SUNDAY'S READINGS (#1097)

FIRST READING:

As a young man marries a virgin,
your Builder shall marry you;
and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride
so shall your God rejoice in you. (Is 62:5)

PSALM:

Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations. (Ps 96)

SECOND READING:

But one and the same Spirit produces all of these,
distributing them individually to each person as he wishes. (1 Cor 12:11)

GOSPEL:

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory,
and his disciples began to believe in him. (Jn 2:11)

- Next Sunday: 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time; St. Vincent, Deacon and Martyr; St. Marianne Cope, Virgin

Saint of the Week

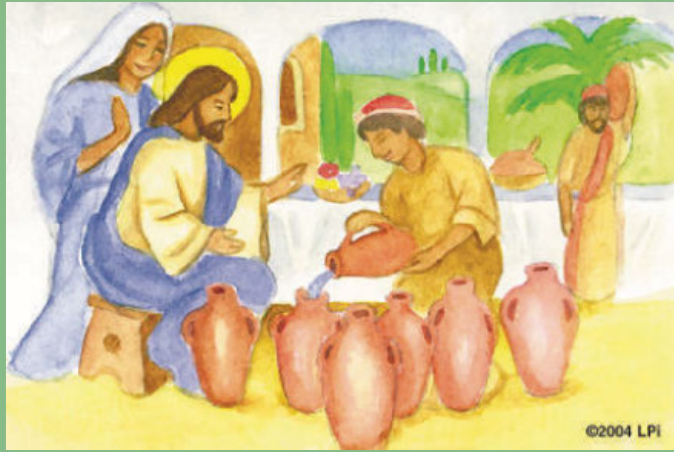

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes.

You are gifted, any way you slice it

We're all good at something. But not all of us consider our talents and skills as assets given to the Body of Christ. Say you can sew, make people laugh, fix an engine, bake a great pie, or balance a mean checkbook. Of what use are these things to the church, you might ask. Discernment of gifts is something Saint Paul took very seriously in the early community. In our faith sharing, we might ask each other how "mighty deeds" or knowledge or healing might be translated into modern needs the church has. Don't underestimate the healing value of a great pie!

WOMEN'S COUNCIL MEETING

All women in the parish are invited to join us for our January meeting on Tue. Jan. 18. We have a day meeting at 10 am and an evening meeting at 6:30 pm in the Council Room of the parish center. Hope to see you there!

ROBOTICS FUND

CKS is researching VEX Robotics to add to our curriculum. If you would like to contribute to two age-appropriate units - one for elementary and one for middle school - please consider a gift to our robotics fund. Robotics are fundamental in teaching and inspiring our young minds by the excitement of hands-on, minds-on STEM learning and the feeling of creating something with technology. in the future. We also welcome anyone with experience in Robotics that would like to participate to please contact the school at 615-292-9465. Contributions can be made at ctknashville.weshareonline.org or with a check made out to CKS.

THANK YOU

Thank you to all who contributed to the Ladies of Charity at Thanksgiving and who helped fill and deliver baskets. Your support helped us provide 775 food baskets to families for Christmas.

Room in the Inn

A big thanks to all who helped with volunteering, meals, and gifts over the holidays for our RITi guests!

Our community's generosity and love made our guests feel cared for and welcomed - especially important at Christmas.

Thank you!!

ADULT FORMATION

Introducing "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission"

Sunday, January 16, 2022
9:45-10:45am - Zoom

Pope Francis has asked every diocese and every parish, to provide opportunities for us to reflect on where the Church has been and where the Church is heading. These reflections focus on three key areas: the communion of Church and society, our participation in the liturgy, and our mission of evangelism and service.

Join other CTK parishioners on Zoom on Sunday, January 16 for a preliminary discussion of this synodal process and how we might implement it at Christ the King. The Zoom meeting information can be found at www.ctk.org. Contact Jon Stotts with questions.

ADULT CONFIRMATION

Are you a baptized, Catholic adult who celebrated Eucharist as a child but was never confirmed? During the Easter season, the bishop celebrates Confirmation with adults in our diocese just like you. If you would like to join those preparing for adult confirmation this spring, contact Jon Stotts.

WORD on FAITH

Many years ago I actually met Sr. Sue Mosteller, Henri Nouwen's companion at L'Arche in Toronto. She told me a bit about being with Henri through a very difficult period in his life. But it wasn't until I read his book, The Return of the Prodigal Son, that I was able to piece together a more complete story of how she helped Henri Nouwen through that experience.

Henri Nouwen writes that he had identified with the good son in Jesus' parable - he was the oldest child in his family, became a priest, was highly successful, teaching at Harvard, Yale and Notre Dame. But later in life he began to see himself as the younger brother - broken, in need of his father's mercy. At times, these two sense of himself seemed to be in conflict.

It was Sue who suggested to him that God was calling him to be the father in the story; to accept and love both those aspects of himself - the elder son and the younger son. What the world needed was for Henri to see himself as the father, not one of the sons. This interpretation of the parable challenges me to move beyond a sense of myself as good or bad, beyond moral judgements, toward a calling to live with compassion not only for my own mixed up nature, but for yours as well.
