LIVING THE FAITH

WEEKLY REFLECTION

BY FR. PAUL

You might have noticed a change within the back of the sanctuary of the church. The Resurrected Christ figure was very appropriate to display during the whole season of Easter, in celebrating the Risen Christ. Now that we have concluded the Easter season with the feast of Pentecost, we are now in the midst of ordinary time. We will now be displaying the Church's original Crucifix, (used since the renovation of St. Mary Church in 1973), until the beginning of the Advent season.

The Christ the High Priest Crucifix depicts Jesus the High Priest of the Epistle to the Hebrews, who utters "It is finished!", bows his head, and dies (John 19:30).

Christ offered up himself on the altar of his cross to be crucified, killed, and sacrificed on our behalf. The blood which flows from his pierced feet, side, and hands washes away our sins and serves as the seal of the New Covenant between God and humankind.

"The artful depiction of Jesus Christ on the cross, in various ways, has been common in the Church since the sixth century...Whereas the cross itself served as a vivid reminder of torture to the early Christians, the crucifix reminded later generations of Christians (who were far removed from the experience of this practice) of the tremendous suffering that our Lord endured for our sake.

This depiction of our crucified Lord eventually made its way into the sanctuary of church buildings beginning in the eleventh century. By the thirteenth century, crucifixes were commonplace both as devotional art and as altar crosses. Eventually, the crucifix came to be regarded as "the principal ornament of the altar." Its placement in the sanctuary either on or above the altar was for the purpose to "recall to the mind of the celebrant, and the people, that the Victim offered on the altar is the same as was offered on the Cross" (Constitution, Accepimus of Pope Benedict XIV, 16 July, 1746).

The image of Christ on his cross reinforces our theological truths and appropriately focuses our mind and spirit on the sacrificial reality that is happening on the altar. A cross without Christ and Christ without the cross both neglect this reality of priestly sacrifice that is absolutely central in our Catholic identity and in the very exercise of religion itself. In the Eucharist, the sacrifice of Jesus is shown to us, its merits are applied to those who participate in the Mass, and the crucifix stands dominantly in the sanctuary as a visible sign and visual reminder of the great miracle that is taking place on the altar. As we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi Sunday, let us enter into the Lord's passion and unite our suffering to His as we ask for His help to carry our crosses.

Request for a Priest or Minister of Care for the Sick and the Homebound

Under federal medical privacy laws, hospitals and extended care facilities can no longer alert the parish when a parishioner is admitted. A patient or a patient's family may request a visit from a priest for prayer and/or anointing, or a visit by a Minister of Care for prayer and/or Holy Communion. Please call the Parish Office and ask for:

- ◆ Fr. Paul to visit and/or anoint. Your request will go directly to him. (440-967-8711 x 101)
- ◆ A visit from a Minister of Care for prayer and/or Holy Communion.

For those who are homebound, you or your family member must be the one to call. Visiting the sick is one of the 7 Corporal Works of Mercy.

A Time for Prayer

On Saturday, June 25, 2022, all are invited to come and pray. Our prayers will be in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The Rosary and Litany will be recited. Please meet at 9:30 am in Mother Mary's garden in front of the Gathering Space on Ohio Street.

Get Well Sherry

Sherry Thomas, our former Liturgist and Music Director, needs her cheerleaders at the 50 yard line. She has had surgery and is now in rehab. That being said, we would like to cheer her on to good health and remind her that she is not forgotten and is loved. Please send Sherry your cards and notes to the church office marked to her attention. They will be delivered to her.

Pray for Our Deceased Loved Ones

St. Mary Parish extends its condolences following the passing of:
