Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time October 8, 2023

That men and women will be open to the voice of the Lord, asking the Holy Spirit and our Blessed Mother to help them recognize and answer His call to serve Him as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life, we pray to the Lord.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT: We, the members of Holy Comforter Parish, united in faith by God, nourished by Jesus through the Word and the Eucharist, and guided by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, believe that we are called to worship, formation, service, and evangelization within our parish, our local communities, and all those in need.

Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (x3) Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: All things are submitted to your will, O Lord, and no one can resist your decisions; you have made all things, heaven and earth, and all that is contained under the vault of the sky; you are the master of the universe.

Offertory: There was a man in the land of Hus whose name was Job, a blameless, upright and God-fearing man; Satan asked to be allowed to tempt him, and the Lord gave him power over his possessions and his body; and so, he destroyed his possessions and his children, and he ravaged his flesh with horrible sores.

Communion: My soul aspires after your salvation; I hope in your word; when will you judge those who persecute me? The wicked are persecuting me; come to my assistance, O Lord my God.

The Entrance Antiphon should be a source of great comfort to us. Nothing escapes the power of God, and when we see good trampled down by evil, we can know with certainty that it is only temporary and will bring about a greater, more glorious victory of good over evil. We see this in the vineyard of the Lord in both the Old and New Testaments. The first vineyard was trampled down by the Babylonians and ultimately paved the way for Christ's coming. The murder of the son in the second vineyard (i.e., Jesus) as related in the Gospel brought about universal redemption for mankind. We now have a higher perspective for both the Offertory and Communion Antiphons, which bemoan tribulations suffered by Job and the Psalmist, respectively. Faith is tried by fire and perfected in its heat, as it were, but we know that Christ has already won the war against the Devil. We need but ask for an increase of faith and trust our Savior Who has trod the path of suffering ahead of us so that we might never traverse the narrow path alone. Spending time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament reminds us of this truth that we are not alone. Come to adoration on Thursdays at 7pm and rest in that Sacred Heart which burns mightily for our salvation. Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy and Music

With your support and generous donations, we help our neighbors in need. Together, we share our love for neighbor, and help the poor and hungry in our community. You are making a difference for those whose lives are defined by their struggles. We reached our fundraising goal for the Friends of the Poor Walk! Our friends thank you for sharing your blessings. We prayed and walked on the downtown mall after mass. We shared a joy-filled evening. Thank you again for all your support. We pray with those we visit and those we visit share in God's blessings from the charity of our Catholic Community. You are in our prayers. God bless you! If you would like to help, please join us at 7 pm on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays each month at the Church of the Incarnation. # FROM THE PASTOR

THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY The TABERNACLE

PART III

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“Mary, in whom the Lord himself has just made his dwelling, is the daughter of Zion in person, the Ark of the covenant, the place where the glory of the Lord dwells. She is ‘the dwelling of God...with men.’”

CCC 2676

It is observed that in some of the churches in France, the tabernacle used to be enclosed in a statue of Our Lady of the Assumption. The significance of this is that it is always the Blessed Virgin Mary who gives us Jesus, who is the blessed Fruit of Her womb and the Heart of Her Immaculate Heart. While this tradition of constructing a tabernacle within a statue of the Virgin Mary is not widespread, it is an honorable custom that recognizes the beauty of Mary’s role in salvation, and her image as the first “tabernacle” that housed the body and blood of Jesus Christ. One title of Mary in various Catholic litanies is Ark of the Covenant, connecting her with the Exodus tabernacle. She travels with us on our journey, carrying Jesus within her even as we await his final coming.

The late Pope Benedict XVI in one of his homilies on the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary said: “Mary is the Ark of the Covenant (Tabernacle) because she welcomed Jesus within her; she welcomed within her the living Word, the whole content of God’s will, of God’s truth; she welcomed within her the One who is the new and eternal Covenant, which culminated in the offering of his Body and his Blood: a body and blood received through Mary. Therefore, Christian piety rightly turns to Our Lady in the litanies in her honor, invoking her as Foederis Arca, that is, ‘the Ark of the Covenant,’ the Ark of God’s presence, the Ark of the Covenant of love which God desired to establish with the whole of humanity, in Christ, once and for all”.

Mary helps us to bring the presence of God into our daily lives. For nine months, she carried the living God within her, as the child Jesus grew in her womb. Mary also reminds us that we, too, carry Christ within us after receiving Communion, as living tabernacles. She helps us to see anew the meaning and purpose of the tabernacle each time we are at Mass, holding within it the Eucharist, the body of Christ. In the Spiritual Exercises, St. Ignatius invites retreatants to ponder how “God dwells also in myself, giving me existence, life, sensation, and intelligence; and even further, making me his temple, since I am created as a likeness and image of the Divine Majesty” (No. 235).

I am his tabernacle. So are you. The Incarnation continues in the church, the body of Christ. The incarnate God dwells in me and in you. This month of October, we honor Mother Mary for her great yes to God’s grand invitation to bear Christ within her. We adore Christ in the Eucharist, present in every tabernacle in every Catholic church in the world. Do we look to our own hearts, where God has chosen to dwell, making us his temple? Let us pray that we always be conscious of who we are, especially after communion time.
