023

That those now discerning their vocations will be guided by the Holy Spirit to respond to the Lord's call with generous hearts,
 we pray to the Lord.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT: We, the members of Holy Comforter Parish, united in faith by God, nourished by Jesus through the Word and the Eucharist, and guided by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, believe that we are called to worship, formation, service, and evangelization within our parish, our local communities, and all those in need.

Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3)
Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

HOLY COMFORTER HAS EXCEEDED OUR ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL GOAL! THANK YOU!!

Today, Jesus gives the Holy Spirit to his Apostles. As he breathes on them, the breath of God fills their lungs. Their breath now carries His authority to speak forgiveness or retention of sins.

What a gift He gave our priests! In our Baptism and Confirmation, Jesus gave us the Holy Spirit. Wisdom, Knowledge, Counsel, Fortitude, Understanding, Piety, and Fear of the Lord go with those who walk in His name.

Today, we ask you to step out boldly to bless our parish by promoting our Annual Diocesan Appeal. Jesus doesn't allow his soldiers to go into battle unarmed. "Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves" (Matthew 10:16). Well, His sheep have the almighty God with them. We can be bold for Him, knowing He won't leave us orphans. Our parish has many gifts to offer souls who are hungry to know Jesus. These gifts live in you, given first by God. You have an opportunity to bless His heart by making a generous return through our Appeal.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: When I vindicate my holiness through you, I will gather you from all lands, and I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be cleansed from all your filthiness; and I will give you a new Spirit; alleluia, alleluia.

Offertory: Send forth your Spirit and all things shall be created anew, and you shall renew the face of the earth; glory be unto the Lord for ever, alleluia.

Communion: On the last day of the feast, Jesus said: "He who believes in me, out of his heart shall flow rivers of living water". Now, this he said about the Spirit, which those who believed in him were to receive, alleluia, alleluia.

These Propers, taken from the Pentecost Vigil, are remarkable in their zealous anticipation of the outpouring of the Spirit. Most striking is the pervasive use of water; the Spirit hovered over "the waters" in the beginning and brought order to the chaos of creation. Now He continues His work through water to restore that order which was lost by Original Sin. Our filthiness shall be washed away in a flood of "clean water", or the waters of Baptism, which usher in the Spirit into our souls to live in us and give us new life. Also, faith in Jesus would cause "rivers of living water" to flow from the hearts of those who believe. On Pentecost Day, the Sequence calls the Spirit a "fount of love". Life in Jesus is like a wellspring that gushes forth from the depths of our being and nourishes us and those God has placed in our lives. The human heart desires to love and be loved; to know that God loved us so much as to allow His Only-Begotten Son to suffer a cruel death for our sakes is a fount a consolation that fills the heart to the brim, flowing outward to bring life to those who will listen. This profound longing makes the Offertory Antiphon all the more poignant; goaded on by the promise made in the Entrance Antiphon ("and I will give you a new Spirit"), the soul cries with inexpressible groans, "Send forth your Spirit!" The Communion Antiphon then reveals that Christ has heard our desperate cry and will send His Spirit. Veni Sancte Spiritus!

FROM THE PASTOR

THE JOY OF EASTER IS THE JOY IN THE HOLY SPIRIT

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“If you love me, keep my commands. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever—the Spirit of truth”
John 14:15-17

As Jesus ascends to his heavenly father, his final words are filled with divine promises to his disciples and to us. In the opening verses of the Acts of the Apostles, we are told that the risen Jesus instructed his disciples not to leave Jerusalem but to wait for “the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days, you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.” Why does Jesus promise the gift of the Holy Spirit at his ascension? In short, his disciples, the apostles, and the Church would not have the courage or wisdom to proclaim boldly the life-giving message of Jesus without the strength of the Holy Spirit.

St. Josemaria Escriva said that: “The Holy Spirit performs God’s works in the world. He is, as the liturgical hymn sings, the giver of gifts, the light of hearts, the soul’s guest, rest in work, and consolation in sorrow. Without his help, there is nothing in man that is innocent and worthy, because it is the Holy Spirit who cleanses what is stained, cures what is sick, enkindles what is cold, straightens what has gone astray, and leads men to the door of salvation and eternal joy” (Christ is Passing By, no. 130).

The Church was born in the upper room. The baptism of the Holy Spirit was to mark the birth of the infant Church; and for days this company of the disciples of Jesus were gathered in the upper room united in prayer until the heavens were opened, and they were all “filled with the Holy Spirit” (Acts 2:4). The Scriptures had spoken previously of division and separation and pride among the disciple of Jesus, but on the day of Pentecost the Holy Spirit filled their hearts, and afterward in the history of Christianity it was announced: “Behold how they love one another.” There was a love in the primitive church that the very heathen noticed and could not understand.

Why was that? The Holy Spirit is a transforming power, the bond of union between the Father and Son; and that bond is love. The Holy Spirit is just the love of God come to dwell in the hearts of those who believe. When He dwells within me and you, we learn to love each other. Though I could be lacking in love, and possess little grace, if the heart of my brother is full of the Holy Spirit, he loves me through it all. You know – love is a wonderful thing, it is an act of the will. When real love comes, the more it meets opposition, the more it triumphs, and the more it can exercise itself and perfect itself, the more it brings about such a tremendous joy.

The Holy Spirit comes as a spirit of love, and if you want to know the joy of the Holy Spirit and want Him to lead you into the rest of God and keep you there, beware above all to surrender yourself to His lead. If you want to live in the joy of the Holy Spirit and renew your covenant with God, surrender all to Him and rest in Him. So let us say to-day, “I see what the joy is; it is the joy of always loving, it is the joy of losing my own life in love to others to complete my joy in the Lord”.

My last thought is this: the joy of the Holy Spirit is the joy of working for God. It begins with the joy of the presence of Jesus, the joy of deliverance from sin, the joy of love for the brethren, and then the joy of working for God. The joy of the Holy Spirit comes when a person gives himself or herself up to the Christlike work of carrying the love of God to men. Let us seek the seekers of joy, let us live and die for souls, let us live and die that our fellow men may be reclaimed and brought back to our God. There is no joy like hearing the joy-song of a new-born soul. Yet, there is another joy that may be as deep. Even if God does not give me the blessing of hearing the newborn soul sing its song, I may have the joy, the sympathy with Jesus in His rejected life, and the assurance that the Father looks with good pleasure on me. Remember the joy of the Holy Spirit is the joy of working for God in Christ to bring all into ONE FLOCK.
