On The Way

Redeeming Word and Body: Redeeming Marriage

The Word made flesh redeems our wounded bodies and our wounded speech. In Him God speaks to us in human speech and suffers for us in a human body. So, both our word and body are now redeemed and have redeeming power. They are saved from meaninglessness and invested with the power to be instruments of grace for others.

In addition to being the Word made flesh, Jesus is also the Bridegroom. So, not surprisingly, one principal way that He extends the redemption of word and body is in holy matrimony. Marriage is central to the renewal of all things in Christ. This is only fitting. The pinnacle of God's created order was the union of man and woman. Both accounts of creation (Genesis 1 and 2) culminate in their creation. It was the pride and disobedience of the first married couple that brought sin and death into the world. It was the humility and obedience of Christ the Bridegroom dying for His Bride the Church that won salvation for us. Fittingly, married couples help extend Christ's redemption by their humility and obedience.

The standard for matrimony is Christ and the Church. "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This mystery is a profound one, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church" (Eph 5:31-32). Christ is the Bridegroom Who gives Himself by word and body to His bride, the Church. He vows Himself to the Church with the words "This is my Body." He consummates that marriage when He gives Himself on the Cross, crying out, "It is finished" (or, a better translation, "It is consummated"; Jn 19:30).

As the Bride of Christ, the Church responds by word and body. In her perfection in heaven, the Church eternally says "Amen!" before the throne of God (see Rev 5:14, 7:12; 19:4; 22:20). That Amen is the Bride's assent to and acceptance of the divine Bridegroom's initiative. The faithful on earth speak that word when receiving Holy Communion, the Word made flesh. They then give their bodies to Christ by receiving His Body in the Eucharist.

Married couples are to be icons of this transcendent reality. Their words, first, are redemptive. By speaking the vows to one another, couples do a godlike thing. They speak – and something new – a marriage that never existed before – comes into being. The words of the spouses create the marriage bond that is then a channel of grace for them and for others. By their vows they take human speech and consecrate it for divine purposes. May their words throughout marriage be in accord with the reality of what their vows accomplished on their wedding day. May their words to one another always be re-creative, renewing the graces of their wedding.

Having spoken the vows, spouses then consummate those words by the union of their bodies. The significance of this cannot be overstated. The marital act is where the words of the vows become flesh. The union of their bodies is part of the sacrament and an occasion of increase in grace. The faithful and chaste union of husband and wife in the marital act consecrates the body at its most intimate and vulnerable for divine purposes. No wonder the evil one always seeks to desecrate this union. No wonder Scripture admonishes us to keep the marriage bed undefiled (see Heb 13:4).

Jesus begins His public ministry at the wedding feast in Cana, where He did "the first of his signs...and manifested his glory" (Jn 2:11). It makes sense. He has come to restore the original meaning of marriage. He imbues spouses with His grace so that their union by word and body can be a vehicle for His saving grace.

You are invited to join the St. Mary Magdalene Lay Dominicans for prayer, fellowship, and discussion on Sunday, January 18th, from 5:00pm–6:45pm in the Parish House. We meet the third Sunday of every month.

Lay Dominicans are single or married members of the Dominican Order who have responded to a call to live the Dominican way of life in their own families and occupations.

The Dominican charism is one of prayer, study, community, and apostolate. Of these, study is perhaps the most distinctive element, as Dominicans are constantly called to study scripture, the teachings of the Church, and contemporary issues in the light of Faith. We are life-long learners, who put that thirst for Truth at the service of our apostolic efforts.

For more information, contact Rose Folsom, InquiryVeritas519@gmail.com.

Men's Bible Study is meeting on Wednesdays in the Parish House from 7-8pm. Join men from St. James to explore the Sunday mass readings and grow in faith. Contact Pat Matheny at phdfishing@gmail.com with questions.

Fr. Mark Yavarone, OMV Presents

OVERCOMING SPIRITUAL DISCOURAGEMENT: An Ignatian Path to Hope

All of us experience ups and downs in our daily spiritual life: times when God feels close and we have spiritual energy, and times when that energy wanes, and we struggle with discouragement. In fourteen practical guidelines ("rules"), St. Ignatius of Loyola offers invaluable aid toward understanding this experience, finding freedom from discouragement, and living our daily lives with joy. If this teaching is perennially important, it is more so now in such uncertain times. In this retreat, Fr. Mark Yavarone, OMV, will explore St. Ignatius' teaching and apply it to our experience through concrete examples.

Fr. Yavarone was ordained in 2000 as a member of the Oblates of the Virgin Mary. He has since served as an Associate Pastor at St. Andrew's Parish in Avenel, NJ; a missionary in the Philippines; a member of the faculty at Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary in Weston, MA; and Director of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Retreat Center in Venice, FL. In 2025, he cofounded the Ignatian Discernment Institute with Fr. Timothy Gallagher. His work has appeared in The Way, Linacre Quarterly, and Homiletic and Pastoral Review.

For Parents: Navigating the Journey with Love and Faith

If you're a parent struggling to understand and support a child experiencing same-sex attraction or gender identity questions, you're not alone. EnCourage is an apostolate of the church that offers compassionate, faith-filled support for families facing these deeply personal and often challenging realities. Rooted in the love and truth of Christ, EnCourage provides a welcoming space for parents to find hope, guidance, and fellowship with others walking a similar path. Through honest discussion, prayerful support, and shared wisdom, members strengthen one another while remaining faithful to the teachings of the Church and deeply committed to loving their children unconditionally.

For more information, email encourage@arlingtondiocese.org. You are invited to attend the EnCourage Retreat on Saturday, January 31st. See page 12.
