FROM SYNOD ➔ EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL (CONT.)

As was shared last week, over the next three years, every Catholic diocese, parish, school, apostolate, and family is invited to be part of renewing the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. The new logo (left), recently commissioned by the Diocese, is packed full of meaning:

- At the center of this simple yet striking dichromatic image are the host and the chalice, symbolizing the Eucharist (the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ), the source and summit of our lives as Catholic Christians. Bold, striking rays pour out from behind the host, symbolic of the inexhaustible grace that flows at every Eucharistic liturgy—grace that turns sinners into saints.
- The wide chalice is modeled after a 6th-7th century Byzantine chalice housed at the Cleveland Museum of Art, and the image decorating the “bowl” of the chalice is taken from the logo of the Synod on Synodality; it is the Church walking together on mission.
- At the base of the chalice are the letters “CLXXV,” which at first glance may appear to be some strange iteration of “CLEVELAND,” but in fact, represent the Roman numerals for “175,” designating the 175th anniversary of our diocese.
- Framing the host, chalice, and rays is a square with a Jerusalem-type cross in each corner, crosses that are taken from our diocesan crest. Four words: GATHERED, BLESSED, BROKEN, and SHARED, remind us of our Eucharistic identity as the People of God, whose lives take on their fullest meaning only when we give them away in sacrificial love.
- Finally, the beautiful blue tone serves as a subtle reminder of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the one who constantly and lovingly encourages us, “Do whatever he tells you” (Jn. 2:5), the last recorded words of Mary from the Scriptures.

This revival follows in the shadow of the recent Synod. Our parish Synod Listening Session synthesis report is available to read on our parish website: <https://www.stnoel.org/>

WELCOME, NEW PARISHIONERS!

A word of thanks to our staff and established parishioners who exercise ministry and serve on our various committees and councils. While I tended bar (the featured cocktail was an Aperol Spritz), they helped welcome our new parishioners this past Wednesday evening. We wanted to make it up to those who joined the parish throughout the pandemic and months of construction on the church, as we felt we had not offered them a proper introduction. We hope they and others will always feel welcomed and proud to call Saint Noel their parish home!

FINAL WEEKEND!
Survey ends
June 30

Help us
CHOOSE
our NEXT
SETTING!

Our Mass settings—the sets of sung acclamations of the Mass, like the Holy and the Alleluia—are a vital part of our worship, and choosing the right ones for a parish can be a challenge. So, we're asking you to help us find the settings that pray well for you!

From now until June 30, you're invited to take part in a survey series and tell us what you think of five settings by four composers that we're considering for this Fall. Your responses will directly influence our decision, so please check it out!

Have you ever thought...?

- If you were involved in an accident and the person at fault didn't have enough or any insurance?
- If you discovered the upstairs bathroom or ice maker was leaking into the kitchen?
- God forbid if you didn't make it home from work one day, how would that effect your family financially?
- If one of your employees harassed another and brought a lawsuit against you?
