Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the American People, and all people, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Hail Mary (3x) Adopted from Pope Francis)

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

GIFTS FROM GOD

Due to an early publication deadline, the Offertory Report for Week Ending April 13, 2025 will appear in next week's Bulletin.

PARISH SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT

Copies are available in the Commons, in Flocknote, and on our Website.

St. John Chrysostom once said, "Not to enable the poor to share in our goods is to steal from them and deprive them of life." In other words, almsgiving is not optional. It's justice. The goods we have—time, money, talents—are entrusted to us for the sake of others.

To meet our parish annual operating expenses of $473,200, it is necessary for our 226 registered and active families to contribute $2,094 per year, or about $40 per week. If you are already tithing $40 or more per week, thank you. If you are not, but are able to, please know how much your support is needed, especially at this time. May God bless you abundantly.

To date, we have raised $25,768 which is 94% of our $27,280 parish goal! Thank you for your support!!

LITURGICAL NOTES

Sequence (Victimae Paschali laudes): Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise. | The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb; and Christ, the undefiled, hath sinners to his Father reconciled. | Death with life contended: combat strangely ended! Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign. | Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way. | The tomb the Living did enclose; I saw Christ's glory as He rose! | The angels there attesting; shroud with grave-clothes resting. | Christ, my hope, has risen: He goes before you into Galilee. | That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know. Victorious King, Thy mercy show! Amen. Alleluia.

There is a kind of liturgical poetry that has persisted in our days from the medieval Church called "sequences." As the name implies, they follow after (i.e., are sequential to) something else. The Alleluia chant expresses the joy of the Gospel message by musical prolongation of the final syllable -ia. It is musical jubilation, and the long string of notes on the final syllable thus came to be called a "jubilus." Over time, composers set words to these wordless notes, and thus the sequence was born. Victimae Paschali laudes is one of only five that survived the reforms of the Council of Trent. It is delightfully bardic, calling on Christians to offer worship to Christ, justifying this command with a riveting story of battle and victory, confirmed by the witness of Mary Magdalene ("Tell us, Mary"). How fitting that so great a thing as the Resurrection should be expressed in song! It is the language of the divine, and so God was pleased that the mystery of the Resurrection of Jesus should be clothed in music, for how can words alone express the unending joy that belongs to those who give themselves over to a new life in Christ? Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise. Amen! Alleluia! He is Risen! Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy & Music

MINISTRIES

OUTREACH: Thank you, parishioners, for your continued support through your time, donations and contributions. During the month of March, we gave out 170 food pantry bags to 537 individuals in Food Pantry. For the month of April, donations of canned tuna are appreciated. The USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer and leader. We wish all a blessed Easter!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY, HOLY TRINITY CONFERENCE:

We continue to provide assistance to those facing eviction or utility cut off through the ministry of going to visit our friends in their homes. We thank you for your donations to SVdP. If you are interested in joining SVdP or making a donation, please go to <https://www.svdhp-ht.org>

WORKS OF MERCY MINISTRY: A few volunteers and some of our youth groups have made cards that have brightened the days of residents at the Cedars Nursing Home. We want to make more cards and hope you can join us. Contact mercy@holycomforterparish.org if you are interested in participating. You do not need artistic talent, and all materials will be provided. Think on this: What if you found yourself alone in a nursing home this Easter; receiving a spiffy and creative card could be like receiving a lifeline.

ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Learn about the Theology of the Body over eight sessions with Christopher West from Ascension Press. Discover how our creation as male and female helps us understand the meaning of human existence. Join to find out how our bodies make visible the invisible. We will continue our study with episode 2 on Sunday, April 27th at 10 am, in the piano room (LL). For more info, please email Steven Sisman, at steven.sisman@gmail.com

