PRAYER & WORSHIP

FROM THE PASTOR

“A lovely and touching saying of [St. John Vianney], quoted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church...: ‘the priesthood is the love of the heart of Jesus’ (1589). How can we fail to be moved when we recall that the gift of our priestly ministry flows directly from this heart? How can we forget that we priests were consecrated to serve, humbly yet authoritatively, the common priesthood of the faithful? Ours is a mission which is indispensable for the Church and for the world, a mission which calls for complete fidelity to Christ and constant union with him.” (Pope Benedict XVI)

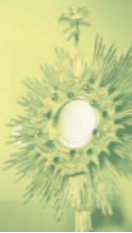

Thanks to Fr. Alek, the Knights of Columbus, the Contemporary Choir, the Carnegie Historical Society, the Christian Mothers (especially those who volunteered to miss the procession to prepare the social), and all who were involved in planning and making possible the beautiful Corpus Christi Procession last Sunday.

I am truly grateful to Maureen Davis, now deceased, and her executors for the recently received and very generous bequest to the parish and the Food Pantry. I encourage all parishioners to consider a remembrance in their final estate planning to include the parish. I am happy to speak with anyone who would have questions about that possibility.

Join us for Eucharistic Adoration on Friday, July 1 at Ss. Simon and Jude Church, beginning at 9:00 a.m. with benediction prior to the Noon Mass.

There will not be a Nocturnal Adoration in July.

PENITENTIAL RITE / KYRIE

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and what I have failed to do, (all strike their breast as they say.)
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the angels and saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Ky - ri - e, e - le - i - son. Chri - ste, e - le - i - son. Ky - ri - e, e - le - i - son.

GLORIA

Glo - ri - a! Glo - ri - a! Glo - ry to God in the high² - est, and on earth peace to peo - ple, to peo - ple of good will!

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks [thanks] for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us [have mercy on us]. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father [of God the Father].
after final refrain, add: Amen. [Amen.]

FIRST READING | 1 KINGS 19:16, 19-21

The LORD said to Elijah:

"You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you."

Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, as he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen; he was following the twelfth.

Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him.

Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said,

"Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you."

Elijah answered, "Go back!

Have I done anything to you?"

Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them;

he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh, and gave it to his people to eat.

Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 16: 1-2, 5, 7-11

Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge;
I say to the LORD, "My Lord are you.
O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you it is who hold fast my lot."

I bless the LORD who counsels me;
even in the night my heart exhorts me.
I set the LORD ever before me;
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices, my body, too, abides in confidence
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

You will show me the path to life,
fullness of joys in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.

SECOND READING | GALATIANS 5:1, 13-18

Brothers and sisters:

For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.

For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love.

For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another.

I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION | 1 SAMUEL 3:9; JOHN 6:68C

Speak, Lord, your servant is listening; you have the words of everlasting life.

GOSPEL | LUKE 9:51-62

When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him.

On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village.

As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head."

And to another he said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father." But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow at the following bolder words)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Caring Corner

CARING + GIVING + SERVING

For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, rather, serve one another through love.
-Galatians 5: 13

As the Fourth of July holiday approaches, we might contemplate the courage that was needed to obtain freedom for our nation. The Scripture readings today and several feasts on the liturgical calendar this week might lead us to a deeper appreciation of the courage needed to be and make disciples of Christ.

St. Paul tells us that real freedom is not abusing the ability to do whatever we want as long as it feels good and makes us happy. True freedom is attained by following God's laws, doing what is right, and loving our neighbors unselfishly. To follow Jesus requires placing him first in our lives and sometimes sacrificing other plans and goals that seem to be important to us from a worldly perspective.

This Wednesday, June 29, we observe the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. On this day, we recall how Peter, the leader of the Apostles and first Pope, and Paul, the greatest missionary and teacher of the early Church, were put to death in Rome around the year 64 A.D. The courage of Peter and Paul was foundational to the spread of the Gospel and growth of the Church.

The First Martyrs of the Holy Roman Church are remembered on June 30. The early Christians in Rome were tortured and killed by command of the emperor for professing belief in Jesus Christ. Although their names are forgotten, they are remembered for their courage to die for their faith.

Friday, July 1, is the Feast of St. Junipero Serra. This Spanish Franciscan missionary courageously journeyed to America and with great zeal founded missions throughout California, and baptized over 6000 people. Fr. Junipero Serra attempted to defend the dignity of Native Americans while introducing them to Christianity. At St. Junipero's canonization in 2015, Pope Francis described him as exemplary of "a church which sets out to bring everywhere the reconciling tenderness of God".

The stories of those we celebrate this week witness the courage demanded of Christians throughout history. Their lives demonstrate for us that what Jesus asks of his followers is not easy, but is possible.

Raphael's Ramblers

Join us on Tuesday, June 28 at 7:00 p.m. in the Ss. Simon and Jude Church parking lot for our weekly walk! We meet at the Blessed Mother, pray a brief opening prayer, then walk for 45-60 minutes. Everyone walks at his or her own pace, and we have fun chatting and enjoying nature as we move. All are welcome! In case of rain, we will cancel.

