PENTECOST SUNDAY

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me." - Jn 15:26

Entrance Hymn: Come, Holy Ghost

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest,
And in our hearts take up thy rest;
Come with thy grace and heav'nly aid
To fill the hearts which thou hast made;
To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

O Comforter,
to thee we cry,
Thou heav'nly gift of God most high;

Thou font of life and fire of love,
And sweet anointing from above;

Praise be to thee, Father and Son,
And Holy Spirit, with them one;
And may the Son on us bestow
The gifts that from the Spirit flow;
The gifts that from the Spirit flow.

Reading I: Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together.
And suddenly there came from the sky
a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.
Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem.
At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd,
but they were confused
because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

They were astounded, and in amazement they asked,

“Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans?

Then how does each of us hear them in his native
language?

We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia,

Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene,

as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs,

yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God.”

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Reading II: 1 Cor 12:3-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters:
No one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit.

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit;
there are different forms of service but the same Lord;
there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.
To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body,
so also Christ.

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body,
whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons,
and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Pentecost Sequence: Come, O Holy Spirit

Come, O Holy Spirit come! And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine! Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
Come, O Father of the poor! Come, O Source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine! Come, O Holy Spirit, come!

welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below; Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe. Come, O Holy Spirit,
come!

You, of comforters the best; You, the soul's most

O most blessed Light divine, May that Light within us shine,
And our inmost being fill! Come, O Holy Spirit come!

In your absence, we have naught, Nothing good in deed or thought, Nothing free from taint of ill. Come, O Holy Spirit, come!

Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away; Come, O Holy Spirit, come!

Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray, Come, O Holy Spirit, come!

On the faithful who adore And confess you ever more,
In your sev'nfold gift descend; Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
Give them virtue's sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end. Come, O Holy Spirit, come!

Gospel: John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were,
for fear of the Jews,
Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."
When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side.

The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."
And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them,
"Receive the Holy Spirit.
Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Or Gospel: Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:
"When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me.
And you also testify,
because you have been with me from the beginning.

"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now.
But when he comes, the Spirit of truth,

he will guide you to all truth.
He will not speak on his own,
but he will speak what he hears,
and will declare to you the things that are coming.
He will glorify me,
because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.
Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from Heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

From the Desk of Father Nick

As the Church celebrates Pentecost today, we often think of the many images associated with the feast day. We imagine the Apostles gathered with Mary in the upper room, awaiting the coming of the Advocate, the Holy Spirit that Christ had promised to send them. Or maybe we are inspired by the image of the Apostles going out among all those who had gathered from all over for the feast in Jerusalem and, enlivened by the Spirit, speaking in tongues so that everyone could understand them. However, the most vivid image associated with the Pentecost event is the tongues of fire that came down and rested upon the heads of the Apostles and Mary.

Fire is a powerful reality. Too much and it can destroy everything it touches. Too little and the slightest breeze can snuff it out. But when contained and nurtured it provides light and warmth and is even able to put things into motion and sustain them for great distances. The tongues of fire of the Holy Spirit that are received at Pentecost are images of the life of Christ that is now at work in the Apostles. Christ had told them before his death that, while he had been able to do great things, it would be better for them when he was gone from them so that those great things could now be done through them. It is amazing to think how, enlivened by the Holy Spirit, what the Apostles were able to do in order to bring the light of faith and warmth of God's love to others, and to set in motion the life of the Church that exists to this day in order that we might truly know God in our midst.

This same gift of the Spirit is ours through Baptism, Confirmation, and the many encounters we have with God where he fills us with his grace. And the same great things that were done through the Apostles can be done through us by the power of the Holy Spirit. We can bring light and warmth to the lives of others and set into motion a path to life that is eternal. Ask each day for a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit to give us the life of God to continue his work in the world.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

COVID-19 UPDATES

Last weekend at the Masses we announced that, following the new CDC and State guidelines, Bishop Zubik is permitting those who are fully vaccinated against the COVID-19 virus to no longer wear face coverings while in our churches. Of course, it is up to each fully vaccinated individual whether or not they choose to follow this new guideline, and those who are not yet fully vaccinated are asked to continue to wear a face covering at this time.

