Prayer for the Eternal Repose of the late Holy Father's Soul

"O God, who in your wondrous providence chose your servant Pope Francis to preside over your Church, grant, we pray, that, having served as the Vicar of your Son on earth, he may be welcomed by him into eternal glory.

Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever."

Eternal rest grant unto Pope Francis, O Lord!

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you.

Amen

IS IT TIME TO REVIEW YOUR LEVEL OF OFFERTORY GIVING?

A long-time parishioner called the office recently to apologize. He said when the parish began accepting contributions online in 2015, he set up recurring payments and has made no increase in his gift since then! The following week he brought in a “make-up” check!!

We are so grateful to him. Our operating costs have been steadily rising over the last several years, which has required us to withdraw over $35,000 from our savings to meet our obligations.

If your weekly gift to Holy Comforter needs to be updated, please know how much that increase in support is needed, especially at this time. May God bless you abundantly.

LITURGICAL NOTES

Entrance (Misericordia Domini): The earth is full of the mercy of the Lord, alleluia; by the word of the Lord, the heavens were established, alleluia, alleluia.

Offertory (Deus, Deus meus): O God, my God, from daybreak do I watch for you; and in invocation of your name will I lift up my hands.

Communion (Ego sum pastor bonus): I am the good shepherd, alleluia; I know my sheep and my own know me, alleluia, alleluia.

*This is Good Shepherd Sunday in which the Lord teaches us that we will learn to recognize His voice as we grow in the life of grace. The Communion Antiphon, which presents us with the Gospel passage, is unique among the chants for its extensive use of the half step (the smallest distance between two notes in Western music) between Mi and Fa. It is a plaintive melody filled with the desire of the Shepherd to find the lost sheep. There is also an allusion to the Offertory Antiphon, which has a similar melody though not as poignant. In a way, they are complementary of each other – the one being our call to God and the other His response to us. The Offertory in particular presents a good lesson to our First Communicants this weekend – we must yearn to be with Jesus, we must keep watch for Him even from our waking moments. Only in this way will we find the strength to get through our days because we know or learn to know that all things pass away, but our true Love is eternal, and He wants us to be with Him forever. Let us take to hear the words of the Communion hymn today: “Sweet Sacrament, we Thee adore! O help us love Thee more and more.” Easter blessings to all! *Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy & Music

FROM THE PASTOR

THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY and THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS

Part I

Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi

“Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene” John 19:25

Did Jesus appear to his mother after His Resurrection? The National Catholic Register has an article (April 6, 2021) featuring some partial answers to the above question by the great Pope. St. John Paul II: “The Gospels mention nothing about Jesus appearing to his mother Mary after his Resurrection. Do we ever wonder whether he did see her? After all, she was his mother, the first to see him at the Nativity, his birth. She was the first Christian from the moment of the Annunciation and Incarnation. Wouldn't he want to see his mother first?”

“If the evangelists didn't write about Mary's encounter with her risen Son Jesus, this can perhaps be attributed to the fact that such a witness would have been considered too biased by those who denied the Lord's Resurrection, and therefore not worthy of belief,” John Paul II said in 1997. ‘How could the Blessed Virgin, present in the first community of disciples (Acts 1:14), be excluded from those who met her divine Son after he had risen from the dead?’ asked John Paul II. “Indeed, it is legitimate to think that the Mother was probably the first person to whom the risen Jesus appeared.’ Posing another question, he asked rhetorically if Mary's not joining the women going to the tomb at dawn can ‘indicate that she had already met Jesus? Those women had been faithful and had been at the Cross. Of course, Our Lady had been the most faithful of all.’”

*“John Paul II offered yet another reason for believing Jesus appeared first to his mother: The unique and special character of the Blessed Virgin's presence at Calvary and her perfect union with the Son in his suffering on the Cross seem to postulate a very particular sharing on her part in the mystery of the Resurrection.’ Thus, this appearance would be part of ‘completing in this way her participation in all the essential moments of the paschal mystery.’”

“So it's reasonable to think that Mary, as the image and model of the Church which waits for the Risen One and meets him in the group of disciples during his Easter appearances, had had a personal contact with her risen Son, so that she too could delight in the fullness of paschal joy.”

Mary's presence during the events of the Crucifixion is a heart-breaking image in Christian tradition. The Gospel of John specifically notes her presence at the foot of the cross, where Jesus, even in agony, entrusted her to the care of the beloved disciple, symbolizing her role as the mother of all Christians (Jn 19:26-27). However, the Gospels do not explicitly mention Mary at the Resurrection. Despite this, tradition and theological reflection suggest that Mary would have been among the first to believe in and perhaps witness the risen Christ, given her close relationship with her Son and her profound faith. Theologically, Mary is seen as the first disciple, and her experiences during the Easter season highlight themes of faith, trust, and maternal love. She models for all believers how to stand steadfast in faith, even in moments of great personal loss and uncertainty. The joy of the Resurrection is made even more touching considering the sorrow she endured, offering a profound example of spiritual perseverance and hope.

Mary's role during the Easter season offers a unique perspective on the events of Christ's passion, death, and resurrection. Her example of faith and devotion provides a model for us believers to follow, and her maternal care for all Christians invites us to seek her intercession and support on our spiritual journey. As the Church celebrates the resurrection of Christ, reflecting on Mary's role enriches the understanding of this joyous season and highlights the interconnectedness of the Communion of those who saw and believed with those who have not seen yet believe.
