Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (3x) Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

LITURGICAL NOTES

Introit: God is in his holy dwelling place; the God who causes us to dwell together, one at heart, in his house; he himself will give power and strength to his people.

Christ is born! Sing for joy! It is symbolically beautiful that the Entrance Antiphon for today's Mass is a psalm about God dwelling in His temple and uniting us in community from His holy place. The Church is teaching us the importance and preciousness of the family. We are all temples of the Holy Spirit according to St. Paul, and this indwelling first took place in the Holy Family. God was literally in their midst, and they were all united in the pursuit of His will. They are a type of the Church and an example to all of us. Let us pray in a special way for our families and all families this Christmas, which are under attack from the secular society at large. Have a merry Christmas and a happy New Year!

FROM THE PASTOR

JESUS, THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi

“The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world.”

John 1:9

In these glorious days of Christmas, we take it that the baby Jesus, although he has not spoken any word, by his being and what was prophesied about him is the light of the world. If you follow him now, you will have no regrets. True, he will reveal your sins, which is a precious gift — like the fortunate early diagnosis of a deadly cancer — but even more, he will reveal all that is beautiful. He is the light and revelation of God the Father. In him we see the history of redemption and the work of our salvation come to completion.

The old man Simeon, when he saw Jesus in the temple for the first time brought in by his parents, held the Child Jesus in his arms, and the Holy Spirit revealed to him the light he was holding in his arms. Simeon was a righteous man who had been promised by God that he would not die before he had seen with his own eyes the promised Hope of Israel, the appointed Messiah Who would save His people from their sin. No doubt when Simeon saw Mary with the baby Jesus his heart was stirred by the Holy Spirit so that he would take the baby into his arms and sing his memorable song of praise and thanksgiving: “Now Lord, You are releasing Your bond-servant to depart in peace, according to Your word; for my eyes have seen Your salvation, which You have prepared in the presence of all peoples – a light of revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of Your people Israel” (Lk. 2:29-32). Simeon would also declare to Jesus’ mother: “Behold, this Child is appointed for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and for a sign to be opposed. A sword will pierce even your own soul, so that the inner thoughts of many people might be revealed” (Lk. 2:34-35).

See here how comfortable the death of the good man Simeon is. He departs in peace with God, peace with his own conscience, in peace with death. Those that have welcomed Christ, welcome life even in death. Joseph and Mary marveled at the things which were said of this Child. Simeon showed them likewise what reason they had to rejoice with trembling. To this day, Jesus, his doctrine, and people, are still spoken against; his truth and holiness are still denied and blasphemed; his preached word is still the touchstone of men's characters. The secret good affections in the minds of some, will be revealed by their embracing Christ; the secret corruptions of others will be revealed by their enmity to Christ. Men will be judged by the thoughts of their hearts concerning Christ. He shall be a suffering Jesus; his mother shall suffer with him because of the nearness of her relation and affection.

Jesus said of himself: “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me” (Jn. 14:6). He gives the light of truth, of spiritual sight, of knowledge, of holiness, of joy, of heaven. We should rejoice in the light of “the Sun of Righteousness.” When Christ gives us light, we must reflect it: “You are the light of the world, a city on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket. Instead, they set it on a lampstand, and it gives light to everyone in the house...” (Mt. 5:14-16). The lighthouse, when its lights burn truly, will warn the mariner against danger and enable him to pursue the right and safe way. In the celebration of the BIRTH OF JESUS, we may guide someone from the darkness and danger of sin to the light and safety of God's mercy in Christ.

Today we have the full and final revelation of God in the inspired Word of God. Let us like Simeon take all that God has written in His word into our hands and open our eyes and heart to perceive the salvation that has come to us and believe with childlike expectation that our eyes will soon see our Savior – as we wait for Christ’s return in the clouds for His people.
