Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (3x) Adopted from Pope Francis.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: God is in his holy dwelling place; the God who causes us to dwell together, one at heart, in his house; he himself will give power and strength to his people.

Offertory: In you have I put my trust, O Lord; I said: "You are my God, my destiny is in your hands."

Communion: My son, why have you treated us so? Your father and I have been anxiously looking for you. How is it that you were seeking me? Did you not know that I must be about my Father's business? It is very interesting that the Entrance Antiphon today references the "holy dwelling place", which to the ancient Hebrews would have referred to the Ark/Tabernacle. It was a place where the Presence of God could be encountered physically, which is obviously now the case with the Holy Family, albeit known only to the Shepherds and Magi at the time. We also hear, though, of the Ark spoken of as God's "resting" place. This sense of God's presence among His people adds a wonderful depth of intimacy to the Incarnation and today's celebration of the Holy Family. The holy household of Joseph and Mary was a place where God delighted to take rest. The Entrance Antiphon wishes to convey to us today that God wishes to repose in our company. Our deliverance from sin and ultimately death is preparing us to "be at ease" in the presence of God eternally, which already begins in this life with the profound intimacy of receiving the Eucharist at Mass. If we have readied ourselves by regular confession and prayerful reflection before Mass, we are welcoming Jesus into our "homes" and inviting Him to be a part of our life. This is the wondrous mystery of God-made-man, that the Creator should delight to be in the company of His creatures to such an extent that He participates in their very creatureliness. O magnum mysterium!

Give the Gift of Light this Christmas. As we enjoy the warmth and glow of our bright Christmas lights, many families are facing the possibility of not having electricity in their homes. A donation to our St. Vincent de Paul Holy Trinity Conference will help us provide utility cost assistance. You can bring some light and warmth to local families in need this Christmas. Please consider a donation to St. Vincent de Paul Holy Trinity Conference. Thank you and Advent Blessings! St. Vincent de Paul urges us on our way: "To this end, we should help and support one another and strive for peace and union among ourselves. This is the wine that cheers and strengthens travelers along the narrow path of Jesus Christ." You are invited to join us in our journey to prepare the way of the Lord by helping the needy in our community. We meet at 7 pm on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays each month at the Church of the Incarnation. There is no meeting January 2, 2024. If you would like more information about our conference, or if you would like to donate, visit our website at www.svdp-ht.org or email us at info@svdp-ht.org

FROM THE PASTOR

A Savior is Born

Part I

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord”
Luke 2:11

The above divine declaration was followed by a description of the sign that would help the shepherds recognize Jesus when they traveled to Bethlehem: “Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger” (Lk. 2:21). These humble shepherds became the first of millions of human witnesses of the Lord Jesus Christ. But why do the angels appear to shepherds? Why announce the savior’s birth to them first, and not kings or priests?

Shepherds are sometimes considered “the common folk” and are perhaps representative of the most sinful of people. It is true that Luke especially highlights the poor and shows how Jesus had a special ministry to the downtrodden. But the evidence that shepherds were sinners is late (5th century AD), and the New Testament always presents shepherds in a good light (church leaders are shepherds, as are Moses and David in the Hebrew Bible).

Perhaps this is the first (of many) examples of the ministry of the Messiah to the lowly, as predicted in another song in Luke. Mary’s canticle in Luke 1:46-55 predicted the Messiah would “humble the proud and exalt the humble” (1:52). That the announcement of the Messiah’s birth was made first to a group of shepherds is a remarkable indication that the lowly are “being raised up.” Since these are shepherds in the vicinity of Bethlehem, it is also quite likely that there is a subtle reference to David, a shepherd who became king of Israel. The original leader of the nation, Moses, also spent forty years as a shepherd before shepherding Israel in the wilderness.

The angel appears with the glory of the Lord and announces the “good news” of the birth of a savior. In the Roman world, one would expect the “good news” to concern the birth of a son to the emperor or an announcement concerning a great victory over an enemy. This announcement, however, does not concern the birth of a son to the emperor in Rome, but rather the birth of the real king who will defeat the real enemy of all people: sin and death itself.

The song of the angelic host draws on themes from the Hebrew Bible. The “heavenly host” is an angelic army, or at the very least an uncountable number of angels around the throne of God (1 Kings 22:18). That God should be glorified is not a surprise, nor is the fact that he is glorified in heaven (in the “highest” is indirectly a reference to “heaven”). That God brings peace is also common in the Hebrew Bible, as Psalm 29:11 says: “The LORD gives strength to his people; the LORD blesses his people with peace”. Those that are receiving this good news are described as those on whom God’s favor rests. Let me now make a simple application.

The angel said, “For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord” (Lk. 2:11). “For unto you”—Jesus came for you. This is where Christmas becomes intensely personal. It’s not enough to say abstractly that you believe Christ came. Millions of people say that and are still lost in their sins. It’s not enough to say that Christ came for someone else. Christ came for you with a purpose to deliver you from sin and to restore you to who you are supposed to be; creatures of God with the dignity of being children of God. In this way, we are given purpose in life and a mission to accomplish for the glory of God.