In addition, a number of restrictions have been relaxed and things will begin to return back to a slightly more normal state. First, beginning Monday, May 31 (Memorial Day), we will be able to return to 100% capacity in our churches. During that week we will remove the ropes from most of the pews in our churches. We do plan, however, to keep a section of each church with every other pew roped off so that those who desire to maintain a greater social distance and wear masks can choose to do so. This section will be clearly marked and will still allow for us to accommodate increased numbers of attendees in our churches.

The next few weeks will also see a return of holy water in the fonts at the church entrances, the presentation of the gifts at the offertory; and hymn lyrics printed in the bulletins. These things will allow for greater participation of the faithful during the Mass.

Finally, we look forward to planning social activities in our parish that will allow us to connect and reconnect with one another. Look for information in upcoming bulletins and let us know if you have ideas for how we might best draw together in friendship and fellowship.

God bless!

Fr. Nick

REFLECTION

The Holy Spirit

The doors of the upper room were tightly closed. The disciples hid themselves inside for fear. Suddenly and surprisingly, a strong wind penetrated the enclosure. The doors opened and Jesus stood in their midst, offered them His peace and breathed on them with the gift of the Holy Spirit. Since then, we celebrate the birthday of the church on Pentecost Sunday. The church continues to grow, learning to breathe herself, speaking and walking by herself. Without the Holy Spirit, the church cannot live and be refreshed!

As air is to breathe, so the Holy Spirit is to live! The Church is lifeless without the Holy Spirit! Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit into His disciples not only to assure the continuity of divine vitality in the life of the church, but also to endow her with spiritual renewal and divine revitalization for years to come. It is with the refreshing breath of the Holy Spirit that the fearful disciples become courageous enough to reach out and overcome the hardships and challenges in their lives.

As any human institutions, the church has been historically plagued with many shortcomings and mistakes: Incompetence, corruptions, scandals, mismanagement and other vices. If the church were purely human or political, she would have disappeared a long time ago. Her strong standing and enduring sustainability testify to the divine guidance and presence of the Holy Spirit that sustains her.

The Holy Spirit also constantly renews the church, challenging her to be a humble servant, inspiring her to be the light and salt of the earth, opening herself to learn from others and compelling her to grow in joy and holiness.

Upon launching Vatican Council II in 1963, Pope John XXIII was questioned and doubted by many religious leaders, bishops, journalists and laity about what or if anything could be accomplished. While listening carefully to their questions and concerns, the old pope opened the window nearby and fresh air rushed in. All were revitalized as they inhaled the invigorating fresh air.

Today the Holy Spirit continues to be available to our parish family. How strong and confident we become depends on our willingness, our humility and our openness to the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Covid 19 has been detrimental to our health, communal gathering and even our breathing. May the air, the oxygen of the Holy Spirit, rejuvenate and refresh our faith community and our families. As we slowly and gradually remove our face masks, may we also remove and overcome any obstacles that prevent us from receiving the gifts of peace, openness and courage from the Holy Spirit.

Come, Holy Spirit!

Saint Madeleine Sophie Barat Feast day – May 25 1779-1865

Born to a winemaker in Burgundy, France, Madeleine was educated by her older brother, Louis, who was studying for the priesthood. He strove to repress her emotions and instruct her as if she were a seminarian. Her extensive formation, unusual for the time, paid off, as Madeleine was prepared for the rebirth of French Catholicism after its persecution during the French Revolution. In 1800, she and three companions began the Society of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Madeleine was appointed superior at 23, and over the next 63 years, she oversaw the establishment of more than 100 houses and schools in 12 countries. Her order was approved by Rome in 1826, and she was canonized in 1925.

Madeleine Sophie Barat lived in turbulent times. She was only 10 when the Reign of Terror began. In the wake of the French Revolution, rich and poor both suffered before some semblance of normality returned to France. Born to some degree of privilege, Sophie received a good education. It grieved her that the same opportunity was being denied to other young girls, and she devoted herself to educating them, whether poor or well-to-do. We who live in an affluent country can follow her example by helping to ensure to others the blessings we have enjoyed.

