Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (3x) Adopted from Pope Francis.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world, alleluia; and that which contains all things, knows every language spoken by men, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Offertory: Confirm, O God, that which you have accomplished in our midst; from your holy temple which is in Jerusalem, kings shall offer presents to you, alleluia.

Communion: Suddenly, a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, in the place where they were sitting, alleluia; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and announced the great things God had done, alleluia, alleluia.

Today, the Church is born. Today, human divisions are done away with. Today, the Holy Spirit fills the hearts of the first faithful and kindles in them the fire of His love. Christ's Mystical Body receives its unity from the one Spirit Who is the Love between the Father and the Son. He dwells in all the baptized, communicating the Father's Will to us and imbuing us with the spirit of Jesus Christ. This theme of unity is brought out in all the antiphons, but especially the Entrance Antiphon. The Spirit "knows every language spoken by men", which, as was proclaimed at the Pentecost Vigil, were confused at the Tower of Babel. What God had scattered because of man's pride, He now reunites in Christ's humility to build a new tower – the new Jerusalem, the Catholic Church – which reaches into heaven not to overtake God but to make Him present in the world. An important but underappreciated spiritual lesson from the episode in the upper room is that the Apostles were waiting; let us approach our worship and the Blessed Sacrament with a spirit of docility. Instead approaching the tower to climb our way to salvation like Babel, let us approach its base and call upon God to meet us in our lowliness and be our "elevator to heaven", as St. Therese of Lisieux described Jesus in her life. Happy Pentecost!

CLOSE YOUR EYES AND OPEN YOUR EARS TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Part XX

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine on us—so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations. May the peoples praise you, God; may all the peoples praise you. May the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you rule the peoples with equity and guide the nations of the earth. May the peoples praise you, God; may all the peoples praise you. The land yields its harvest; God, our God, blesses us. May God bless us still, so that all the ends of the earth will fear him” (Ps. 67:1-7).

Imagine the disciples reading these words as they anticipated the giving of the Spirit. Then, filled with the Spirit and with the word of God in their hearts, they became a light to the Gentiles by making His ways known on the earth and His salvation among all nations. This work continues today until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled (Lk. 21:24, Rom. 11:25).

The great event of the descent of the Holy Spirit on the apostles is called by some the “birthday of the Church”. At the same time, this event was also a conclusion of the entire work of God’s economy of salvation – what God the Father willed to be and what the Son of God accomplished in Himself: that the Holy Spirit came on the day of Pentecost to give to the faithful direction and understanding of the mysteries of God’s love to all people. Illumined by the Holy Spirit, the apostles fearlessly began to preach Christ crucified and risen. The Church of Christ began to grow and spread at first among the Jews of Palestine, then eventually among the Gentiles in the whole world, and even “to the end of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

This occurred “when the Day of Pentecost had fully come”, at the high point of the Jewish feast of Pentecost. The Law of Moses decreed to celebrate solemnly the fiftieth day after the day following the Sabbath of the Passover, counting seven full weeks from that day (Lev. 23:15). The Jewish Passover in the year of Christ’s death occurred on Friday evening. The first day of Passover was thus the Sabbath, and the morning after the Sabbath was the Sunday of Christ’s resurrection. From that day, seven weeks must be counted. Thus, in that year, the celebration of the Jewish Pentecost occurred on a Sunday (and therefore Christian Pentecost always falls on a Sunday). The Pentecost of the Jews was established to bless the harvest or the first fruits, because the first harvest of seeds planted immediately after Passover brought fruit roughly at this time. This feast also was combined with the remembrance of the giving of the Law on Mt Sinai. This was one of the three major “pilgrim” feasts of the Jewish calendar (Passover, Pentecost, Booths), on which all Jewish men were obligated to travel as pilgrims to Jerusalem for the celebration.

The concurrence of the descent of the Holy Spirit with the Jewish Pentecost, of course, is no coincidence. In fact, it is symbolic. By this time, the apostles had matured and blossomed spiritually, and so this was the time when the fullness of the gifts of the Spirit descended on them, and thus they themselves became the first fruits of Christ’s work of redemption, whose seed of the Gospel was to bring forth more fruits.

It was appropriate for the grace of the Spirit to be given on the same day as the giving of the ancient Law, because as the Savior willed to commit Himself to His passion at no other time than the time of the killing of the lamb, in order to tie the truth with the prefiguration, so also the coming of the Spirit could not have been given at any other time than the day when the Law was given, in order to show that the Holy Spirit is the same Lawgiver of both the Old and the New Covenants... In the same way that on Pentecost sheaves of the new fruits were gathered by many people from many different places to Jerusalem, so on this day it was appropriate that the first fruits of all nations living under heaven should gather into a single sheaf of piety, brought to God through the apostolic preaching
