4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.” - Mt 5:10-12a

LITURGICAL NOTES

This weekend, we celebrate the fourth Sunday in Ordinary time. The month of February is dedicated to the Holy Family. This February, let us especially express our devotion to the Holy Family and seek the guidance and intercession of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph in our daily lives. With that said, this coming week, we will celebrate the Presentation of the Lord, also known as Candlemas, on Monday, February 2, 2026 with Mass at Noon and then again at 6 pm in Latin. The Presentation of Our Lord in the Temple is the fourth decade of the Joyful Mysteries of the Holy Rosary as it reflects on Mary and Joseph presenting the infant Jesus at the Temple in Jerusalem, as prescribed by Jewish law. It is a moment marked by humility, obedience, and the fulfillment of divine promise, and it is a moment of prophetic mystery as we hear Simeon tell Mary that, "you yourself a sword will pierce—so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." At the 6 pm Mass, we will bless candles that we use in our Liturgy and if you would like to bring your candles, please do so.

Also on Tuesday, February 3, we celebrate the optional Memorial of Saint Blaise, Bishop and Martyr at our regularly scheduled 8 am Mass. St Blaise is known as the patron saint for those afflicted with throat injuries and diseases. As such, at the 8 am Mass, we will have blessings of the throats. However, if you cannot attend, no worries, Father will do throat blessings at all weekend Mass times next weekend.

God Bless, Alicia Vinklarek, LMC

HAITI: This Sunday's Gospel shows Jesus teaching with authority that frees, casting out the unclean spirit and restoring dignity. The Epistle calls us to an "undivided devotion to the Lord," a clarity of purpose that strengthens us in uncertain times. These themes speak directly to Saltadère, where families face rising costs and national instability, yet St. Michel Parish and School continue to shine with resilience and faith. Our Tri-Parish Haiti Ministry invites you to join this work of hope at the Hope for Haiti Sponsorship Fair on February 21–22. A $175 annual sponsorship provides a child at St. Michel with tuition, supplies, and a daily meal.

FROM THE PASTOR

Repent and Believe

Part II

Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi

"The time has come," he said. "The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!" (Mk. 1:15).

"Repent and believe" is the foundational Gospel call, and a qualification to enter the Kingdom of God. It is a commanding radical turning away from sin (repentance) and a turning toward trust in Jesus Christ the King for salvation. Because Jesus is King, the kingdom of God couldn't be more important for us. This is why Jesus tells us to "seek first the kingdom of God" before we even seek the basic necessities of life like food and shelter (Matt 6:33). This is why Jesus tells us to pray for God's kingdom to come on this earth, just as it is in heaven (Matt 6:10). This is why Jesus preaches the gospel of the kingdom of God and tells us to do the same (Mark 1:15). What we need, more than anything, is to be rightly related to the King and brought into his kingdom. The kingdom of God determines our truth, message, methods, values, witness, worship, and priorities, because Jesus is King. Jesus' Kingdom The Kingdom includes both his general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men and women enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

When Jesus says the time is fulfilled and the kingdom of God is at hand (Mark 1:15), he means that God's rule and reign over his universe is at hand, it has broken into the present in his presence, because he is the king who brings the kingdom. What the kingdom of God means is explained in the Old Testament. God has always intended that his creation be his kingdom. He made us to rule and reign with him and for him in his kingdom, this universe. I believe disciples of Jesus conquer the world not through physical force, but through faith in Jesus Christ, which overcomes the world's sinful systems, temptations, and evil. It's emphasized in 1 John 5:4-5 that everyone born of God overcomes the world, with faith being the victory. "More than conquerors" (Rm. 8:37) signifies absolute, eternal victory through Christ's love, ensuring nothing can separate believers from God. And that was the intention of the Creator from the beginning of creation.

This is why God placed our first parents in a garden, to steward this world for his glory, to live in and extend his kingdom throughout his creation. God has always been the one who reigns over his creation and his people. He is exalted above all else, he alone rules in majestic splendor, he gives directions to his people in his law on how to live for him and with each other (e.g., Psalm 47). Of course, our first parents rebelled against God and his kingdom purposes. However, even as God justly casts them out of the garden because of their sin, he promises to send a redeemer, a descendant of that first woman, who would crush sin and evil, put death to death (Gen 3:15). This redeemer would be a king who would sit on an eternal throne (e.g., 2 Samuel 7:14), making it possible for us once again to live with God and for God in his kingdom.

As God works to fulfill this promise, he calls Israel to be his "kingdom of priests" (Exodus 19:4-6), his people who would demonstrate his kingdom power and presence by their lives and witness, extending the kingdom to others. However, like our first parents, they did not do this. Instead of wanting God as their king, they called for another king. God in his grace grants their request, calling on the king to lead his people to be his kingdom in this world. However, yet again, the kings and the nation did not do this. But God always keeps his promises. Through his prophets, he continued to proclaim that a Messiah, a king, a redeemer, would come and usher in the promised eternal kingdom of God, when all things would be as they should be, without sin.
