Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (3x) Adopted from Pope Francis.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance Antiphon: *The Lamb who has been slain is worthy to receive power, As we begin Advent, I would like to draw attention to a popular hymn sung during the season: Veni Veni Emmanuel (O Come, O Come, Emmanuel). It consists of seven verses featuring seven titles for Our Lord derived from the Scriptures. They are a poeticization of the great "O Antiphons", which are the antiphons that bookend the recitation of the Cantic of Mary ("Magnificat") during Evening Prayer ("Vespers") from Dec. 17-23. It is a period of heightened anticipation for the coming of Christ, and the Church from the depths of her heart calls out to the Messiah and begs Him to come. They beautifully capture the essence of the season, which is a preparation for the historical coming ("adventus" = coming toward) of Christ in the manger at Christmas and also a call to perpetual readiness for His Second Coming at the end of time. The titles in order are: Dec. 17 – O Sapientia ("Wisdom"); Dec. 18 – O Adonai ("Lord"); Dec. 19 – O Radix Jesse ("Root of Jesse"); Dec. 20 – O Clavis David ("Key of David"); Dec. 21 – O Oriens ("Dawn of the East"); Dec. 22 – O Rex Gentium ("King of the Nations"); and Dec. 23 – O Emmanuel ("God with us"). The hymn presents these titles in reverse order because they form a Latin acrostic (a message hidden in poetry based on the first letter of each verse) Emmanuel, Rex, Oriens, Clavis, Radix, Adonai, and Sapientia form the Latin phrase "ero cras", which translates, "I will be [here] tomorrow." Stunning! Be on the lookout for our annual O Antiphon Vespers starting Tuesday, Dec. 17, where you can participate in the Church's cry for the coming of Jesus Christ. Happy Advent! *Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy and Music

FROM THE PASTOR

WAKE UP!

“Jesus said to his disciples: “As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. In those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day that Noah entered the ark. They did not know until the flood came and carried them all away. So will it be also at the coming of the Son of Man.” Matthew 24:37–39

Are you awake? Spiritually speaking? As we begin the liturgical season of Advent, we are given the future coming of the Son of God to ponder. As this passage goes on, Jesus says, “Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come.”

By the “day your Lord will come,” we should understand three things. The first coming of Christ is obviously that which we most clearly ponder in Advent and Christmas. The unity of human nature with divine nature, in the Person of Jesus, is truly awe-inspiring. But that already took place long ago.

Thus, a second coming of Christ that we must continually ponder is His coming by grace, every moment of every day of our lives, once we have chosen to freely give our lives over to His service, for His glory, in accord with His will. When we live with such an interior disposition by which we seek His ongoing “coming” by grace, then we will find that we need to continually “stay awake!” If we do not, then we can be certain that we will miss countless opportunities to become more united to Christ every day and to be used as an instrument of that very grace for His service and glory. If we do not diligently build a habit of becoming attentive to every prompting of grace in our lives, then we will, unquestionably, begin to become “drowsy” and will fall asleep, spiritually speaking.

A wonderful measure of our daily attentiveness to the innumerable gifts of grace given to us every day is to also consider how attentive we are to the final and glorious coming of Christ at the end of time. Just as Jesus explains, most people will pay little attention to this final coming, presuming it will not even be in their lifetimes. But if you have that attitude, then you have completely missed the point. The point is preparedness—today, tomorrow and always. True preparedness for the final coming of Christ will not only help you enter the mysteries of these Advent and Christmas seasons by which we ponder the first coming of Christ, it will also help you form a habit of daily attentiveness to grace.

Reflect, today, upon how ready you are for the final coming of Christ at the end of time. Are you ready if Christ were to come today? If not, understand that a lack of preparedness for the final coming also means a lack of preparedness to celebrate His first coming at Christmas long ago, as well as His daily comings by grace. Prepare today. Do not wait. If you do, God will daily transform you in ways that are glorious beyond comprehension.

My ever-present Lord, You come to us, day and night, calling to us, leading us and offering to enter our lives. Please help me to always be attentive to You and to always open my heart fully to Your daily coming by grace. Jesus, I trust in You!
