The Outreach was founded to create a meaningful link between the parishes in America and priests and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Central and South America.

Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary(3x)
Adopted from Pope Francis.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

SECOND COLLECTIONS FOR AUGUST

ALL MONTH	Christian Formation + Haiti + Justice and Peace

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance: Remember, O Lord, your covenant, and do not abandon for ever the souls of your poor; arise, O Lord, and judge your own cause; forget not the cries of those who seek you.

Offertory: In you have I put my trust, O Lord; I said: “You are my God, my destiny is in your hands.”

Communion: The bread which I will give is my flesh for the life of the world. The progression of sentiments expressed within the Propers from the start of Mass to its pinnacle at Communion presents an elegant teaching on the life of prayer. During the Entrance chant, we call to God in our lowliness, asking Him not to abandon us. From supplication we proceed to hope in the Offertory chant, placing our “destinies” in the hands of God. The Communion Antiphon, which presents us with a snippet of the Gospel (as is typical of Communion chants), forms an elegant bookend to the Entrance Antiphon. The answer to that initial prayer is Christ’s promise to give us His Flesh, which is fulfilled at every Catholic Mass. Jesus not only nourishes us with His divine life but has chosen to remain with us until the end of time in a very real way through His Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. Spend some time with Him after Mass today and ask him to help you love Him more and more. Sweet Sacrament, we Thee adore!

THAT MAN IS YOU! BAND OF BROTHERS: will meet weekly on Saturday, 6 am at Holy Comforter. There will be breakfast, fellowship, and video instruction. "That Man is You!" is a program unlike anything else that you've experienced. It tackles real issues facing real men. It looks at the leadership role that has been entrusted to men and addresses the temptations and struggles men face in a culture that attacks authentic manhood. Finally, it helps formulate a plan that allows men to overcome these obstacles.

WORKS OF MERCY: We are looking for two individuals to bring communion to people in hospitals, nursing homes, or other residences. If interested, please contact the Works of Mercy ministry at mercy@holycomforterparish.org.

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED MINISTRY: Meetings will begin again in September, on the First and Third Sundays at 10:00 between the Masses. For info, contact Garrett Smith at 434-960-7775

HAITI: Recently, a fragile truce was negotiated by U.S. Catholic priest Father Thomas Hagan. Haitian Bishop Pierre-André Dumas, currently recovering in Miami, emphasizes the urgent need for a new beginning in Haiti. We can consider themes of sustenance, redemption, and hope. Just as Jesus offers Himself as the living bread, perhaps the people of Haiti seek renewal and healing. Our Twinning Haitian ministries play a positive role, and together, we can pray and hope for a brighter future.

FROM THE PASTOR

MEDITATION 1:

JESUS CHRIST IS PRESENT IN THE EUCHARIST*

"Last Sunday was the feast day of St. John Vianney, whose love for the Eucharist revitalized the French Church in the wake of the French Revolution. The following are his meditations on the Eucharist as an extended treatise on the subject while Father is in Uganda."

At the moment when the Mother of St. Alexis recognised her son in the dead body of the beggar, who had lived for thirty years under the stairs in her palace, she exclaimed: "O my son! too late have I known thee!" The soul leaving this life will see at last Him, whom it possessed in the Eucharist, and at the sight of the consolations, beauties and riches that she had ignored, she will likewise cry out: "O Jesus! O my Life! O my Treasure! O my Love! too late have I known Thee!" Divine Saviour, while I meditate on the proofs of your presence under the sacramental veils, enlighten my mind, influence my heart, inspire me with the lively, ardent faith, which is already a vision of your eternal beauty. Jesus Christ is present in the Eucharist with His Body and Blood, His Soul and Divinity. Do you wish for proofs clear and convincing?

1. OUR LORD HAS SAID IT. The evening of the Last Supper, He took bread, blessed it, broke it and gave it to the Apostles, and said: "Take and eat. This is My Body." Then He took the chalice containing wine, and said: "Drink ye all of this. This is My Blood. Do this in memory of Me." "This is My Body" - then it is no longer bread. "This is My Blood" - then it is no longer wine. Jesus Christ has said it. I believe because He is the Truth, who does not deceive, the Power that all things obey. But why reason, O my soul? Believe and adore. Believe that Jesus Christ is in this sacrament as truly as He was nine months in the womb of Mary, as really as He was nailed to the Cross. Adore in humility and gratitude.
2. IT IS A FACT THAT IS IN ACCORD WITH REASON. Our Lord has said: "All that you ask the Father in My Name He will give it to you." Never would we have thought of asking God to give us His own Son. But what man could not have even imagined, God has done. What man could not say or think, and what he could not have dared to desire, God, in His love has said it, planned it and carried His design into execution. Would we have dared to ask God to deliver His Son to death for us: to give us His Flesh to eat and His Blood to drink? If all this is not true, then man has been able to imagine things greater than God can do. He would have gone further than God in the inventions of love. This is not possible. In other words, what man could not even conceive, God has executed. If the Eucharist, mystery of an infinite love, was an invention of the human spirit we would have a greater idea of the love of God for men than that which God has realized. But God does not let Himself be outdone in love, and we are compelled to say with St. Ambrose, who applies to the Eucharist the words of St. Paul, "Eye hath not seen nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man what God has prepared for those who love Him." May He be blessed forever.

3. IT IS A FACT MADE EVIDENT BY A KIND OF INTUITION. There is no room for doubting that Our Lord is in the Holy Eucharist. One knows well that He is there. One feels it. In receiving Holy Communion one feels something extraordinary, a sense of well-being which pervades his whole body. What is this sense of well-being? It is Our Lord who communicates Himself to all parts of our bodies, and makes them thrill with joy. We are compelled to cry out with St. John: "It is the Lord." 4 O Jesus, without wishing to aspire after the favours granted to your saints, give me, I pray, the proof of your presence in Holy Communion by the unction of your grace, by the spiritual joy and generous enthusiasm in the practice of virtue.
4. IT IS A FACT ATTESTED BY HISTORY. A priest was saying Mass in a church of Bolsene and after pronouncing the words of Consecration doubted the Host. At that instant the Sacred Host was quite covered with Blood. Jesus Christ seemed to wish to reproach His minister for his infidelity, and to make him ashamed, and at the same time to show us by this great miracle how convinced we ought to be of His holy Presence in the Eucharist. This holy Host poured forth blood in such abundance that the corporal, altar cloth and even the altar itself were covered. The Pope, who was informed of the miracle, ordered that the corporal all saturated with blood should be brought to him. When it reached the town of Orvieto it was received with the greatest ceremony, and exposed in the church. Each year, this precious relic is carried in procession on Corpus Christi.
5. HOW DOES OUR LORD DWELL IN THE EUCHARIST? In an invisible manner, hidden under the species of bread. He accommodates Himself to our weakness. In heaven, when we will be triumphant and glorious, we shall see Him in His glory. If He showed Himself now before us with this glory, we would not dare to approach Him, but He hides Himself as someone in prison and says to us: You do not see Me, but this does not matter: ask Me all that you wish, I will give it to you. Oh! if we had the faith . . . if we were really persuaded of the Real Presence of Him who thus hides Himself out of love, and who is there, His hands full of graces, longing to distribute them, with what reverence we would come before Him, with what confidence we should invoke Him.

"Saint John Vianney, Pray for Us!"

The "Eucharistic Meditations of the Curé d'Ars"— St John Baptist Mary Vianney—was first published in English by Carmelite Publications in 1961, following the centenary celebrations of the saint's death in 1959.*
