Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (3x) Adopted from Pope Francis.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

The 2024 Appeal will provide critical funding to three key areas of our Diocesan Church: Empowering the Next Generation, Providing for Those in Need, and Strengthening Catholic Communities.

Our parish Outreach Ministry traditionally benefits directly from the Appeal through a Fuel and Hunger Grant, and our parish receives back a portion of all funds collected. This year, the funds returned will be used for repairs and maintenance.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: Let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice; seek the Lord and be strengthened; seek his face for evermore.

Offertory: It is good to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing in honor of your name, O Most High.

Communion: Let your face shine down upon your servant, deliver me in your mercy. Lord, let me not be confounded, for I have called upon you.

We continue on our journey through the Epiphany season with Christ revealing Himself through the casting out of demons, yet another manifestation of His divinity and saving mission to reclaim creation from the powers of hell. No longer is the Lord hidden from history; the hearts of all who seek Him can now rejoice, as the Entrance Antiphon tells us. Let us take heart in this dark month as the radiance of the Son of God shines on those who dwell in darkness and the valley of the shadow of death. Amid this prolonged joy of the Christmas spirit, however, is the inexorable motion towards the Cross. As we approach the feast of the Presentation on February 2 (Candlemas) and the true conclusion of all things Christmas, the Offertory and especially the Communion Antiphons begin to prepare our hearts for the upcoming Lenten preparations for the solemn Paschal Mystery. These Antiphons are proper to a season now suppressed in the new liturgical calendar called "Septuagesima", although they are preserved in the Liturgy. The aforementioned season is a period of two and a half weeks (three Sundays) that precede Lent and are characterized by somber reminders of the upcoming season such as purple vestments and the suppression of the Alleluia (though these weeks are not actually a part of Lent). Now is an opportune time, then, to begin pondering how we might spend our Lent this year and open our hearts to receive with greater joy the events that led to our deliverance from the devil and opened up the possibility of heaven. May Jesus find our hearts ready! Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy and music

Preparing Your Domestic Church Candlemas-Blessing of your Candles

February 2 is Candlemas, Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Bring your household candles to Mass and have them blessed as you prepare your domestic church. Mass will be Friday, February 2 at 6PM.

"Candlemas Day is another name for the feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Forty days after His birth, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple for the rites of purification and dedication as prescribed by the Torah.

So the Presentation is a proclamation of Christ — Messiah and Priest, Lord and Savior. He is the light who came into this world to dispel sin and darkness. For this reason, traditionally at least since the seventh century, candles have been blessed at Mass this day that will be used throughout the year, hence coining the term "Candlemas."

FROM THE PASTOR

CLOSE YOUR EYES- OPEN YOUR EARS TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Part IV

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“When the angel entered Mary’s home, he greeted her and said, “You are favored by the Lord! The Lord is with you.”

Luke 1:28

St. John of the Cross writes: “If a man wishes to be sure of the road he treads on, he must close his eyes and walk in the dark.” He is telling us that we may walk by a higher vision: the light of our internal senses. When we close our eyes to pray, we are shutting out the darkness of the experiential past and coming into the intellectual light to receive God’s grace.

Some Catholics never progress beyond average in their spiritual lives, even ones who are otherwise devout in their frequent Mass attendance and regular confessions. In his classic book, “The Theology of Christian Perfection,” Dominican Father Antonio Marin proposes that the main problem lies in their inability to restrain themselves and mortify their bodies outside of the sacraments, and therefore degenerate without any good object. The “good object” to which he is referring is simply holiness that can be gained through prayer, as we close our eyes and unite our hearts to God—as much as one allows himself or herself to live in the present moment.

The beautiful spiritual tradition of the Church wisely teaches us that living in the present moment is key to relationship with God, because only in this present moment is He giving us the grace that we need to live for Him. He does not give grace in the past or the future, but only in this very moment. With this in mind, many have found much freedom in being away from the images, posts, and stories that steal our mind from the present moment and thus the grace that God is offering us in it. The method of closing one’s eyes during prayer has one main purpose: to be focused and avoid distractions. But to some may not work that way.

Here is a story: St. Bernard was traveling with a poor, uneducated farmer, who noticed that the abbot kept his eyes cast downward. When the farmer asked why the saint was not looking at the beautiful countryside, Bernard explained that he wanted to avoid distractions while praying. In response, the farmer boasted, “I’m never distracted when I pray.” Bernard objected, “I do not believe it. Now let me make a bargain with you. If you can say the Our Father without one distraction, I will give you this mule I am riding. But if you do not succeed, you must come with me and be a monk.” The farmer agreed and began praying aloud confidently, “Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name...” Then, after pausing for a moment, he asked St. Bernard, “Does that include the saddle and the bridle, too?”

Almost everyone experiences distractions of some sort while praying, as St. Bernard managed to demonstrate to the farmer (who ended up joining him in the monastery). Occasionally we hear of someone so deep in prayer that nothing can take his or her attention away from God. Much more common, however, is the experience of the 17th century religious St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, who had difficulty meditating in the formal way expected of the sisters. A more attractive method of dealing with distractions—and one much easier ideally to imitate—was practiced by St. Francis of Assisi. Whenever he was about to enter church for Mass or to pray, he would say, “Worldly and frivolous thoughts, stay here at the door until I return.” Then he would go inside and pray with complete devotion. Is that doable? OR is closing your eyes much easier?
