Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (3x) Adopted from Pope Francis.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

LITURGICAL NOTES

We briefly introduced the idea of the Propers in last week's blurb.

The Introit (Entrance Antiphon), Gradual, Alleluia, Offertory, and Communion are sung texts, most often Scriptural, that change from day to day (they are "proper" to a particular season or Sunday/feast) and are reflections offered by the Church on how to pray various parts of the Mass. These chants differ in structure to accommodate the different parts of the Mass where they are sung and are the "goodness of forms" that Pope St. Pius X refers to in his motu proprio Tra le Sollecitudini. Delving into these forms, we will start with the Introit and Communion chants. These were written to accompany processions, and so they are classified as processional chants. Musically, they are the least complex of the Mass Propers, having a lovely flowing quality in their melodies that is well suited to processions. The words are set with one to four notes generally per syllable, keeping the text intelligible overall.

INTROIT: In the Traditional Latin Mass as celebrated prior to Vatican II, the Introit was sung while the priest and servers prayed at the foot of the altar at the beginning of Mass. Vatican II restored the Introit to its proper place of accompanying the entrance procession of the priest and servers into the sanctuary. The text of these chants is often petitionary in nature, asking for God's mercy on us and to hear our prayers, a fitting attitude as one approaches the Altar of Sacrifice. COMMUNION: These accompany the procession of the Faithful to Communion and mostly meditate on a passage from the Gospel of the day with an accompanying psalm that is thematic of the passage, day, or season. We are nourished with the Word as we approach the Wedding Banquet to partake of the Word Incarnate. Next week, we will look at the Gradual and Alleluia chants. To continue! Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy and Music

FROM THE PASTOR

ETERNAL REST GRANT UNTO THEM, O LORD, AND LET PERPETUAL LIGHT SHINE UPON THEM

Part I

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“May Christ, who called you, take you to himself;
may angels lead you to the bosom of Abraham.”

“Whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s” (Rom. 14:8). November is the month traditionally dedicated to praying intentionally for the dead. This presents us with the opportunity to reflect on a beautiful Catholic teaching, the teaching on Purgatory, which is really the mercy of God in action. If there was no such thing as purgatory, there would be only two options for us after death: heaven and hell. And if you have to be perfect to enter the presence of God, we would all be in trouble! Thank God we have the possibility of Purgatory. The book of Revelation says; “Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the book of life” (Rev. 21:27). So, if only the very good and holy go straight to heaven and the very bad deserve hell, then most people fall into a “somewhere in-between” category and this state is called purgatory.

The word purgatory was originally a Latin adjective that means “cleansing.” It must be stated that nowhere does church teaching shows us how long the Holy Souls spend in purgatory; however, some people say that the time depends on how one lived and how much repentance one did for sins before dying. St. Robert Bellarmine wrote that for some people the time in Purgatory will last entire centuries according to our time here on earth. Accounts of Purgatory by saints and mystics who were either transported to Purgatory or visited by souls from purgatory, tell us that there are various levels in Purgatory ranging from lower levels which are closer to hell to upper levels which are closer to heaven. Putting all this aside, the best to be done is – if I don’t want to go to purgatory, I need to make an effort to live a holy life, suffer patiently whatever the Lord brings along my way, and trust in the mercy of God.

We believe that God is all merciful and that Jesus’ passion, death and resurrection saved us, but that does not excuse us from being purified. Purification means that every trace of attachment to evil must be eliminated, and all imperfections of the soul corrected. Although the thought of fire may sound distressing, we must remember that this is the fire which both burns and saves.

We can help the souls in Purgatory in many ways. Having Mass offered for the souls of a departed loved ones is the greatest help and gift we can give them because the Mass, being the sacrifice of Jesus offered to the Father, is the greatest prayer. We can pray the rosary and other prayers for the souls in Purgatory. We can offer our fasting and almsgiving, for the glory of God, in atonement for sins of those in Purgatory.

Let us pray: “Heavenly Father, in union with the merits of Jesus and Mary, I offer to you for the sake of the poor souls all the satisfactory value of my works during life, as well as all that will be done for me after death. I give you my all through the hands of the Immaculate Virgin Mary that she may help to set free whatever souls she pleases, according to her heavenly wisdom and mother’s love for them. Receive this offering, O God, and grant me in return an increase of your grace. Amen”.
