2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."
- Jn 2:1-3

Cohabitation is when a man and woman live together, in a sexual relationship without the benefit of marriage. It's a fancy word to help us see this situation in a normal light. The reality is that it is a sin. We used to call this arrangement "living in sin" which is a much more accurate term. There are many arguments for people to cohabit, but none of them live up to the expectations of the Church or the teachings of God.

Here is the perfect example of culture convincing that something is OK because "everyone else is doing it". We must call it for what it is. It is sin. There are many issues, but one overwhelming conviction against living together in a sexual relationship before marriage is the fact that of those who live together before marriage, the divorce rate is as high as 90%; much higher than those who do not cohabit.

So what's really wrong? Sexually, you are not holding to the dignity of sex as completely giving and receiving of love from the other person; you are taking. Prior to marriage, you do not want to get pregnant, so you do not give yourself completely to the other person, you hold something back. You are NOT committed to the other person since either one can pick up and leave at any time. If there are children, a divided parenting is brought about while we know, factually, that having both parents in the household is the best possible arrangement for raising our youth. (of course, no one is perfect, marriages do break up and we support every human when things do not go as we plan.) I realize that many people will see these comments as old fashioned and prudish, but the reality, the truth is that a sin is a sin and by calling it something different, you do not eliminate the sin. To many, the simple answer to pre-marital sexual activity is the fact that it is seen over and over on TV, in movies, literature and we are desensitized to the damage these arrangements do. When you stand on your own, with your own principles, you will always stick out in the crowd. You do not have to do what everyone else does.

Sin is sin and just calling it something else doesn't remove its reality.

The COTN Photography Club will meet at the church in room 106/107 on Saturday, January 22 at 9:30 AM. All are welcome! We will plan trips and activities for 2022. For more information, contact Ray LaCroix, 615-626-1249; rjlacroix@gmail.com.

WGON January Meeting 1/20/22 at 6:30 The hustle and bustle of the holidays is over. It is time to relax and have some fun. On Thursday, January 20th, the Women's Group plans to do just that. Because we never stop thinking of ways to support Nativity; there will be a short business meeting. After that it will be time to let our hair down. Refreshments, activities, games will be provided by the Board. Please plan to attend; let's start 2022 with renewed vigor. If you need a ride, contact one of the Board members to make transportation arrangements. We want to see you there; please let us know you are coming. RSVP Barb Schee 314-324-1686 The WGON Board

Happy New Year from WGON Back by popular demand; the Women's Group will be offering Soups and Sides (breads, crackers, etc.) as part of the Bake Sale on January 22 and 23. From crock pots, soups will be packaged warm into 16 oz. containers and sold at $5.00 apiece; spoons optional. Choices will include: chili, chicken noodle, vegetarian vegetable and possibly a few surprises. Of course, while supplies last. If you have not partaken of enough sweets during the holidays, please do not fret; there will be treats available to try to keep that insatiable sweet tooth at bay. WGON

HAITIAN COFFEE SALE

The Catholic Church of the Nativity, Knights of Columbus Council #16604 will be selling Haitian Coffee Online and Before and After all Masses on January 15th & 16th in the Narthex.

Primera LecturaIs 62, 1-5 Segunda Lectura*1 Cor 12, 4-11

Por amor a Sión no me callaré
y por amor a Jerusalén no me daré reposo, hasta que surja en ella esplendoroso el justo
y brille su salvación como una antorcha.

Entonces las naciones verán tu justicia,
y tu gloria todos los reyes.
Te llamarán con un nombre nuevo,
pronunciado por la boca del Señor.
Serás corona de gloria en la mano del Señor
y diadema real en la palma de su mano.

Ya no te llamarán "Abandonada",
ni a tu tierra, "Desolada";
a ti te llamarán "Mi complacencia"
y a tu tierra, "Desposada", porque el Señor se ha complacido en ti
y se ha desposado con tu tierra.

Como un joven se desposa con una doncella,
se desposará contigo tu hacedor;
como el esposo se alegra con la esposa,
así se alegrará tu Dios contigo.

Salmo Responsorial Salmo 95, 1-2a. 2b-3. 7-8a. 9-10aR. (3) Cantemos la grandeza del Señor.

Cantemos al Señor un nuevo canto,
que le canten al Señor toda la tierra;
cantemos al Señor y bendigámoslo. R.

R. Cantemos la grandeza del Señor.

Proclamemos su amor día tras día,
su grandeza anunciemos a los pueblos;
de nación en nación, sus maravillas. R.

R. Cantemos la grandeza del Señor.

Alaben al Señor, pueblos del orbe, reconozcan su gloria y su poder
y tribútenle honores a su nombre. R.

R. Cantemos la grandeza del Señor.

Caigamos en su templo de rodillas.
Tiemblen ante el Señor los atrevidos.
"Reina el Señor", digamos a los pueblos, gobierna a las naciones con justicia. R.

R. Cantemos la grandeza del Señor.

Hermanos: Hay diferentes dones, pero el Espíritu es el mismo. Hay diferentes servicios, pero el Señor es el mismo. Hay diferentes actividades, pero Dios, que hace todo en todos, es el mismo.

