HAITI: Palm Sunday reveals Christ's strength in humility—foretold by Isaiah, praised by Paul, and fulfilled in the Passion. His mercy speaks directly to our world's violence. That same hope is taking shape in Haiti. As a U.S.-initiated international force deploys and the new prime minister seeks alternatives for young men trapped in gangs, the Saltadère community and St. Michel Parish, with twinning support, are acting for peace. Our Tri-Parish Haiti Ministry is partnering with the local water committee, including Father Asmith, to run a new water line from the Saltadère spring to Los Posos, bringing clean water to 280 families. Our Lenten food distribution is also underway, with funds for both efforts included in the April transfer. As Holy Week begins, we remember that every act of service—whether carrying a cross, carrying water, or distributing food—shares in Christ's redeeming love

HOLY COMFORTER'S ALTAR GUILD is looking for a flower arranger to help beautify our sacred space. If you are interested and have flower arranging skills, Please contact Jean Mickiewicz Jean4greens@yahoo

Suffering That Leads to Victory

Part VI

Rev. Fr. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him:
if we deny him, he also will deny us.”

2 Timothy 2:12

Jesus' victory is evident in the pattern of his suffering. Specifically, victory over sin. In 1Peter 3:18, it is said that Christ suffered for sins once for all. That is, His sacrifice was perfect and final. Therefore, it was to never be repeated in history or in symbol again.

Once for all offering of Christ stands in contrast to the annual sacrifice of the Jewish high priest on the day of atonement. The high priest job was never ever finished. They had to keep giving animals over to sacrifice for the sins of the people. It never finished. It was repetitious work year after year.

Jesus came to put away sin by means of His sacrifice. Jesus' sacrifice was and is an unrepeatable event according to Hebrew 9: 25: “nor was it that He would offer Himself often, as the high priest enters the holy place year by year with blood that is not his own”.

Then, Jesus sanctified forever those who would believe. Hebrew 10:10; says: “By this will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all”. Then, He perfected everything forever. Hebrew 10:14 says; “For by one offering He has perfected for all time those who are sanctified”. So What He completed on that Cross was important for us, and never having to be repeated. Under the victory of Christ over sin, He suffered as a righteous man. In other words, Christ's perfect righteousness meant that He never deserved to die. He was not dying for Himself. He was the perfect Son of God and the perfect Man. Jesus endured the pains of death on behalf of those who deserved to die, which is us. I like the way one writer put it: He, the good (guy) One, died for us, the bad (guys) ones.

Jesus' sacrifice was so perfect, final, and sufficient that it gave to all who believe, a permanent justification before God, and the continued position that cannot be altered before God, which will be enjoyed forever. That is what God gives us. Because He gives us that, all things that could happen to us on earth have disappeared and We are heading to Glory in the presence of God.

As followers of Jesus Christ, we all want to live a triumphant Christian life. As the scriptures assures us that God and His Son Jesus are Victors and that believers can share in their victories: “But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ” (1Cr. 15:57). Now the question remains: how can we experience the victorious life that has been made possible in Christ? How can we achieve victory in Jesus?
