UPDATE ON FR. VINCENT

I continue to recover from my broken foot, and progress has been made. However, I learned just a week before my surgery date that the ankle fusion surgery has been postponed until February 28, because of the surge in Covid patient numbers. That means that the twelve week recovery time will extend until about the beginning of June. But I did have some good news about soon being able to receive pain-relieving knee injections.

I do plan to be in the office a few days a week until my surgery date, and I am very grateful for your many prayers, cards, calls and letters. All of you and our entire parish, school and staff are in my prayers, too.

Sincerely,
Fr. Vincent, SJ

IGNATIAN THREADS

Ignatian spirituality teaches that God is an active God: ever present in our lives, inviting, guiding, directing, and constantly pursuing us, never giving up even if we do at times. "Finding God in All Things" is a wonderful characteristic of Ignatian spirituality which can be truly transformative. It invites us to search for God in every life circumstance, not just in explicitly religious practices or activities. Each person's life experiences can reveal something about God in a very personal way: in times of thankfulness and goodness, even in times filled with pain and suffering. God is always with us because there is no place he cannot be. He will never abandon us; it is we who sometimes fail to keep Him close. With prayer for attentiveness, we will find our God, hidden but present, waiting for us to discover Him and respond to His love.

Celebrating the Ignatian Year

By Brother Sean Barry, SJ
Montserrat

Last month, we saw St. Ignatius leave home with the desire to go and be a great saint. On the road, he got into an argument with another man, a fight that nearly led to Ignatius turning against that desire. After a long journey across northern Spain, he reached the first destination on his journey: the Benedictine Abbey of Montserrat.

While there, Ignatius made a symbolic offering of himself to God. He swapped his fine clothes with a beggar's, prayed all night, and laid his sword at a Marian altar (Our Lady of Montserrat). For Ignatius, these actions were a tangible reminder that he was willing to make a sacrifice to follow Christ more closely.

Up until this point, Ignatius easily could have turned away from his newfound desire to follow God more closely. He could have thought that the cost was too high or felt his fervor wane when considering the sacrifices he would have to make. Yet in giving up his sword and fine clothes, Ignatius effectively said that he was breaking with his past habits and way of life. He surrendered what held him back from following God more fully, even though it was a leap into the unknown.

In our own lives, we all have attachments (i.e. hang-ups) which hold us back from following God more fully. Also, most of us are not able to change our lives as drastically as Ignatius did. We have families, work and many other commitments. As we start 2022, is there a small change we can make to help us follow God more fully? It could be as simple as taking a little more time for prayer and less time on our screens. We may have to try this change multiple times for it to stick and bear fruit, and that's part of the journey of faith for all of us.

Reflection Questions:

- What sacrifice(s) could I make to deepen my relationship with God this year?
- What is something God may be calling me to do differently this year?
- What lessons can we learn from previous changes made to help our relationship with God?

More on Attachments

We often resolve to change something about our lives during the New Year. Brother Barry mentions "attachments" in his most recent reflection on St. Ignatius' experience in Montserrat. The following article explains this concept in greater depth and offers examples of unhealthy attachments: <https://bit.ly/32mMHmZ>. Who knows, you might find some help in composing a New Year's resolution or two.

Ignatian Prayer

Fr. Michael Vincent, SJ, provided a wonderful description of a kind of Ignatian prayer called Gospel Contemplation in the fall issue of Gesu's News & Views publication, which can be found here: <https://bit.ly/324Mh4G>.)

The birth of Jesus as portrayed in the Gospel of Luke is another Scripture passage that is ripe with images for Gospel Contemplation. See the following short article for some guidance on how to use this form of prayer based on Luke 2:1-7: <https://bit.ly/3GL8Vhv>.

Cinema and Conversation:

Ignatius of Loyola

Monday, January 24, from 7:00-9:00 pm
Jesuit Retreat Center

The Jesuit Retreat Center continues their monthly Cinema and Conversation this January with the 2016 film, Ignatius of Loyola, a historical drama based on the memoirs of St. Ignatius of Loyola, founder of the Jesuit order. The film chronicles his valiant but futile defense at the Battle of Pamplona, his struggles with depression and near-suicide, his trial before the Inquisition, and his ultimate vindication. Individuals who are not fully vaccinated are required to wear a mask in the JRC facility – for the protection of yourself and others. JRC follows current CDC guidelines on masks and vaccination. CHILDREN'S CORNER

SHARING THE GOSPEL

The prophet Isaiah wrote about Jesus a long time before he was even born. When Jesus read Isaiah's words, they described Jesus perfectly. Jesus did come to free people from sin, to help those in pain, and even to help blind people see.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Look up Isaiah chapter 61 and read it with your family. Then read Luke 4:14-21. Jesus kept all of those promises!
