FROM THE LITURGY COORDINATOR

Happy Pentecost and Happy Feast day to us!

This day is called the birthday of the Church, to which the Holy Spirit came with wind and fire, filling the disciples with new energy and a mission as the Holy Spirit descended upon them. Pentecost also marks the end of the Easter season as the Paschal mystery is complete with the Passion, the Death, the Resurrection, and the Ascension of Jesus. The Ascension culminates in the sending of the Holy Spirit by the Father, at the request of His Son, Jesus the Christ.

However, the gift of the Holy Spirit is not just for the first disciples but for us today. Today reminds us that God's Spirit is always at work. He guides us, helps us pray, and unites us as one body in Christ.

Pentecost is a joyous celebration of the Holy Spirit's presence and power in the life of the Church and individual believers. As Catholics, we feel compelled to deepen our relationship with the Holy Spirit, to embrace our call to mission and unity, and to share the love of Christ with others.

After receiving the Holy Spirit, God commissions us to go out to all and spread the Gospel. With that said, this is a good time to share that I, as Lay Missionary of Charity, always look to how God uses me and sends me to be His hands and feet. He led me back to Holy Comforter for more reasons than Father or I can explain. So it is with sadness, that I share I am being called back to Houston, Texas. On the good news side, I am going back to deepen my maternal relationship with my youngest son and to be a Grandmother to my first Grandbaby.

It has been an honor to be able to serve you and pray with you this past year and I will miss you all. However, my family is calling me back and with much prayer, I am heading back at the end of June.

May the celebration of Pentecost fill all of our hearts with renewed faith, hope, and love, empowering us to be true witnesses of the Gospel to go out into the world and proclaim the Good News of Jesus' LOVE. Amen.

FUN FACTS:

- Pentecost means '50': Pentecost is from the Greek word 'Pentekostos', which means 'fifty'. It's the 50th day after the Sabbath of Passover week and in Judaism is called the Feast of Weeks (Leviticus 23:16).
- Pentecost is the fulfilment of two promises: One promise is in the Old Testament – Joel 2:28, which says "I will pour out my Spirit on all people", and one in the New, where Jesus says he will send another Counsellor, the Spirit of truth (John 16: 5-15).
- Modern day Pentecostals emphasize the gifts of the Spirit: Pentecostals are so called because of the emphasis they place on the gifts of the Spirit, particularly speaking in tongues. They stress the possibility of a direct personal experience of God, like the first disciples, which – just as it was then – is often manifested in dramatic ways. Modern Pentecostals trace their origins to the Azusa Street Revival in 1906 Los Angeles.
- There was wind: Luke tells of three distinct experiences. A violent wind filled the house: breath or wind is a symbol of the Spirit of God. Ezekiel 37 tells the story of the prophet's vision of a valley of dry bones which come together: when the 'breath' of God enters.
- There were tongues of fire: Tongues of fire separate and come to rest on each of them. Jesus told his disciples, "You are the light of the world" (Matthew 5:14). In John 8:12 he says, "I am the light of the world." The picture in Acts seems to be of a single flame that separates and symbolically rests on each of them; the disciples will do what Jesus did.
- There were other languages: The nature of the original experience has been queried, but in Luke's telling of it the point is that it breaks down barriers between people. The story links back to one of the earliest of the Old Testament stories, in Genesis 11, when the people begin to build the huge Tower of Babel. God confuses their language so they can no longer understand each other. At Pentecost, this Babel confusion is reversed.
