Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (3x)

Adopted from Pope Francis

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance (Adorate Deum): Bow down before God, all you Angels of his. Zion has heard and is glad; and the daughters of Judah have rejoiced.

Offertory (Dextera Domini): The Lord's right hand has shown strength, the Lord's right hand has exalted me. I shall not die, but live; and I shall declare the works of the Lord. Communion (Comedite): Go, eat rich meat, and drink sweet wine, and send portions to those who have prepared nothing for themselves; this is a holy day in honor of the Lord; do not be sad; for the joy of the Lord is our strength. In the pre-conciliar liturgical calendar, today would have been the "third Sunday after Epiphany", continuing the theme of Christ's self-manifestation ("epiphania") to us through signs such as healing the sick. We see that theme manifested (pun intended!) differently in today's Gospel where Jesus reveals His identity to some extent not through signs but through the Scriptures. On the other hand, the Proper chants for today's Mass (you'll hear the offertory and communion at 11am) are nearly identical to those of the pre-conciliar Mass. Our Entrance Antiphon is a call to the angels to worship God, Who has manifested Himself in Jesus Christ. It is a reminder that all creation is subject to Our Lord, and this call to worship is in itself a revelation of Jesus' divinity. Jesus then speaks to us at the Offertory, declaring that He has been exalted by His Father's right hand and that He "shall declare the works of the Lord", which He in fact did in today's Gospel! The one different chant is the Communion, which was a fascinating choice by the reformers. It is a very old chant that comes to us from the autumnal Ember Days, which were four separate commemorations of the seasons in thanksgiving for harvests, good weather, etc., and begging for God's blessing on the season to come. The chant's festive text is a suitable response to the good news of Christ coming to "set captives free". Happy epiphanytide! Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy & Music

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Melinda Wells, Director of Religious Education
dre@hollycomforterparish.org

Treasures of the Tradition: RE Adult Formation offers two new reading groups beginning early February: 1. Dante's Purgatorio (weekly) - A riveting and intriguing tale of ascent toward the Divine, this "medieval self-help book" can help us on the path even today. We'll read just 7-8 pages per session, so newcomers will find the poem accessible and the experienced can dig in deeply! 2. How to Read "The Book" (every other week) - Augustine, Jerome, Origen, and many more will show us the variety of ways the Bible has been read across the centuries, with an eye to discovering how we might best read it in our own challenging moment. Open to all; first meeting a free trial, with reasonable rates & sliding scale thereafter. Meeting times TBD by group needs, so please contact John Bugbee bugbee@thetreasures.org ASAP if interested!

WE ARE PILGRIMS OF HOPE

Part IV

Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi

“And hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us”

Romans 5:5

In his Christmas message for 2024, the Holy Father Pope Francis said, “Christian hope, while inviting us to wait patiently for the kingdom to grow and spread, also requires of us, even now, to be bold in our anticipation of the fulfillment of the Lord’s promise, to be responsible and not only (that), but to be compassionate.”

There is a story I would like to share with you: In the Eastern European country of Lithuania, there is a place called the “Hill of Hope.” More than 50,000 crosses of all shapes and sizes occupy this site of less than an acre. But why 50,000 crosses on this small piece of land? Several decades ago, when the Soviet Union controlled Lithuania, a 400-year-old church called St. Casimir’s was confiscated by the Communist regime and turned into a “Museum of Atheism.” At the same time, on the “Hill of Hope” where only a few crosses stood, a bulldozer was sent to flatten every cross, to destroy any sign of Christianity. However, that night, faithful Christians came and erected a new cross. The next day, the Communists, finding a cross on the hill, brought in the bulldozer and smashed it. That night, a new cross was put in its place. The next day, the cross was destroyed, and soldiers were sent to guard the barren hill. After a few weeks, the soldiers left. That night, not just one but a number of crosses were set up on the hill. The next day, the crosses were bulldozed away. So it went for many months – the atheistic communist power with armed forces and destructive machines on one side and Christians with hammers, nails, wood, and fearless faith on the other. The Communist authorities eventually gave up because as soon as their armed forces would withdraw, not just one or a few crosses would be erected, but tens and then hundreds of crosses! Before long, it grew to more than 50,000! What seemed weak in the eyes of the world proved stronger than what seemed strong (From Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted’s homily for Good Friday of the Lord’s Passion, April 2019).

As pilgrims of hope we never grow weary in the face of challenges because Jesus is our hope, and He gave us hope by defeating death on the cross and bringing us eternal life! However, in our current world marked by suffering, it is very easy to forget this altogether! We must not forget but rather place all our hope in the cross that gives us eternal life. Where in your life do you feel alone, isolated, or not good enough? In what ways are you currently suffering and in pain? Where do you feel humiliated or at rock bottom? Those places of intimacy are your places of the cross. They are places where the Lord seeks to meet you, console you, and lift you up. The Lord is not interested in leaving us orphaned or abandoned. Instead, He meets us at our cross and offers healing, hope, transformation, and love. He lifts us up to new horizons, new places, and new initiatives. So today, do not hide from, run from, or be afraid of the crosses you are currently experiencing. Bring your crosses to the Cross – the Cross Jesus died on – the Cross that transforms our sorrow into hope and joy and our pain into healing.

The cross truly is the symbol of hope and salvation for Christians. As you gaze upon the cross, feel God’s unending love for you. Know and believe that Jesus so badly wants you in heaven with Him that He laid down His own life for you to obtain it. The call to us now is to freely respond to that awesome gift which we could never repay. Look at what the cross has done for you and use it as inspiration to do better for Jesus.
