OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." - Jn 18:37

How Do I Forgive Someone Who Has Hurt Me?

Life is tough and humans are imperfect. We are all going to be hurt in some way by someone else. Sometimes, that hurt is seemingly so overwhelming, it doesn't seem like the one that hurt you can be forgiven. If we fail to forgive, even in very harsh situations, we are allowing the offender to continue to hurt us. We carry the pain and anguish with us and it can even make us sick. The other person may not even know they have hurt you. They're not hindered. But holding on is like taking a pill and hoping the other person gets sick. We hurt ourselves and weigh down our lives.

It is always good to talk things out with the other person but some things are too difficult or even impossible to face one-on-one. However, we must let the frustration and anger go to heal ourselves, even if the other person won't forgive. It's easy to forgive; it's a snap of the fingers. The difficult part is getting rid of the memories which play out over and over in our minds. The memory of hurt is a gift to tell us to stay away from that person but we do not have to allow them to hurt us again. Holding on to those memories can be a heavy weight to carry.

There is a great hymn that says, "all to Jesus, I surrender, all to Him, I freely give." It helps, I think, to hear yourself say, "Jesus. I give YOU my anger and my frustration. I can't do it on my own, so I give it to You." There is a measure of catharsis in letting your regret, sorrow and anger go and when you hear it, it's easier to believe.

We can remember the pain in order to protect ourselves, but we don't have to continue letting the offender continue to interfere with our happiness.

Children's Choir

We are excited to be resuming our children's choir for 1st-8th graders. Our goal will be to sing in a Sunday morning mass once every 4-6 weeks beginning in October. Practice will be every Wednesday from 5:15-6:00. For more information contact Kristy Zink at 615-504-6234 or childrenschoir@nativitycatholic.net

Key dates will be the weekend Masses of 4/5 and 11/12 December when we will collect donations to purchase the food items, and parishioners will have an opportunity to pick up gift tags from the Magi tree, to provide gifts for the children. Look for the flyer, to be passed out with the bulletins, that will have all the key dates, frequently asked questions, and points of contact, to be involved.

We have the wonderful opportunity to support our church through multiple reward programs. You can support COTN by enrolling in these programs and everytime you shop, 0.5% of your purchase will be donated to COTN. To enroll, follow the directions provided or visit the display in the Narthex.

American Red Cross Blood drive has been moved from December 19, 2021 to January 16, 2022 due to scheduling conflict. If you are scheduled for the December drive, please take time to re-schedule for the January date.

There is a critical need for blood products.

A movie came out in 2000, called "Left Behind", starring Kirk Cameron. It was based on the popular idea of the "rapture". It's a theology that originated with a protestant minister named John Darby. It's the idea that at the 2nd coming of Christ, Christians will be caught up with Jesus in the air, escaping the great tribulations of God's judgements, coming upon those left behind.

The Catholic church has always believed in the 2nd coming of Christ, but it has never been the position of the church fathers or of our teaching today, that the 2nd coming of Christ is our ticket to avoid all the tough times Jesus predicted in the Gospels.

Beginning in the year 500, down through 2020, major Christian groups have publicly declared the year of Jesus' return 55 times! Some sold their homes and quit their jobs, only to lose faith when the day came and went like any other day! Our role is simple. Stay focused on doing what we're called to do. The day and the hour of Jesus' return is God's business. How is it Jesus could say: "No one knows the day or the hour, not even the Son." In the creed we say that Jesus is "true God and true Man." God is omniscient and knows all things: past, present and future! In Malachi God says: "I am the Lord, I change not." In the book of Acts it says: "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever."

The catechism of the Catholic church explains: "...Christ enjoyed in his human knowledge the fullness of understanding of the eternal plans he had come to reveal. What he admitted to not knowing in this area, he elsewhere declared himself not sent to reveal."

The important takeaway is that Jesus is coming again; be ready to meet him. We are to be fully engaged in all areas of life, at the same time living with a sense of detachment from the things of this world that we use. Good as they are, our heart is not set on them. One day, everything that you own and everything that you've worked for, will go to somebody else.

There is the fig tree with the signs of Jesus' return and there is the fig tree of our souls with its own signs. What kinds of signs do I see in myself that I'm connected with Jesus? Am I happy today with the fruit I see in my life or am I in doubt of where I stand with the Lord?

Primera Lectura

Dn 7, 13-14

Segunda Lectura

Apoc 1, 5-8

Yo, Daniel, tuve una visión nocturna:
Vi a alguien semejante a un hijo de hombre,
que venía entre las nubes del cielo.
Avanzó hacia el anciano de muchos siglos
y fue introducido a su presencia.
Entonces recibió la soberanía, la gloria y el reino.
Y todos los pueblos y naciones
de todas las lenguas lo servían.
Su poder nunca se acabará, porque es un poder eterno,
y su reino jamás será destruido.

