Clarity at last

Darkness and light are biblical themes that invite us to take an internal sight exam. How clearly do we see? Like the man in today's gospel, we're all born blind into a world grown accustomed to the blurred vision of habitual sin. We view most decisions in terms of what's in it for us. It's difficult and challenging to climb up to a higher point of view to ask: What will serve the common good? Today, we pray that our Elect will have the grace to seek and attain that higher ground. And might we too ask for the same?

All Christ the King Catholic Gentlemen: I encourage all men in the Parish who are not Knights of Columbus to carefully consider this Free Membership opportunity. Our Church is our spiritual and moral foundation, and it is both most appropriate and most necessary in these very troubled times to live our lives in commitment to our Church and our Lord's design for us. If you become a new Knight, we can guarantee that your talent and energy will be put to good use in supporting our Parish and our community. I am, and all our Knight Officers and Members are, most happy to discuss the Knights of Columbus and our mission and service at any time.

May our Lord and Mary, His Mother, watch over you and your Family and keep you safe and healthy, we pray.

WORD on FAITH

A year ago, Covid-19 became a major player in my life. At first, sheltering in place felt rather pleasant. I had been praying for a simpler life - surely staying at home would cut down on my tendency toward busyness. Yet, almost immediately, I began cleaning out closets and drawers; drawing up new schedules of daily tasks. While I was no longer driving hither and thither, I was still driven.

Eventually, the limitations imposed on me did work a change. Like a gentle rain, stillness sunk in and softened the crust that had held my life in one form. In the quietness of my new circumstances, I began to focus on one task at a time. While I was having fewer encounters with others, the encounters I was having were more meaningful. The nightly news images of others dying or dealing with illness, unemployment, loss haunted me. Yet I also noticed trees as I walked in the neighborhood, children on their scooters and bikes going up and down the street, birds at our feeders. The colors of my life were a bit more vibrant than before. In the midst of the inconveniences and losses, I was sensing a peace within myself.

One of my heroes, Joseph Bernardin, spoke of this kind of peace. Before he died, he said, "What I would like to leave behind is a simple prayer that each of you may find what I found - God's special gift to us all: the gift of peace. When we are at peace, we find the freedom to be most fully who we are, even in the worst of times. We let go of what is non-essential and embrace what is essential. We empty ourselves so that God may more fully work within us. And we become instruments in the hands of the Lord."

May it be so for all of us.
