O God, shepherd and ruler of all
the faithful,
look favorably on your servant Leo,
whom you have set at the head of your Church as her shepherd;
grant, we pray, that by word and example

he may be of service to those over whom he presides
so that, together with the flock
entrusted to his care,
he may come to everlasting life.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to
You. Never permit me to be

LITURGICAL NOTES

Here we are celebrating the 14th Sunday Ordinary Time. This is the longest season in our Church. We have actually been in Ordinary Time for a while and we continue until Advent. But, why do we call it Ordinary time? There is nothing Ordinary about it. So, I thought that I would share what I found on the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) website:

"Christmas Time and Easter Time highlight the central mysteries of the Paschal Mystery, namely, the incarnation, death on the cross, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ, and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ.

Ordinary Time, "Tempus Per Annum" is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe."

With this information, for us to grow deeper in Faith, let us reflect on the Gospel Canticle for this Sunday: "Let the peace of Christ control your hearts; let the word of Christ dwell in you richly."

God bless, Alicia Vinklarek, LMC, Liturgy Coordinator

FROM THE PASTOR

LIVING IN THE JOY OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Part V

Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi

“For the kingdom of God is not a matter of food and drink, but of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit”

Romans 14:17

As humans we have the capacity to initiate projects and feel good about that! After the ball is rolling and we have already started “doing our thing,” that’s usually when we pray and ask God to bless what we have initiated. We just assume that it is God’s will because it seems like such a good idea. No wonder we have such poor results! We must learn to put on the brakes, stop ourselves for a while, and learn to wait until the Holy Spirit speaks clearly to our hearts. It may seem as if this way of doing things takes longer; but when He does speak, the results will be more rewarding and longer lasting. Furthermore, we can avoid pitfalls that would have cost us a lot of time and effort in the long run. We must learn to let the Holy Spirit lead us. Romans 8:14, tells us; “For those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God”. Indeed, your path will be free of regret, and the Spirit of God will direct your affairs and actions toward a positive end. The joy of the Lord will empower you. When all seems lost, God takes over, and when God intervenes, the battle is won.

Being sensitive to the Holy Spirit is important if we want to see successful results in any sphere of life, including healing, family, business, and leading others. Only the Holy Spirit sees and knows everything that should be done; that’s why it is so imperative to learn how to follow His leadership if we want to be successful and be at peace.

I love the example in Luke 5:17, for it shows Jesus’ flexibility in the hands of the Holy Spirit. Although He was busy teaching at the moment, suddenly He felt the anointing shift. The power of God was suddenly present to heal the sick, and Jesus knew it was time to set aside the preplanned program and go with the flow of the Holy Spirit. He faithfully followed wherever the Holy Spirit led, and He did what the Holy Spirit told Him to do. If the Spirit told Him nothing, then nothing was the right thing for Him to do. In John 5:30, Jesus told of His complete dependency upon the Holy Spirit. He told the disciples, “By myself I can do nothing; I judge only as I hear, and my judgment is just, for I seek not to please myself but him who sent me”. Jesus was constantly listening to the voice of the Spirit, waiting for that divine signal to act, to heal, to deliver, or to cleanse someone who was sick.

Jesus responded to needs without following a predetermined plan or acting mechanically in every situation. Therefore, we need to learn from His example and depend on the Holy Spirit to lead us, just as He did. If we listen to the Spirit and do what He tells us to do — if we will learn to wait until we hear Him speak — we will have powerful results just like Jesus had. We pray ever to live happily in the joy of the Holy Spirit.

(The End)