Hermanos míos: Gracia y paz a ustedes, de parte de Jesucristo, el testigo fiel, el primogénito de los muertos, el soberano de los reyes de la tierra; aquel que nos amó y nos purificó de nuestros pecados con su sangre y ha hecho de nosotros un reino de sacerdotes para su Dios y Padre. A él la gloria y el poder por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

Miren: él viene entre las nubes, y todos lo verán, aun aquellos que lo traspasaron. Todos los pueblos de la tierra harán duelo por su causa.

“Yo soy el Alfa y la Omega, dice el Señor Dios, el que es, el que era y el que ha de venir, el todopoderoso”.

Salmo Responsorial

Salmo 92, 1ab. 1c-2. 5

R. (1a) Señor, tú eres nuestro rey.

Tú eres, Señor, el rey de todos los reyes.
Estás revestido de poder y majestad. R.

R. Señor, tú eres nuestro rey.

Tú mantienes el orbe y no vacila.
Eres eterno, y para siempre está firme tu trono. R.

R. Señor, tú eres nuestro rey.

Muy dignas de confianza son tus leyes
y desde hoy y para siempre, Señor, la santidad adorna tu templo. R.

R. Señor, tú eres nuestro rey.

Evangelio

Jn 18, 33-37

En aquel tiempo, preguntó Pilato a Jesús: “¿Eres tú el rey de los judíos?” Jesús le contestó: “¿Eso lo preguntas por tu cuenta o te lo han dicho otros?” Pilato le respondió: “¿Acaso soy yo judío? Tu pueblo y los sumos sacerdotes te han entregado a mí. ¿Qué es lo que has hecho?” Jesús le contestó: “Mi Reino no es de este mundo. Si mi Reino fuera de este mundo, mis servidores habrían luchado para que no cayera yo en manos de los judíos. Pero mi Reino no es de aquí”.

Pilato le dijo: “¿Conque tú eres rey?” Jesús le contestó: “Tú lo has dicho. Soy rey. Yo nací y vine al mundo para ser testigo de la verdad. Todo el que es de la verdad, escucha mi voz”.

DEACON PHIL'S HOMILY 11/14/21

Saint Mark's Gospel is believed to be the first Gospel written and is the shortest. So he gets to the point quickly yet, giving us a good account of what is coming.

Just reading the first few verses of this morning's Gospel is kinda scary. "The sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken." At first glance that makes you cringe. But take heart, Jesus is not trying to scare us.

We are just two weeks from the first Sunday of Advent. A time of preparation and anticipation of the coming of Jesus; the birth of Jesus. Today's Gospel is telling us of the second coming of Jesus. In fact, Jesus promised His disciples that He would come again. In John 14:1-3 He says, "Let not your heart be troubled. . . In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also."

These are words of encouragement and love. Jesus wants us to be with Him in heaven. He is not trying to scare us and make us nervous about this second coming. He is giving us time to prepare for it. He is patiently waiting for us to turn to Him and away from sin. He is giving us that precious gift of time.

Our first reading today from Daniel was written, scholars believe, in the 2nd century. It was a prophecy of the second coming. Which ties to our Gospel reading today.

It has been about 1,800 years since its writing. And we still do not know when the second coming will happen. God is giving us time.

Jesus' disciples want to know what sign they can look for, so they can be ready for this second coming. He tells them to be on guard, don't be fooled by false messiahs and false prophets, they will come and try to mislead you. Trust the Holy Spirit, He will lead you on the right path.

Jesus loved to use trees in his explanations. We heard about the mustard seed and how it would provide a place for the birds of the air. The mustard seed starts small and grows into a large bush, of course the mustard seed is the Church, starting small and growing bigger and bigger. Now he uses the fig tree to illustrate how one can tell the changes in the seasons. He tells his disciples they already know how to predict certain happenings. When the branches of the fig tree become tender and sprout leaves, you know that summer is near.

He is telling them (and us) to be watchful! To be alert! Don't just sit around waiting for these signs. We should always live lives of love. We should always live lives of service. Jesus tells us that no one knows when he is coming back, not even Jesus. "Neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." Jesus could return tomorrow, or next week, or in a hundred years. We just don't know.

What is our lesson from this, watch and focus on Jesus, because the devil is seeking to distract us. Do what He told us to do, Love God with our whole heart, our whole mind, and our whole being, and love our neighbor as ourselves.

Jesus wants more than anything to spend eternity with us. He invites us to be with Him in heaven. Don't let worldly distractions take our eyes off the grand prize, to be with Jesus in heaven. We all long to hear those words from Jesus, when I was hungry you gave me food, when I was thirsty you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, in prison and you visited me. "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world
