Note from the Pastor

It's amazing to think Christmas time is over, and we enter into "Ordinary Time." As I look back at the Christmas season, I was grateful to receive many Christmas cards (which I displayed on my office door) and gifts. In light of this, I wanted to share a little tradition that I practice with all the cards I receive. At the end of the Christmas season, I take all the Christmas cards I received and place them in a basket next to my bed. As I say my nightly prayers, I take out a card from my basket and say a special prayer for the person or family. It calls the person/family to mind, and I offer a prayer for their intentions.

Thank you to all who sent a card and know of my prayers for the entire parish community. Maybe your family too can begin this prayer practice/tradition for all the loved ones in your lives. (God knows I would appreciate your prayers!)

With a grateful heart,

- Fr. Laniauskas, SJ

Each individual matters and each of our experiences is valid and in need of ears to listen. Nobody is excluded – all are welcome. We are all on this journey of faith together! This is an opportunity to listen to one another in a spirit of prayer and dream about the Church we are called to be. CONFIRMATION 2022

Confirmation means strengthening. In this sacrament, the gifts that we received at Baptism are strengthened by the Holy Spirit. Gesu is offering a Confirmation Prep program called SPIRIT that brings the confirmandi together to discuss, experience and witness to faith journeys that have led to Confirmation.

SPIRIT consists of three sessions, with each session focusing on one of the three major components of the sacrament. Sessions will be held at Gesu from 6:30-8:00 pm on the following dates:

- January 23: The Waters of Baptism
- February 27: The light and Fire of the Holy Spirit
- April 3: Strength – the Power of Anointing

Confirmation will be celebrated April 24 at 2:00 pm.

This year, because the prep is succinct, it is imperative that your child attend all three sessions. It is also mandatory that the child's sponsor attend all three sessions. If the sponsor is unable to attend, a parent must attend with the child.

We will not be able to offer make up sessions. If your child is not able to attend all three sessions, since the sacrament is available to 9th through 11th graders, a suggested option would be to wait until next year.

Please register by January 16 by visiting:

<https://membership.faithdirect.net/events/details/7735>.

GESU WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY – WINTER 2022

The Seven Virtues: The Seven Last Words and the Art of Practicing Virtue*, by Archbishop Fulton Sheen
Tuesdays, January 11 – February 22, 9:00-10:00 am, Virtual and In-Person

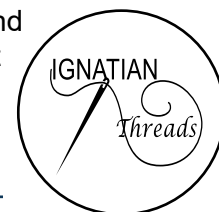

This winter we prepare for Lent early. Archbishop Fulton Sheen's book is a collection of sermons. His reflections offer insights on the three theological virtues of faith, hope and charity, along with the four cardinal virtues of prudence, temperance, justice and fortitude.

The study will consist of mostly virtual meetings with occasional in-person meetings. The book can be ordered online, or you may pick it up in the Pastoral Center. Suggested offering $10.

We hope you consider joining. Reading and studying Scripture in a small faith-sharing group serves to deepen our relationship with Jesus and with each other. An evening study may be offered if there is enough interest. For more information, please contact Debbie Bruening at debbruening1@gmail.com.

IGNATIAN THREADS

As we mark the first of Jesus' miracles on this Second Sunday of Ordinary Time, it is notable that we are experiencing a sort of transition. We celebrated most joyfully our Savior's Birth (God making His love immediately available to all), the Feast of the Holy Family and the Baptism of the Lord. In this familiar story of the Wedding Feast at Cana, we can accept the fact of Jesus performing a miracle in response to a request from his Mother. What seems to enhance the significance of this event is how the "ordinary" becomes the "extraordinary" – water into wine – and isn't that what Jesus' life is all about? We are in a new calendar year, most likely performing our ordinary daily routines just as we did last year. At the same time, we are afforded a golden opportunity to do so with a renewed sense of purpose, with greater resolution, and with an overlay of MAGIS, so that even the 'ordinary' in our daily living can be 'extraordinary' in the eyes of God.

Celebrating the Ignatian Year

By Brother Sean Barry, SJ

Montserrat

Last month, we saw St. Ignatius leave home with the desire to go and be a great saint. On the road, he got into an argument with another man, a fight that nearly led to Ignatius turning against that desire. After a long journey across northern Spain, he reached the first destination on his journey: the Benedictine Abbey of Montserrat.

While there, Ignatius made a symbolic offering of himself to God. He swapped his fine clothes with a beggar's, prayed all night, and laid his sword at a Marian altar (Our Lady of Montserrat). For Ignatius, these actions were a tangible reminder that he was willing to make a sacrifice to follow Christ more closely.

Up until this point, Ignatius easily could have turned away from his newfound desire to follow God more closely. He could have thought that the cost was too high or felt his fervor wane when considering the sacrifices he would have to make. Yet in giving up his sword and fine clothes, Ignatius effectively said that he was breaking with his past habits and way of life. He surrendered what held him back from following God more fully, even though it was a leap into the unknown.

In our own lives, we all have attachments (i.e. hang-ups) which hold us back from following God more fully. Also, most of us are not able to change our lives as drastically as Ignatius did. We have families, work and many other commitments. As we start 2022, is there a small change we can make to help us follow God more fully? It could be as simple as taking a little more time for prayer and less time on our screens. We may have to try this change multiple times for it to stick and bear fruit, and that's part of the journey of faith for all of us.

