The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ June 11, 2023

That all Catholics will adore the great gift of the Holy Eucharist given to them by Jesus Christ in the hands of His priests to nourish them with His body, and that the Holy Spirit will inspire many more to follow Him, we pray to the Lord.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT: We, the members of Holy Comforter Parish, united in faith by God, nourished by Jesus through the Word and the Eucharist, and guided by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, believe that we are called to worship, formation, service, and evangelization within our parish, our local communities, and all those in need.

Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3)

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: He fed them with the finest of wheat, alleluia; and with honey from the rock he satisfied them, alleluia, alleluia.

Offertory: The Lord opened the doors of heaven and rained down manna upon them to eat; he gave them bread from heaven; man ate the bread of angels, alleluia.

Communion: He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood, abides in me, and I in him, says the Lord.

Jesus Christ – may He be praised and adored by all forever – left us the most precious gift of Himself to remain with us until the end of time under the forms of bread and wine. Everything in salvation history leading up to this supreme gift hints at its purpose. The Entrance and Offertory Antiphons call to mind Israel's sojourn in the desert, a type or parallel for our own spiritual journey to the Promised Land (heaven). God provided for their needs by raining down manna upon them to eat and sending a rock (literally!) to follow them and provide water and honey. They wanted for nothing! So, too, is the Eucharist a source of nourishment and strength for us as we navigate our daily trials and carry our crosses. Dying to self in order to do what is right for others is not easy, and we need the strength of Jesus Himself to accomplish it. We act with HIS strength, not our own. Hence the Communion Antiphon says that those who receive Communion "abide in me, and I in [them]". Not receiving the Eucharist is to the soul the same thing as starving the body. With hearts readied by confession and prayer, let us approach the altar, the rock, with true gratitude for providing for our every need. We are not left orphans – thanks be to God!

FROM THE PASTOR

IMMERSED IN THE LIFE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Part I

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit”
Galatians 5:25

After Pentecost, this season of the Ordinary Time gives us the opportunity to LIVE and WALK in life with the HOLY SPIRIT as children of God and disciples of Jesus. A “walk” in the Bible is often a metaphor for practical daily living. The Christian life is a journey, and we are to walk it—we are to make consistent progress forward. The biblical norm for all believers is that they walk in the Spirit: “If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit” (Gal 5:25). In other words, the Spirit gave us life in the new birth when we were born again in baptism, and we must continue to live, day by day, in the Spirit.

St. Paul says: “I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, so that you do not do the things that you wish. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.” 5:16-18).

To walk in the Spirit means that we yield to His control, we follow His lead, and we allow Him to exert His influence over us. To walk in the Spirit is the opposite of resisting Him or grieving Him.

Chapter 5 of the letter to the Galatians examines the work of the Holy Spirit in the believer. The context is freedom from the Law of Moses (Gal 5:1). Those who walk in the Spirit “eagerly await by faith the righteousness for which we hope” (v. 5) and are free from the Law (v. 18). Also, those who walk in the Spirit “will not gratify the desires of the flesh” (v. 16). The flesh—our fallen nature under the power of sin—is in direct conflict with the Spirit (v. 17). When the flesh is in charge, the results are obvious (vv. 19–21). But when the Spirit is in control, He produces godly qualities within us, apart from the limitations of the Law (vv. 22–23). Believers “have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires” (verse 24), and now we walk in the Spirit” (v. 25).

Those who walk in the Spirit are united with Him and are the bearers of the fruit the Spirit produces. So, those who walk in the Spirit walk in love—they live in love for God and for their fellow man. Those who walk in the Spirit walk in joy—they exhibit gladness in what God has done, is doing, and will do. Those who walk in the Spirit walk in peace—their lives are not defined by worry or anxiety. Those who walk in the Spirit walk in peace—they are known for having a “long fuse” and do not lose their temper. Those who walk in the Spirit walk in kindness—they show tender concern for the needs of others. Those who walk in the Spirit walk in goodness—their actions reflect virtue and holiness. Those who walk in the Spirit walk in faithfulness—they are steadfast in their trust of God and His Word. Those who walk in the Spirit walk in gentleness—their lives are characterized by humility, grace, and thankfulness to God. Those who walk in the Spirit walk in self-control—they display moderation, constraint, and the ability to say “no” to the flesh.

Those who walk in the Spirit rely on the Holy Spirit to guide them in thought, word, and deed. They show forth daily, moment-by-moment holiness, just as Jesus did when, “full of the Holy Spirit, [He] left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness” to be tempted. To walk in the Spirit is to be filled with the Spirit, and some results of the Spirit’s filling are thankfulness, singing, and joy.