En cada uno se manifiesta el Espíritu para el bien común. Uno recibe el don de la sabiduría; otro, el don de la ciencia. A uno se le concede el don de la fe; a otro, la gracia de hacer curaciones, y a otro más, poderes milagrosos. Uno recibe el don de profecía, y otro, el de discernir los espíritus. A uno se le concede el don de lenguas, y a otro, el de interpretarlas. Pero es uno solo y el mismo Espíritu el que hace todo eso, distribuyendo a cada uno sus dones, según su voluntad.

EvangelioJn 2, 1-11

En aquel tiempo, hubo una boda en Caná de Galilea, a la cual asistió la madre de Jesús. Éste y sus discípulos también fueron invitados. Como llegara a faltar el vino, María le dijo a Jesús: "Ya no tienen vino". Jesús le contestó: "Mujer, ¿qué podemos hacer tú y yo? Todavía no llega mi hora". Pero ella dijo a los que servían: "Hagan lo que él les diga".

Había allí seis tinajas de piedra, de unos cien litros cada una, que servían para las purificaciones de los judíos. Jesús dijo a los que servían: "Llenen de agua esas tinajas". Y las llenaron hasta el borde. Entonces les dijo: "Saquen ahora un poco y llévenselo al mayordomo".

Así lo hicieron, y en cuanto el mayordomo probó el agua convertida en vino, sin saber su procedencia, porque sólo los sirvientes la sabían, llamó al novio y le dijo: "Todo el mundo sirve primero el vino mejor, y cuando los invitados ya han bebido bastante, se sirve el corriente. Tú, en cambio, has guardado el vino mejor hasta ahora".

Esto que hizo Jesús en Caná de Galilea fue el primero de sus signos. Así manifestó su gloria y sus discípulos creyeron en él.

FATHER JERRY'S HOMILY 1/9/22

Baptism of the Lord

Jesus, as God, did not need to be Baptized. He is showing us the path to follow. Everything that Jesus touched became redeemed. So, Jesus wasn't changed by His Baptism, rather all the waters of the world became an instrument of redemption for all humanity.

Baptism is the normative way to have Original Sin washed from our souls. It incorporates us as members of the Church, implants the Holy Spirit and makes us all members of the Royal Priesthood as priests, prophets and kings/queens. Jesus carries out His mission in three acts of work: Priest, Prophet and King. Our participation in the Royal Priesthood calls us to share in the exact work; priests to praise God, prophets to spread the word of God and Kings/Queens to care for those entrusted to our care.

But God is very deliberate in how He communicates to us. Something else is going on with this Baptism of Jesus.

We have to go back to the Old Testament, to the beginning. In Exodus, chapter 22. Abraham, our father in faith, is asked to sacrifice his son Isaac; his only son whom he loved very much. So, in faith, Abraham takes his only son to an indicated mountain. The boy carries the wood for the sacrifice on his back. Everything is made ready and just as Abraham is about to strike Isaac, an angel of the Lord appears and stops him. The angel points to a ram whose horns are caught in a thicket. That ram is substituted for Isaac and God accepts that sacrifice. Abraham is promised that his descendants will be as many as the grains of sand on the seashore; the stars in the heavens. Abraham, on earth will not live to see this but his descendants will greatly increase. We are all descendants of our father in faith. Along with this promise, a template is set for what will be fulfilled in the New Testament.

Jesus is baptized in the Jordan by his cousin, John and swirling under this event is a realization that what Abraham attempted, God is going to do. Abrahams' only son is spared. God's only son will not be spared. Just last week, we recalled the gifts of the Magi; gold for a king, frankincense for a priest and myrrh for the dead. Jesus is the new King of Heaven and earth to care for all his subjects. Jesus is the perfect priest to show us how to praise God. Jesus will die for our sins and make a way for us to remove our sins and regain Paradise. Isaac carried the wood for his sacrifice on his back up a mountain. Jesus carried the wood for His sacrifice up a mountain.

Jesus is the new Isaac; the fulfillment of the Old Testament which hides the New; the New Testament which reveals the Old and we continue to fulfill the work of Christ in our Royal Priesthood; praising God, spreading the word and caring for those entrusted to our care Spiritual Adoption Program: Everyone loves the beauty and innocence of a baby. As an expression of that love, Catholic Church of the Nativity announces an adoption program for young and old alike.

The late Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen encouraged the spiritual adoption of an unborn child. This is done by praying that one particular but unknown child's life be spared abortion and be allowed to continue to live. Not all newly conceived babies are allowed to be born. In fact, approximately 3,000 babies in the United States lose their lives to abortion each day.

You may "adopt" a child individually or as a family by signing up during the weekends of January 22/23 and 29/30. You will be asked to name the child for whom you will be praying, thereby giving the baby the humanity he or she deserves. You will be asked to pray for your unborn child and for all unborn children, for the power of prayer is great.

You will receive monthly reports through the parish bulletin describing your baby's development and your child will be born in September culminating with a parish-wide baby shower. During your earthly life this spiritually adopted child of yours is known only to God, but in the world to come it is hoped that you will meet the child whose life was spared by your prayers and spend eternal happiness with them.-Respect Life Ministry.