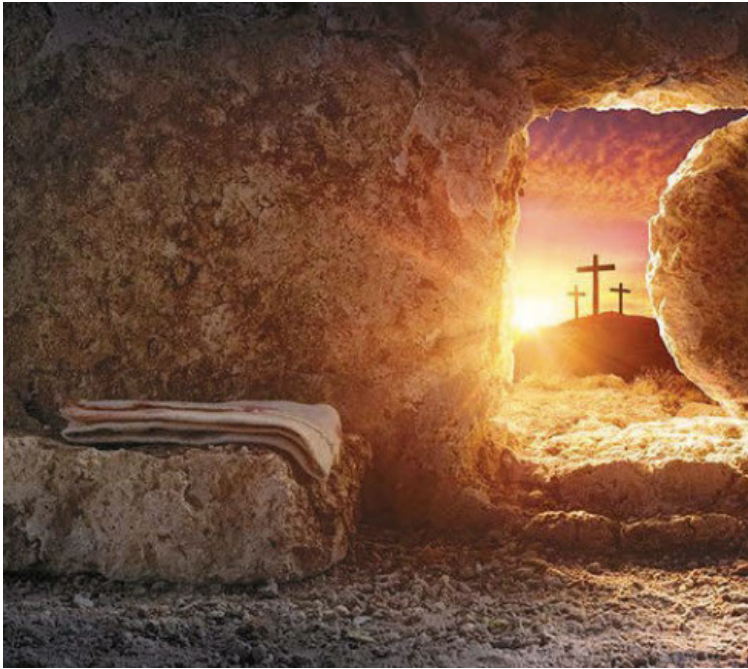

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED MINISTRY: As Lent comes to an end, and we enter into the Easter season, Walking with Moms in Need reminds all parishioners to return your baby bottles supporting Lifespring Pregnancy Centers. Please drop baby bottles off with a ministry member at the door as you arrive or leave this Sunday or Easter Sunday. You may also drop your bottles in the crate on the credenza before or after the weekend Masses or in the parish office.

HAITI: "A Happy, Blessed, and Holy Easter from the Haiti Tri-Parish Committee and St. Michel Parish, Saltadere, Haiti. Under Father Asmith's leadership, we procured a significant quantity of food and diesel fuel for the parish. Though it cannot feed all the hungry, it ensures sustenance for the most vulnerable. With a border pass and support from Dominican partners, we can access bulk food markets at normal fuel rates—an Easter blessing! We urge all who can, to please contribute to the Haiti Emergency Food Fund. Every dollar directly aids in purchasing food and fuel, sustaining this vital mission. God Bless and Happy Easter, Bob Frome"

ANNOUNCEMENTS

33 Days to Eucharistic Glory is the first ever Eucharistic Consecration which is an initiative of your Parish Council. This unprecedented spiritual resource presents profound truths, astonishing historical facts, powerful practical examples, a daily virtue to adopt, extraordinary prayers, and inspiring stories—all in an easy-to-follow daily format. The second "cadre" will begin on May 6, engage for 33 days, and culminate with a public Consecration at Holy Mass on Pentecost Sunday, June 8. For more info, please email Steve Ham at Steven_ham@comcast.net

FROM THE PASTOR

TO VICTORY WITH CHRIST

Part I

Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi

“For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly also be united with him in a resurrection like his.”

Romans 6:5

*Buried with Christ and raised with Him too;
What is there left for me to do?
Simply to cease from struggling and strife,
Simply to walk in newness of life.
Glory be to God!*

*Living with Christ, who dieth no more,
Following Christ, who goeth before;
I am from bondage utterly freed,
Reckoning self as dead indeed.
Glory be to God! (Hymn by-T. Ryder).*

The above word from the scripture and from the Hymn by T. Ryder resonate well with the journey of Lent we have been taking with Christ to Victory. As followers of Jesus Christ, we all want to live a triumphant Christian life. The Bible assures us that God and His Son Jesus are Victors and that believers can share in their victories: “But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ” (1 Cor. 15:57). In a practical sense, how can we experience the victorious life that has been made possible in Christ? How can we achieve victory in Jesus?

Victory ultimately belongs to the Lord our God (1 Sam. 17:47). Since the days of Israel’s Exodus from Egypt, whenever God’s people depended on Him alone, He gave them victory over their enemies (Ex. 15). Old Testament prophets consistently pointed to a future Savior who would bring the fullest expression of God’s triumph: “Rejoice greatly, Daughter Zion! Shout, Daughter Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and victorious, lowly and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey” (Zech. 9:9 and Ps. 110:1). We know these prophecies refer to Jesus Christ, the promised Messiah, who has overcome the world and conquered death and sin.

Jesus won the supreme victory at the cross. Sin was atoned for, and the power of sin and death was broken (Jn. 12:31). After Christ’s crucifixion and burial, He rose from the dead three days later, and now we share that victory. Satan thought he had won the ultimate contest with the death of Christ. Instead, that death released our chains, set us free from the prison of sin, and disarmed the supernatural powers of evil: “When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, having canceled the charge of our legal indebtedness, which stood against us and condemned us; he has taken it away, nailing it to the cross. And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross” (Col. 2:13-15).

The key to achieve victory in Jesus is FAITH in Christ: “For everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world? Only the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God” (1 Jn. 5:4-5). The first step to victory in Jesus is accepting Christ as Savior. We receive the Lord by grace through faith, and we live in His victory by grace through faith as well. Our salvation is a gift of God’s grace, and our victory in Jesus is a gift of God’s grace (Eph. 2:4-8). Victory in Jesus is real and attainable now because our Lord Jesus has defeated Satan and every evil power of the world. We achieve victory in Jesus by resting in Christ (Matt. 11:28) and trusting Him to triumph for us (Rom. 5:17). While we remain on earth, the Lord reigns victorious through those who have been delivered from the kingdom of darkness and translated into His glorious kingdom of light (1 Pt. 2:9). However, a day will come when the victories of Jesus will be fully realized and celebrated in the new heaven and earth: “He will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears from all faces; he will remove his people’s disgrace from all the earth. The LORD has spoken” (Is. 25:8). THE LORD IS RISEN! ALLELUIA!