Parish Food Bank

The Food Bank for Christ Our Savior Parish is located in the garage adjacent to Northside Catholic Assumption Academy, 3854 Brighton Road. It is held on the 2nd Monday of each month from 3:30 to 4:30 PM. The next Food Bank date is June 14, 2021. The Food Bank is hoping to reach more people in need of our help. We have staples such as canned goods, cereals, pastas, and fresh fruits, vegetables, and breads courtesy of the St Vincent de Paul “Spark of Hope”. Call the parish office with any questions. Cash donations are accepted in the offertory basket at any time or can be made through a link on the parish website. Food is collected in the Food Bank bin in the vestibule of each church. Any in date food items can be left there. We are unable to use any out of date or opened containers. Thank you for your help!

Pentecost

Pentecost marks the occasion of God sending the Holy Spirit upon Jesus' disciples after his Resurrection. The book of Acts describes how the disciples were gathered together in one place on the day of Pentecost. The Jewish feast of Pentecost (Shavuot or the Feast of Weeks) was a day that commemorated the giving of the law to Moses, a day soon to be marked as well by the giving of the Holy Spirit.

On Pentecost, the Holy Spirit gave the disciples the strength to fulfill their commission to spread the Good News of Jesus. The Solemnity of Pentecost, which crowns and fulfills the Easter season, is a good time to pray for a deeper indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

The following prayer was recited by Pope Benedict XVI in a homily on November 7, 2006. This is a prayer to the Holy Spirit.

Let us invoke him
so that he will irrigate, warm and straighten, so that he will pervade us with the power of his sacred flame and renew the earth.

Let us pray for his with all our hearts
at this time, in these days.

Amen.

PRAYER TO MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH AND MOTHER OF OUR FAITH

MOTHER, HELP OUR FAITH!
OPEN OUR EARS TO HEAR GOD'S WORD AND TO RECOGNIZE HIS VOICE AND CALL. AWAKEN IN US A DESIRE TO FOLLOW IN HIS FOOTSTEPS, TO GO FORTH FROM OUR OWN LAND AND TO RECEIVE HIS PROMISE. HELP US TO BE TOUCHED BY HIS LOVE, THAT WE MAY TOUCH HIM IN FAITH. HELP US TO ENTRUST OURSELVES FULLY TO HIM AND TO BELIEVE IN HIS LOVE, ESPECIALLY AT TIMES OF TRIAL, BENEATH THE SHADOW OF THE CROSS, WHEN OUR FAITH IS CALLED TO MATURE. SOW IN OUR FAITH THE JOY OF
THE RISEN ONE. REMIND US THAT THOSE WHO BELIEVE ARE NEVER ALONE.
TEACH US TO SEE ALL THINGS WITH THE EYES OF JESUS, THAT HE MAY BE LIGHT FOR OUR PATH, AND MAY THIS LIGHT OF FAITH ALWAYS INCREASE IN US, UNTIL THE DAWN OF THAT UNDYING DAY WHICH IS CHRIST HIMSELF, YOUR SON, OUR LORD!

Father Michael Decewicz, director of Addiction Recovery Ministry, will give a presentation on Wednesday, May 19, at 7:00 p.m. in Madonna of Jerusalem Church, 201 9th Street, Sharpsburg, PA 15215. He will speak about the 4th Station of the Cross, where Jesus meets his mother, in relation to the suffering of the family of someone with a substance abuse disorder.

Easter Scripture Study with Father DiNardo

The fifty days from the Sunday of the Resurrection to Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one feast, indeed as one “Great Sunday.” These are the days above all others in which we sing the great “Alleluia.” During this Easter season, Father DiNardo will offer the study of the Sunday readings, with a special focus on the Acts of the Apostles. The scripture study class will take place on Monday evenings from 6:30 PM to 7:30 PM through May 24, 2021. You are invited to Saint Boniface Church for the scripture class or by Zoom. The Zoom links can be found on the Parish Website at www.cospgh.org.

Mission Cooperation Sunday is on June 5 & 6 in 2021. Normally, a missionary comes to visit the parish and speak during homily time at Mass. Because of Covid-19 restrictions this year, there will be no in person talks. The mission group of the Sisters of Mary Immaculate vision and mission are of their community is the holistic development of families, especially women, girls, and children. We try to fulfill this mission in the Church, by reaching out to the people in their spiritual, moral, and material needs in towns, villages, and rural areas of India and Africa through visits to families, the sick, and homebound; pastoral, medical, and caring ministries; formal and non-formal education and other developmental activities. The people need your prayers and financial support. Please realize that while the appeal is not in person the need is greater than ever. The poor have been hit especially hard by the pandemic. So now more than ever be as generous as possible. Thank you.

