Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (3x) Adopted from Pope Francis.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

LITURGICAL NOTES

*In last week's piece, we discussed the elegant symmetry of the Ordinary of the Mass. The Kyrie and Agnus Dei are penitential litanies preparing us to receive Jesus in the Word and the Blessed Sacrament, the Gloria and Sanctus are hymns of praise to God, and the Credo stands at the center uniting all in the profession of the Catholic Faith. This week, we will delve into the Proper of the Mass. As has been noted in previous installments, the Propers are those parts of the Mass that change every week and even every day. They are "proper" to the feast being commemorated, whether it is a Sunday in Ordinary Time or a saint day. The Church has given us for our meditation at Mass five passages primarily drawn from the Scriptures that either accompany a liturgical action or are strictly meditative. They are the Introit, Gradual, Alleluia, Offertory, and Communion. Everything except the Offertory is an "antiphon", which is a passage that begins the recitation of a Psalm and concludes it. Over time, the number of verses sung at Mass were reduced to one or two as the action of the Mass changed over time. The Offertory is a "responsory", which means it has a refrain that can be repeated in part at the end of verses. Next week, we'll delve into their functions at Mass. To be continued!

BUILDING THE KINGDOM OF GOD WITH YOUR TALENTS AND GIFTS

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well.”

The coming weekend (Oct. 26/27) is our ministry fair parish event. I wanted to call your attention to this event, and I ask you to prayerfully consider where you can invest your talent for the glory of God. Everyone has certain talents or God-given gifts that they are skilled in. For example, some people are very hospitable and relatable and know how to make people feel comfortable. Some individuals are talented instructors, musicians, servers, managers of public activities, etc. These gifts can be used for the glory of God. Using your talents for God can allow you to be a part of advancing the kingdom of God, helping others, and improving the world around you.

What we must remember is that all of our talents—not just some of them—come from God. James 1:17 says, “Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.” God is intentional with the talents He gives us. That’s what Psalm 139:14 tells us: “I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.” No one’s talents are better or more important than anyone else’s. As 1 Corinthians 12:18–19 teaches us: “God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as He pleased. If they were all one member, where would the body be?” You were created with unique gifts and talents, and your church needs you to use them. You were also created to fill a unique role, and the church and world need you to do that too.

We are called to use our abilities and skills wisely so that when Jesus returns, we will be called useful and faithful servants of His kingdom. The story of the parable of the talents in Mathew 25:14-30 teaches us the urgency to make good use of what God has given us. The master is portrayed as one on a journey, and he therefore decided to give his servants talents. He entrusted them with what he had according to their abilities and skills. The master in this parable refers to Jesus Christ, the son of man, the Lord Almighty who founded the church, while the servants are representative of humankind/Christians—you and me. The servants give us a picture of ourselves. The talents are your talents, abilities, skills, money, and anything God has graciously given to you.

In Ephesians 4:8 the Bible says of Jesus, “When He ascended on high...he gave gifts to men.” When Jesus ascended to Heaven, he released gifts to each one of us according to our abilities. God has deposited great potential in you. You are blessed with great skills and abilities irrespective of the amount you were given. What matters is that you have been blessed with God’s gracious gifts and talents for a purpose. The purpose is to invest what God has given you so that it will increase. The purpose is to use your gifts to advance the kingdom of God. Thank you for your consideration of putting out your talents to benefit, Holy Comforter parish!
