Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (3x) Adopted from Pope Francis.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

2024 ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL:

Sharing His Love with Others

The 2024 Appeal will provide critical funding to three key areas of our Diocesan Church: Empowering the Next Generation, Providing for Those in Need, and Strengthening Catholic Communities.

Our Outreach Ministry has benefited directly from the Appeal through a Fuel and Hunger Grant, and we receive back a portion of all funds collected. Our goal this year is to raise $25,200, and our parish share will be used for church repairs and maintenance.

Brochures are available in the Church and the Commons, or scan the QR code here to contribute now.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: Rejoice, O Jerusalem; and gather round, all you who love her; rejoice in gladness, after having been in sorrow; exult and be replenished with the consolation flowing from her motherly bosom.

Offertory: Praise the Lord, for he is loving; sing in honor of his name, for he is gracious. He has accomplished whatever he resolved to do in heaven and on earth.

Communion: Jerusalem, built as a city whose parts are bound firmly together! It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, to give thanks unto your name, O Lord.

This Sunday's moniker, "Laetare Sunday", comes from the first (Latin) word of the Entrance Antiphon, Laetare, which means "rejoice!" It is a time for the Church to reflect on what we have been preparing for the past three and a half weeks. Humanity, "after having been in sorrow" since the Fall, now has access to salvation through Christ, Who, as today's Gospel reminds us, was to be "raised up" on a cross to expiate for our sins and usher in a new era of grace that could transform hearts of stone into living hearts. These are the days when God's spirit is being poured out on us if we will receive it. All these considerations are a source of great joy to the Church, so she dons the joyful color of rose and adorns her sanctuaries with flowers and her liturgies with organ. Let us meditate on Jesus' gift of Himself and His Church, placed on this earth to guide us to the everlasting shores, and give thanks with a joyful heart for the unbounded generosity of God towards His creatures. Rejoice!

Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy and music

FROM THE PASTOR

CLOSE YOUR EYES AND OPEN YOUR EARS

TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Part X

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“When the angel entered Mary’s home, he greeted her and said, “You are favored by the Lord! The Lord is with you.”

Luke 1:28

I can’t say enough about the Psalms. I mean, I just think they’re remarkable. I don’t know if you have had this experience. I imagine that some of you have. I would think many of you have read through the Psalms multiple times. I have too, and it is a remarkable experience. The Psalms touch the human heart in every situation. For thousands of years the Psalter has been a wonderful resource to enrich a person's spirit, both in public worship and in the believer's private devotional life.

While psalms were used in worship services in churches, in the growing monastic movement, the practice of reciting the Psalter formed the core of the devotional practice of the community. St. Benedict (c. 480-543) developed a widely copied rule for monasteries known as The Rule of St. Benedict. Among other practices it outlines the Opus Dei, the Divine Office of prayers and psalms. This liturgy consisted of gatherings of the community at seven times during the day and night with the purpose to "sanctify" the day with prayer. At these various times they would say or chant together the set of prayers and psalms designated for that day and time.

In time, the Divine Office involved reciting the entire Psalter over the course of a single week and would require several hours each day to complete. Clergy and most religious orders in both the Roman Catholic Church as well as Eastern Churches were – and are – required to recite the Divine Office which is made of different psalms. The best-known example of this is the beautiful Gregorian Chant practiced in certain orders, going back perhaps as far as Pope Gregory (c. 540-604 AD), for which it was named.

At Vatican II in the 1960s, the Roman Church revised the Liturgy of the Hours so that it now goes through the entire Psalter in one month rather than in one week and reduced the number of required times of prayer each day. Those in the Roman Church that practice this discipline use a Breviary, a set of four volumes that contain the one-month Psalter plus the prayers for each day and each feast day. Those living as part of a community, such as in a monastery or convent, recite their psalms and prayers together ("in choir") for at least some of the services, such as morning and evening prayer. Clergy living alone recite these psalms and prayers by themselves privately. Other communities with a liturgical tradition such as Anglicans, Episcopalians, Lutherans, Presbyterians, or Methodists often have in their prayer book or book of discipline a calendar to guide the faithful in Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer (Vespers).

The effect of those practicing a discipline of the Liturgy of the Hours has been an immersion in the psalms and regular prayer. While it can be seen as a burden, for those who have entered into it wholeheartedly it can be a lifetime of blessing. The Book of Psalms is an amazing gift to the Church. For sure, the Psalms are useful for shaping our emotions and rich devotional fuel for the soul, to the glory of God.
