Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time June 25, 2023

That men and women will respond with compassion to the hunger of all people for knowledge of Jesus, by praying to know and be faithful to their vocations in Christ, we pray to the Lord.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT: We, the members of Holy Comforter Parish, united in faith by God, nourished by Jesus through the Word and the Eucharist, and guided by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, believe that we are called to worship, formation, service, and evangelization within our parish, our local communities, and all those in need.

Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3)
Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: The Lord is the strength of his people, and the guardian of salvation for his Anointed. Save your people, O Lord, and bless your inheritance; be their guide for ever.

Offertory: Render secure my footsteps in your paths so that my feet do not slip; incline your ear and hear my words; display your wonderful mercies, O Lord, Savior of those who place their hope in you.

Communion: That which I tell you in the dark, utter in the light, says the Lord; and that which you hear whispered into your ear, proclaim upon the housetops.

It is not without difficulties that we follow Our Lord Jesus Christ. The first reading highlights Jeremiah's affliction at hearing that his countrymen were waiting for him to stumble and entrap him because they didn't like what he had to say. So, too, do we find ourselves often ridiculed for adhering to seemingly outdated notions of marriage, the value of human life at all its stages, and many other "hot button" topics. Jesus assures us in the Gospel that all things shall be brought to the light and that we will be vindicated. We must therefore persevere in holiness making known His saving teachings as it is permitted us to do so. The Offertory Antiphon becomes very meaningful, then, in its petition to "render secure my footsteps in your paths so that my feet do not slip". We must rely on God because in acknowledging Him before the world, we are contending with powers far greater than ourselves that do not want His message to be heard and embraced. We need not fear, though, because "The Lord is the strength of his people". Stay close to Jesus in the Eucharist, His Mother in the rosary, and keep the faith!

Your almsgiving helps to prevent evictions, utility disconnections and relieve stress in the hearts of many struggling neighbors. Those we visit share in God's blessings from the charity of our Catholic Community. Thank you. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness, and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need. Please join us. We are in urgent need of members who can return phone calls or visit our friends in need. We meet at 7 pm on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays each month at the Church of the Incarnation. If you would like more information about our conference, or if you would like to donate, please visit our website at www.svdh-ht.org, email us at info@svdp-ht.org or call (434) 226-8022, and we will get back to you. Thank you! God bless you for your prayerful consideration.

MINISTRIES

OUTREACH: During the month of May, we handed out 172 food bags to 451 individuals in Food Pantry and we served 323 lunches in Soup Kitchen. We appreciate your generous support to Outreach through your contributions and donations. Many thanks and may God Bless you!

THE WORKS OF MERCY MINISTRY: Our mission is to strengthen our parish community through the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. For more information about joining our mission to visit/pray for the ill & recovering, as well as the parish homebound, email Sharon Dudley mercy@holycomforterparish.org.

HAITI: St. Michel school is now in summer recess after a successful school year. The school had a school day outing this year, a first, funded by the tuition charged to parents ($8-14 USD/yr.). The students went to the Circe La Souce spring. A continuous feed from the spring is used for farming irrigation via aqueducts. These are also the same freshwater springs that pipe water to Saltadare, Circe la Souce and Thomassique. Less than 40% of the students are sponsored. To donate, send a check, memo line 'Haiti Sponsorship,' to Holy Comforter. Full sponsorship of a child is $150. Thank you and God bless you.

IMMERSED IN THE LIFE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Part III

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh” Galatians 5:16

Of all the gifts given to mankind by God, there is none greater than the presence of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit has many functions, roles, and activities. First, He does a work in the hearts of all people everywhere. Jesus told the disciples that He would send the Spirit into the world to “convict the world regarding sin, and righteousness, and judgment” (Jn. 16:8). Everyone has a “God consciousness,” whether or not they admit it. The Spirit applies God’s truths to people’s minds to convince them by fair and sufficient arguments that they are sinners. Responding to that conviction brings us to salvation.

Once we are saved by our baptism and belong to God, the Spirit takes up residence in our hearts forever, sealing us with the confirming, certifying, and assuring pledge of our eternal state as God’s children. Jesus said He would send the Spirit to us to be our Helper, Comforter, and Guide. “And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever” (Jn. 14:16). St. Paul writing to the Romans says: “You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him” (Rom. 8:9). No doubt the Holy Spirit takes up permanent residence in the hearts of believers. Jesus gave the Spirit as a “compensation” for His absence, to perform the functions toward us that He would have done if He had remained personally with us.

Among those functions is that of revealer of truth. The Spirit’s presence within us enables us to understand and interpret God’s Word. Jesus told His disciples that “when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth” (Jn.16:13). He reveals to our minds the whole counsel of God as it relates to worship, doctrine, and Christian living. He is the ultimate guide, going before, leading the way, removing obstructions, opening the understanding, and making all things plain and clear. He leads in the way we should go in all spiritual things. Without such a guide, we would invariably fall into error. A crucial part of the truth He reveals is that Jesus is who He said He is; “When the Advocate comes whom I will send* you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me. And you also testify because you have been with me from the beginning” (Jn. 15:26-27). The Spirit convinces us of Christ’s deity and incarnation, His being the Messiah, His suffering and death, His resurrection and ascension, His exaltation at the right hand of God, and His role as the judge of all. He gives glory to Christ in all things (Jn. 16:14).

Another one of the Holy Spirit’s roles is that of gift-giver. St. Paul describes the spiritual gifts given to believers in order that we may function as the body of Christ on earth (1 Corinthians 2). All these gifts, both great and small, are given by the Spirit so that we may be His ambassadors to the world, showing forth His grace and glorifying Him. The Spirit also functions as fruit-producer in our lives. When He indwells us, He begins the work of harvesting His fruit in our lives—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Gal. 5:22-23). These are not works of our flesh, which is incapable of producing such fruit, but they are products of the Spirit’s presence in our lives.

The knowledge that the Holy Spirit of God has taken up residence in our lives, that He performs all these miraculous functions, that He dwells with us forever, and that He will never leave or forsake us is cause for great joy and comfort. It is also a great motivation to live by this precious gift—the Holy Spirit and His work in our lives to be witnesses of his Gifts and Fruits. To be continued...
