THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
- Mt 2:10-11

Why Must I Confess my Sins to a Priest?

There are a couple of reasons we confess our sins to a priest. First, if I am going to do something bad and I have to tell another human being, that would be a deterrent to sin. Secondly, in the Bible St. James tells us, "Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed." God doesn't speak to most of us in a human voice. He may push us by way of providence or conscience, but not an audible voice. In Confession, we hear the words, "you are forgiven." We confess to a priest who has had many years of education, training and experience to help us to see the issue and offer advice. In experience, your best friend may tell you the wrong thing to do. Lastly, when we have committed a sin, when we talk it over with someone we can claim our issue and toss it away: name it, claim it, and throw it away.

How many of us would visit a counselor or psychologist and tell them our deepest and darkest secrets just to get an answer? Great, now pay the hefty price for correction that may or may not help. Confession to a priest is free of charge.

There are two reasons for the Sacrament of Confession; to get rid of serious sins, such as breaking one of the Ten Commandments, or if you have no serious sins, to gain the Sanctifying Grace by means of the Sacrament to help you to say no to sin in the future.

CHRISTMAS BASKET PROGRAM- The Men's Club wishes to thank everyone who donated and/or were involved with our largest Christmas Basket Program ever! As a Parish, we collected over $14,000.00 in donations to help us purchase the 40 food items delivered to 100 families. And 372 gift tags were taken off the Magi Tree and delivered to 186 children! And finally, our estimates indicated that approximately 200 families were involved during the Gift Wrapping, the food assembly and/or the deliveries of baskets and gifts to the 100 families. May God Bless all of you!!!!

COTN Prayer Chain

The Church of the Nativity Prayer Chain has no requirements - just a commitment to say a prayer of our own choosing for the person requesting prayer. It is completely done by email and there are no meetings. Christians are called to intercede for each other, and this is a simple and effective intercessory method. Please send an email to nativitycatholicprayerchain@gmail.com to sign up as a prayer warrior or if you have any questions. This is also the email to use to ask for prayers for specific intentions relating to health, job, school, family or private intentions.

Hearts and Hands Ministry helps members of our parish who are ill or recuperating. We can provide meals, provide transportation to and from the doctor if needed, or help with light chores around the house. We also provide receptions following funerals at the church. Primera LecturaIs 60, 1-6

Levántate y resplandece, Jerusalén, porque ha llegado tu luz
 y la gloria del Señor alborea sobre ti.
 Mira: las tinieblas cubren la tierra
 y espesa niebla envuelve a los pueblos;
 pero sobre ti resplandece el Señor
 y en ti se manifiesta su gloria.
 Caminarán los pueblos a tu luz
 y los reyes, al resplandor de tu aurora.

Levanta los ojos y mira alrededor:
 todos se reúnen y vienen a ti;
 tus hijos llegan de lejos, a tus hijas las traen en brazos.
 Entonces verás esto radiante de alegría;
 tu corazón se alegrará, y se ensanchará,
 cuando se vuelquen sobre ti los tesoros del mar y te traigan las riquezas de los pueblos.
 Te inundará una multitud de camellos y dromedarios, procedentes de Madián y de Efá.
 Vendrán todos los de Sabá
 trayendo incienso y oro
 y proclamando las alabanzas del Señor.

Salmo Responsorial Salmo 71, 1-2. 7-8. 10-11. 12-13R. (cf. 11) Que te adoren, Señor, todos los pueblos.

Comunica, Señor, al rey tu juicio
 y tu justicia, al que es hijo de reyes;
 así tu siervo saldrá en defensa de tus pobres
 y regirá a tu pueblo justamente. R.

R. Que te adoren, Señor, todos los pueblos.

Florecerá en sus días la justicia
 y reinará la paz, ere tras era.
 De mar a mar se extenderá su reino
 y de un extremo al otro de la tierra. R.

R. Que te adoren, Señor, todos los pueblos.

Los reyes de occidente y de las islas
 le ofrecerán sus dones.
 Ante el se postrarán todos los reyes
 y todas las naciones. R.

R. Que te adoren, Señor, todos los pueblos.

Al débil librará del poderoso
 y ayudara al que se encuentra sin amparo;
 se apiadará del desvalido y pobre
 y salvará la vida al desdichado. R.

R. Que te adoren, Señor, todos los pueblos.Ef 3, 2-3a. 5-6

Hermanos: Han oído hablar de la distribución de la gracia de Dios, que se me ha confiado en favor de ustedes. Por revelación se me dio a conocer este misterio, que no había sido manifestado a los hombres en otros tiempos, pero que ha sido revelado ahora por el Espíritu a sus santos apóstoles y profetas: es decir, que por el Evangelio, también los paganos son coherederos de la misma herencia, miembros del mismo cuerpo y partícipes de la misma promesa en Jesucristo.

EvangelioMt 2, 1-12

Jesús nació en Belén de Judá, en tiempos del rey Herodes. Unos magos de oriente llegaron entonces a Jerusalén y preguntaron: "¿Dónde está el rey de los judíos que acaba de nacer? Porque vimos surgir su estrella y hemos venido a adorarlo".

