LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

The cornerstone is the first stone that is laid and the stone that not only determines how the other stones are placed but the position of the entire structure. As human beings, we need a cornerstone or reference point so that our lives can be properly placed and positioned. Our cornerstone determines not only how we see ourselves but who we will become. Without a cornerstone or reference point, we will be disconnected, disoriented, and poorly positioned for effective action in our world. In order to be the children of God we are, Jesus Christ needs to be our cornerstone and the reference point for all that we do. He alone is the Good Shepherd who can guide through life's questions and challenges, bringing us to proper pasture. Without this proper base, we can easily fall into the trap of self-aggrandizement and quickly lose our way. If that happens, then moral principles, proper conduct, justice, wisdom, and virtue will be difficult to find. We need to listen to the right voices and allow God to show us how to build our house well. Salvation only comes from God and only God will protect us, no matter the cost.

the good shepherd

Sunday, April 25, 2021

Please refer to the parish app or website for our liturgy aid and other Mass information.

Sunday Indoor Mass
7:00 a.m.

Two Sunday Outdoor Masses (ballfield), weather permitting, at 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.

On some Saturdays we also have an indoor 4:30 p.m. Mass.

We will offer this again on May 1.

(See ctk.org for our guidelines for gathering, including required masks and social distancing.)

Senior and High-Risk Masses

Our next Masses are on

Apr. 24 and May 8

at our new time of 4:30 p.m.

Seniors and those who are at a higher risk are invited to join us.

RADIO COVERAGE DURING MASS

Each weekend our Saturday 4:30 pm and our Sunday 9 am and 6 pm Masses will be broadcast on FM 89.7 for those who wish to stay in their vehicles. This access is only available on campus and is best heard in the circle drive or the back parking lot. If Mass moves inside, communion for those participating in this way will be distributed at the front church doors.

COFFEE FOR HAITI

This weekend, April 24-25, is our April coffee sales weekend. Look for us after each Mass. Purchase online or in person.

NEWS for the PARISH

FALL SERIES ON NON-VIOLENCE

We're organizing a big educational series in the fall focusing on non-violence. Topics may include, but are not limited to:

- non-violence in Scripture and Catholic theology
- the global history of non-violent protest
- the history of non-violent protest in the USA, especially SNCC and Jim Lawson
- Just war theory
- Incarceration and death penalty reform
- Domestic violence
- Non-violent communication and other practical non-violent approaches

We need help putting this series together. If you are interested in helping us with planning, organization, or communication, please contact Jon Stotts. We'll have a planning meeting in the coming weeks.

Nursery Supervisor Position

CTK is seeking a Nursery Supervisor for our Sunday morning liturgies, beginning in August. Please contact Jaimie Gorman for more information on this role or to apply. jaimie.gorman@ctk-nashville.org.

PREP Catechists 2021-22

Are you interested in volunteering as a catechist for our parish religious education program? We have several teaching opportunities available for classes from PreK-3 through middle school. We can accommodate your teaching schedule if you cannot commit to teaching weekly. Our PREP year runs from late August through early May. CLICK HERE or contact Jaimie Gorman with questions.

Vacation Bible School

July 19-23

9 am - 12:30 pm

Participant Registration

April 1 - June 30

Please see ctk.org/vacation-bible-school for details and the links to registration, fee payment, etc. Due to limited capacity, parishioners will be given first priority and registration will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

MIDDLE SCHOOL YOUTH GROUP

Middle School Youth Group will meet again on May 2, from 4:30-5:30, on the CTK field. Sign-ups are required for the event. Contact Jaimie Gorman for more information or visit:

WORD on FAITH

"I'm worried. My son got his license. He's not the sharpest knife in the drawer." Just listening to Sheila, I felt a familiar knot in my own stomach. I saw my son going down the driveway in that dark green Hondo all those years ago. Seeing him in my mind, in that driver's seat still evoked the same scary thoughts and feelings. He might go too fast, get pulled over, run into something, damage the car, he could be hurt. "He could mouth off to the police. Then who knows what." Sheila's words jerked me out of the re-run playing in my mind. I stared at her face. She wasn't worried about a ticket, a bent fender – her son could be killed, shot. Her fear was palpable. And it was a rational worry – one I certainly had never had. That was the first time I was struck viscerally by what it might be like to be black in this country.

I have been slapped in the face by that difference of being black in the United States a few times since then. A gentle minister friend of mine, after being pulled over by the police for no apparent reason, turned toward the open window to see the nozzle of a revolver in this face. Intelligent and insightful Cynthia became anxious about getting out of the car near a white neighborhood to watch a shower of falling stars; she didn't have binoculars or a telescope to bear witness to her intention.

My awareness of the pervasiveness of systemic racism in this country has been intensified in Christ the King's Anti-Racism Reading Group. The accounts in the various books have shocked me, perhaps those in Richard Rothstein's The Color of Law more than any other. I am not a person who believes my country is without faults, any more that I believe I am a person without faults – but I had not realized how deeply racism has disfigured our national character, my character, until recently. Certain people, policies and institutions have isolated me from my fellow countrymen, blinded me to their lived experience – and I have willingly turned a blind eye to our national stain. Mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa. Nostra culpa, nostra culpa, nostra maxima culpa.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is available to parishioners whose health has changed or who anticipate surgery in the near future. Through this special anointing, the sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gifts of strength, faith, peace, and courage. Call Kathy in the parish office or Margaret at 615-777-8918 to arrange an appointment with Fr. Dexter or Fr. Phan.

DID YOU KNOW?

Once you have established Christ the King as your church home, you should officially register with us. Registration is one simple form that helps you not only become a member of the parish, but also helps us know and recognize you when it comes time for special events in your faith life, such as preparing for marriage, celebrating your child's baptism, applying for school, or helping you in a time of need. Please contact the parish office or go to our Join the Parish page on our website at <https://ctk.org/join-our-parish>.
