CHRISTMAS IS TIME FOR SHARING, NOT COMMERCIALISM, POPE SAYS

By: Junno Arocho Esteves/Catholic News Service 12/13/2021

VATICAN CITY (CNS) — The Christmas tree and Nativity crèche should evoke the joy and the peace of God's love and not the selfish indulgence of consumerism and indifference, Pope Francis said.

Meeting Dec. 10 with delegations from Andalo in Italy's Trentino-South Tyrol region and from Peru's Huancavelica region — responsible, respectively, for the Christmas tree and the Nativity scene in St. Peter's Square — the pope said the traditional Christmas symbols bring an atmosphere that is "rich in tenderness, sharing and family closeness."

"Let us not live a fake, commercial Christmas! Let us allow ourselves to be enveloped by God's closeness, by the Christmas atmosphere that art, music, songs and traditions bring to our heart," he said.

The delegations were at the Vatican for the evening ceremony to light the Vatican Christmas tree and unveil the Nativity scene. However, the Vatican announced earlier that due to less-than-favorable weather predictions for the evening, the traditional outdoor ceremony would be held inside the Paul VI hall.

Joining the two delegations was a group of young men and women from a parish in Padua who created the Nativity scene displayed in the audience hall.

The Nativity scene in St. Peter's Square featured 30 statues depicting Mary, Joseph, the Three Kings, shepherds and various flora and fauna from Huancavelica. The figures were dressed in the traditional bright, multicolored garments of the region's Indigenous Chopcca people.

Next to the Andean Nativity scene stood a 90-foot-tall Christmas tree. The spruce tree came from a sustainably managed forest in the Dolomite mountains in northern Italy's Trentino-South Tyrol region. The round wooden ornaments were also from Trentino.

Expressing his gratitude to the delegations for their gifts, the pope said the traditional garments worn by the figures in the Nativity scene "represent the people of the Andes and symbolize the universal call to salvation."

"Jesus came to the world through the concreteness of a people to save every man and woman, of all cultures and nationalities. He made himself small so that we might welcome him and receive the gift of God's tenderness," he said.

He also said the spruce tree was a "sign of Christ" and a reminder of God's gift of uniting "himself with humankind forever."

As Christmas festivities draw near, Pope Francis said the crèche remains a symbol of hope that God "never tires of us" and that he chose to dwell among men and women "not as one who stands on high to dominate, but as the one who stoops low, small and poor, to serve."

"For it to be truly Christmas, let us not forget this," the pope said. "God comes to be with us and asks us to take care of our brothers and sisters, especially the poorest, the weakest and the most fragile, those whom the pandemic risks marginalizing even more."

What is discernment? Discernment is the process for finding out what we should be doing. It might involve doing research or making a list of pros and cons, as you would for any major decision, but it is more than that. Especially in a religious context, discernment means trying to recognize God's will.

Fruitful discernment takes place in a space of prayer and study. It includes sincere conversations with appropriate people, self-reflection, and attempting to read the signs that God may be placing around us. We often speak of someone "discerning their vocation," which is something every person should do. In a similar way, discernment also happens on a communal level, from the local all the way up to the universal Church. Councils and Synods are always attempting to discern the will of the Holy Spirit, so that what they decide and teach may be what God wishes in that particular context. For communal discernment, dialogue is always more helpful than debate. Discernment should help us to understand our own needs and desires, but the final goal is to accept the will of God.