Al enterarse de esto, el rey Herodes se sobresaltó y toda Jerusalén con él. Convocó entonces a los sumos sacerdotes y a los escribas del pueblo y les preguntó dónde tenía que nacer el Mesías. Ellos le contestaron: "En Belén de Judá, porque así lo ha escrito el profeta: Y tú, Belén, tierra de Judá, no eres en manera alguna la menor entre las ciudades ilustres de Judá, pues de ti saldrá un jefe, que será el pastor de mi pueblo, Israel".

Entonces Herodes llamó en secreto a los magos, para que le precisaran el tiempo en que se les había aparecido la estrella y los mandó a Belén, diciéndoles: "Vayan a averiguar cuidadosamente qué hay de ese niño y, cuando lo encuentren, avísenme para que yo también vaya a adorarlo".

Después de oír al rey, los magos se pusieron en camino, y de pronto la estrella que habían visto surgir, comenzó a guiarlos, hasta que se detuvo encima de donde estaba el niño. Al ver de nuevo la estrella, se llenaron de inmensa alegría. Entraron en la casa y vieron al niño con María, su madre, y postrándose, lo adoraron. Después, abriendo sus cofres, le ofrecieron regalos: oro, incienso y mirra. Advertidos durante el sueño de que no volvieran a Herodes, regresaron a su tierra por otro camino.

FATHER JERRY'S HOMILY 12/26/21

When I begin Mass, I am always happy but I very often wonder how you are doing. Who had a fight on the way to church with their spouse? Who fought with their children to get them ready or even convince them to come at all? The two most difficult jobs in the world are being married and raising children and no one has a handbook. It seems that the people we always seem to hurt the most are those closest to us. The things we would say to a parent; spouse or child we would never consider saying to a stranger on the street. Being in proximity brings people into strife and anxiety, even for the most perfect families and couples.

The Holy Family faced their own problems and anxieties of having to travel for census during Mary's late pregnancy, going on the run to a foreign country to avoid Herod's proclamation of death to infants and all the way back to Nazareth without the benefit of car, plane or train; but on foot, or at best on the back of an animal or in a cart.

Each one of us face difficulties in every facet of our lives. But in the family, it's tough. Staying married is a daily struggle and raising kids can be exhausting, or worse. Funny how nothing ever turns out the way we envision. Imagine another person not doing what we think they should do in accordance with our own personal view. Impossible.

Today we honor the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. We offer them as an example for us to lead our lives within the context of family. There's just one problem. None of our husbands are Joseph, none of our wives are Mary and none of our children are Jesus. Still, we try.

There are those attributes that can help: patience, persistence, humility, compassion and gentleness. But I think a greater attribute would be prayer. The family is the Domestic church. In that church, faith begins and faith is sustained. To that end; pray. Pray as a family. Now I'm not naïve enough to ever think that just the application of virtue and prayer will remove difficulties. They help, but difficulties will still arise. Separation, divorce, and our children turn out to exercise their own personal free will. Jesus never said that we would not face troubles in our lives but He does promise to get us past our issues, not by removing them but by helping us out of the valleys to get over the mountain.

The Domestic church varies in its makeup: single parent, children, no children, adopted children, absent parents or absent children, but prayer will help. Perhaps words will get in the way. Get together, hold hands or not and just be quiet; praying to yourself for yourself and your family. Gather those you can to pray. Pray every day. If your older children refuse, let them see you praying for them. Be the example. Parents, lead your domestic church. Because, even though you may not be a saint Joseph, Mary or Jesus, we are all called to be saints. And a saint is someone who fails and gets up and keeps trying; keeps being persistent. Get to Mass, or watch on TV during Covid.

Marriage and family gets sloppy because we're human. We try to do our best and that's all God asks of us. Our adult children turn from the Church? It's OK to invite, but don't preach; pray. Preaching will turn them off and God has a plan for them. Remember we are called to love, not judge. Your spouse is away from the Church? Same thing.

Your younger children? Try to get them to Mass. Skipping Mass for other reasons shows them that the commandment to keep Holy the Lord's day is merely a suggestion; not a commandment. We go to great lengths to get our children to events such as soccer, sports, movies. We get them to school when they don't want to go. Mass is where all of us meet Christ face to face. We consume Christ and he becomes part of us at a molecular level. Remember when they were babies and you wanted to squeeze them so tight; you couldn't get them close enough to you? That's how much Jesus loves us, with a hug, constant presence and making himself so close to us, by way of the Eucharist that he becomes part of us. Our tanks are filled up; we spend the grace we get at Mass to be Christ for others that week. Just as you fill your car with fuel; the Mass fills your soul with fuel. The Holy Family is a perfection to strive for. Don't get down on yourself that you are not Joseph, Mary and your children aren't Jesus. Do strive to be a saint, a sinner who continues to persist in the attempt to do good.