Reflection Questions:

- What sacrifice(s) could I make to deepen my relationship with God this year?
- What is something God may be calling me to do differently this year?
- What lessons can we learn from previous changes made to help our relationship with God?

Resources

More on Attachments

We often resolve to change something about our lives during the New Year. Brother Barry mentions "attachments" in his most recent reflection on St. Ignatius' experience in Montserrat. The following article explains this concept in greater depth and offers examples of unhealthy attachments: <https://bit.ly/32mMHmZ>. Who knows, you might find some help in composing a New Year's resolution or two.

Ignatian Prayer

Fr. Michael Vincent, SJ, provided a wonderful description of a kind of Ignatian prayer called Gospel Contemplation in the fall issue of Gesu's News & Views publication, which can be found here: <https://bit.ly/324Mh4G>.)

The birth of Jesus as portrayed in the Gospel of Luke is another Scripture passage that is ripe with images for Gospel Contemplation. See the following short article for some guidance on how to use this form of prayer based on Luke 2:1-7: <https://bit.ly/3GL8Vhv>.

Talk on Jesuit Parishes

Sunday, January 16, at 11:00 am in McAuley Hall

The Jesuits are best known as missionaries whose fourth vow obligates them to a complete availability to go on mission. Why do they run parishes? John Carroll University professor, Dr. Paul V. Murphy, will address what makes Jesuit parishes "Jesuit" in this short presentation. (Those planning to attend the 11:30 am Mass will be able to arrive on time.)

CHILDREN'S CORNER

SHARING THE GOSPEL

At a wedding party, Mary said to Jesus, they have no more wine. Help them. Even though it was not time for him to perform miracles, Jesus honored his Mother by changing the water into wine. When you obey God by honoring your mother's wishes, you turn ordinary things, like opening a door, emptying trash, or making the bed into a gift of love. This love makes your mother and God smile.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

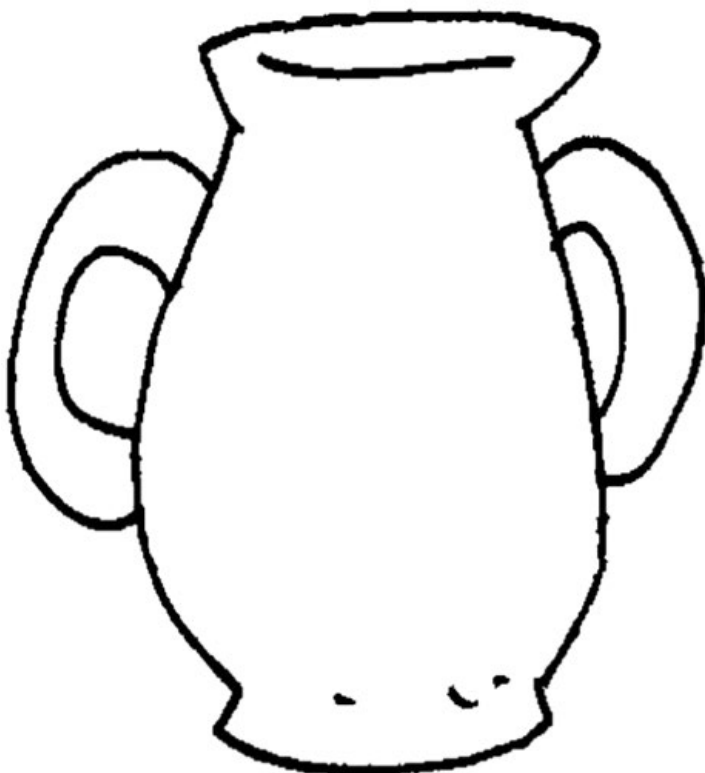

I will put all of my toys away neatly after I finish playing.

PRAYER

Lord, help me turn chores for my family into gifts for you.

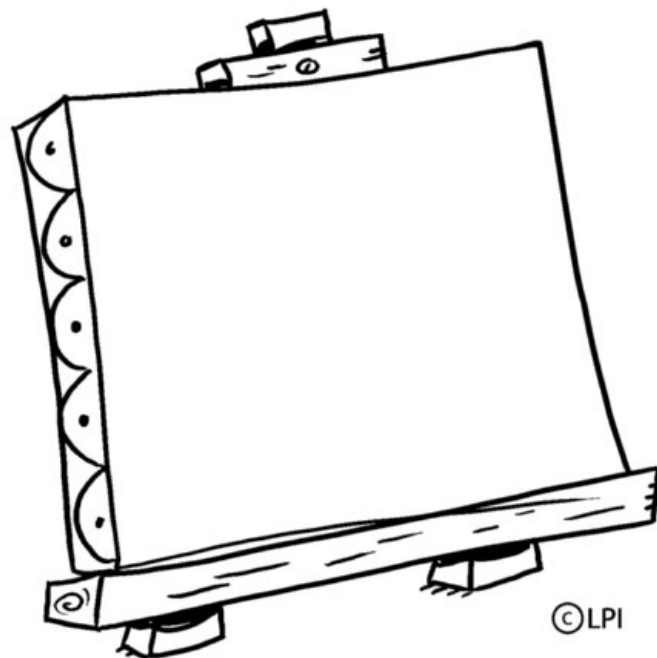

PUZZLE

Try to create a special design for God on this jar!
Have fun!

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw two pitchers, one filled with water and one with purple wine.