We are very excited to congratulate our teen parishioner, Robert Heflin, for his recent advancement in Boy Scout Troop #348, led by Scoutmaster Bill Kuntz and Assistant Scoutmaster Mike Conroy. The convocation held at St. Paul's Cathedral on Sunday, May 16, 2021, awarded Robert his Ad Altare Dei Religious Emblem! This 9th grader is not only excelling in the Scouts, but also assists our parish as an Altar Server and as a teen Classroom Assistant in our Religious Education Program. We are very proud of you, Robert!

To the members of Christ Our Savior Parish:

Mt 25; 40-45 "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of these least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Thank you just doesn't seem adequate in expressing our thanks for your generosity. The donations of household items to Bethlehem's New Start Furniture Ministry is such a blessing. The response was overwhelming. Dozens of families will benefit from the giving you expressed. It is so easy for us to take for granted the stuff we have been blessed with, but when you realize that stuff belongs to God and we are just the stewards, then it's easier to pass along to others. Thank you for opening your hearts.

Prayers & Blessings to you. Larry Nugent

Christ Our Savior Parish Day of Service

Saturday, June 12 9:30AM - TBD (June 19 rain date)

The Gospel calls us to love our neighbor, and one way we can express this love is through service. As you know, many seniors live on their own or are caregivers, and it can be difficult to keep up with a home. On this day, we will serve our senior parishioners by providing yardwork, painting, and clean-up to the exterior of their homes. If you would like to participate, please complete and return the attached form to the Parish Office by June 4. Beginning next week, we will also have a Sign-Up Genius on our parish webpage. If you have any questions, or would like to request help for that day, please contact Mary Swindal, Pastoral Associate, 412-761-1552 x7 or mswindalns6@gmail.com.

As always, we appreciate prayers that this day will bring God's love and presence to one another. "For it is in giving that we receive...". Thank you!

Our Fifth Graders at Northside Catholic Assumption Academy have been very busy!

They have been growing as disciples of Jesus Christ while learning about the virtues of faith, hope, and love!

They are adding, subtracting, and multiplying decimals in Math classes!

They are also focused on learning different parts of speech and improving their writing skills!

We plan to finish the year strong and healthy! For more information on our preschool through 8th grade school, give us a call to schedule a tour at 412-761-5043.

Northside Catholic Assumption Academy is selling $10 raffle tickets for your chance to win $1,500 in cash and $1,500 in scratch off lottery tickets. For more information, please contact our PTG at ncaacademyptg@gmail.com or call Nicole at 412-478-0887.

Are you looking for a Christ centered, academically challenging, safe environment, and welcoming school for your child? Come and see Northside Catholic Assumption Academy! We offer full day 3 and 4 year old preschool programs, as well as the traditional half day two or three days a week. Our preschool through 8th grade boasts small class sizes – our largest class is 24 and the smallest is 13. Your child will receive individualized attention so that he or she can thrive! Our teachers are more than just certified by the state and accredited by the Diocese. They are dedicated teachers with an average of 20 years of experience in the Diocese. Our school is supported by the Extra Mile Education Foundation and has low tuition - $3,600 for one child and $4,200 for two or more children and generous financial aid. For more information on our school, give us a call at 412-761-5043 or email rkwiatkowski@ncaacademynow.org.

(60) $10 tickets

(60) $5 tickets

All stubs and money will be due no later than June 1, 2021. Winner will be based off the PA Lottery evening PICK 4 on June 7, 2021.

Below you can fill out a request for the number of tickets you would like. Any requests over 10 tickets will need paid for in advance. You can request as many as you would like until tickets are sold out. Please keep in mind that you will not be able to request more tickets until all stubs and money have been returned to school from any previous requests. The 2 families that sell the most tickets will receive a $100 gift card for Giant Eagle.

All proceeds benefit Northside Catholic Assumption Academy. We are grateful for all the wonderful families that supported our fundraisers through the difficult year we all faced through the pandemic. THANK YOU!

*Please be aware that any returned checks will now have a $40 fee.

Any questions contact Nicole at (412) 478-0887 or ncaacademyptg@gmail.com