ST. RAPHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

DID YOU KNOW?

Now that we're firmly back in the familiar summer rhythm of Ordinary Time, I want to revisit the topic of a column I wrote in March: what is the symbolism that lies behind the physical gestures we use at Mass? The column in March reflected on what it means when we beat our breasts at the Penitential Rite; today I'd like to cover one of the most familiar Catholic gestures, the Sign of the Cross.

The gesture is usually made when reciting the familiar formula, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." The most technical and traditional way for a priest to make this gesture at Mass is as follows: While placing his left hand flat under his breast, the priest raises the first three fingers of his right hand to his forehead, which he touches and says, "In the name of the Father"; then, touching his breast with the same fingers, he says, "and of the Son," and touching his left and right shoulders, he says, "and of the Holy Spirit." As he joins his hands again, he concludes,

"Amen." (Have you ever seen that written out in its entirety? It took me a while to think it all through!)

However precisely we do it, Christians have been marking themselves and other things with a Sign of the Cross since the earliest years of the faith. Tertullian, a Christian author who wrote in the late 100s, wrote: "In all our travels and movements, in all our coming in and going out, in putting of our shoes, at the bath, at the table, in lighting our candles, in lying down, in sitting down, whatever employment occupies us, we mark our foreheads with the Sign of the Cross." As Tertullian hints, the oldest form of this gesture was a simple cross traced with the thumb on the forehead — just as we still do before the proclamation of the Gospel today.

Over time, this signing of a little cross became more elaborate; first, two fingers were used, to signify that Christ was true God and true Man; then, another was added (the pointer and middle fingers, joined with the thumb), to indicate the Blessed Trinity. The whole gesture has the following significance, as explained by Pope Innocent III in the thirteenth century: "The sign of the cross is made with three fingers, because the signing is done together with the invocation of the Trinity. This is how it is done: from above to below, and from the right to the left, because Christ descended from the heavens to the earth."

Wait a second... from the right to the left? If you're familiar with the Greek traditions of Christianity, such as the Orthodox or Eastern Catholic Churches, you know that they make the Sign of the Cross differently from us, signing from their right shoulder to their left shoulder — rather than from the left to the right, as we do. That is the more ancient way of doing it, as Pope Innocent referenced. Apparently we Latin Catholics flipped it around at some point in the Middle Ages because we began imitating, as if by mirror image, the way a priest would bless the people after Mass: extending his hand and tracing a blessing, from the viewer's perspective, from left to right. Try signing yourself "backwards" sometime — it's hard to do at first, but then it feels natural. Just don't confuse yourself for good! —Fr. Alek

We expect thousands of neighbors and guests to attend our festival!

We are looking for sponsors for our festival T-shirts. Our goal is to give every hard-working volunteer a FREE T-shirt ! Help us to make this happen! Not only will thousands see your advertisement during the festival, but our workers are encouraged to wear the festival shirts all year long!

Here's how it works:

- for a donation of $300 your company logo (or lettering) will be on the upper portion on the back of every shirt.
- for a donation of $100 we will list your name, with our font, on the back of the shirt.
- for $50 we will list your name in a smaller sized font on the back of the shirt.

Name listings are limited to 32 characters and spaces. All business sponsors and organizations are subject to approval. The size of the logos and names will depend on the number of sponsors. Yes, you may purchase more than one space!

ST. RAPHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

What does the Catechism of the Catholic Church tell us about the Eucharist?

1123 "The purpose of the sacraments is to sanctify men, to build up the Body of Christ and, finally, to give worship to God. Because they are signs they also instruct. They not only presuppose faith, but by words and objects they also nourish, strengthen, and express it. That is why they are called 'sacraments of faith.'"

1127 Celebrated worthily in faith, the sacraments confer the grace that they signify. They are efficacious because in them Christ himself is at work: it is he who baptizes, he who acts in his sacraments in order to communicate the grace that each sacrament signifies. The Father always hears the prayer of his Son's Church which, in the epiclesis of each sacrament, expresses her faith in the power of the Spirit. As fire transforms into itself everything it touches, so the Holy Spirit transforms into the divine life whatever is subjected to his power.

1129 The Church affirms that for believers the sacraments of the New Covenant are necessary for salvation. "Sacramental grace" is the grace of the Holy Spirit, given by Christ and proper to each sacrament. The Spirit heals and transforms those who receive him by conforming them to the Son of God. The fruit of the sacramental life is that the Spirit of adoption makes the faithful partakers in the divine nature by uniting them in a living union with the only Son, the Savior.

ANCIENT GREEK DAY

Ancient Greek Day at GAA was celebrated on May 31. Sixth grade students either took on the role of an ancient Greek character or performed a short ancient Greek play. Those who dressed up as an ancient Greek character were required to prepare a one-minute speech describing who they were. We had philosophers, mathematicians, leaders, and gods and goddesses. The play performed was based on an old ancient Greek tale called "Pandora's Box." The students in preschool to fifth grade were invited to participate and watch.
