THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." - Mk 1:7-8.

From the Desk of Fr. John Ledford

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. This celebration concludes the Christmas Season. Next weekend we return to the Season of Ordinary Time until Ash Wednesday on 17 February 2021, which begins Lent. Our liturgical color returns to green until Lent.

This weekend also presents for us choices for our readings. The readers have choices to make. Each reading illustrates a particular aspect of what we are about as Christians. In life we are given choices. As Christians we also face choices. Do we hide under a rock or a bushel basket? Do we not proclaim who we are as Christians? Looking at the early Church, the Faith grew because people did not hide, but instead reached out to proclaim who they were as Christians.

Likewise, in our Gospel passage from Mark, we are faced with Saint John the Baptist's proclamation and Jesus' Baptism. Wonder what would have happened had neither happened? Saint John the Baptist could have kept quiet. Jesus could not have given example to us through His Baptism. The question we all face, is what are we going to do with our own gift of Faith?
