LIVING THE FAITH

WEEKLY REFLECTION

BY DEACON JIM TOKARSKY

Greetings to the Good People of God!

And to another he said, "Follow me."

Luke 9:59

I would again like to take a moment to thank all the volunteers and donors who contributed to the success of this year's Festival of the Fish booths. Donors to the raffle covered the gas card prizes before we had even sold our first ticket! We had eight donated gift baskets and our conference room was full of drinks to sell at our fish slider booth! The Vermilion VFW and another donor covered the cost of the perch for the sliders! So many of you worked the hospitality booth, sold raffle/gas tickets, sold/cooked perch, manned the desk! A special thank you to the Knights of Columbus and their spouses for their "fishy work". The St. Paul Street Evangelization Team spread the message of Jesus' love and mercy. A big thank you to Lynn Allegretto and her committee for a great endeavor! Once the final bills are paid, we will share our parish's profit.

Believe it or not, this fits with our readings this weekend. Following Jesus means it might lead us to breaching fish, selling tickets, keeping hope-filled, and sharing our faith through word and deed. Sometimes following Jesus means leaving something behind. That does not mean that we can not have fond memories and stories to tell, but Jesus invites us to the next challenge and opportunity. The closing of our school is certainly something to be mourned and remembered, but our St. Mary Parish must continue to answer the call to follow Jesus. In the coming weeks and months, we will need to look at our ministries and pivot to our new reality. Opportunities await us! Jesus is still calling!

I am also pleased to share that I have already met with six parish families about supporting their children's Catholic Education at a surrounding school. We are committed to providing $1500 per student to the school in parish subsidy and $1500 per student in tuition help. This is an example of a ministry pivot when circumstances have changed. Jesus is still calling, and we are still answering!

All Blessings!

-Deacon Jim

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

Did you receive a second set of collection envelopes this month for July & August?

Yes, each of those who receive envelopes did. There was a glitch in the OSV's (Our Sunday Visitor's) system and two sets were mailed out to everyone. We are NOT being charged or paying for their mistake.

What happened to the recycle bins?

The company out of Michigan no longer felt that they could service us. We have ordered two recycle bins from Republic Services and are waiting for them to be delivered.

I called the parish office and couldn't get an answer... There was no Mass on Sunday or Monday on the live stream...

Fish Festival weekend, there was a power surge at the Ohio Edison Power Sub-station. It affected some of our church lighting, our internet (thus our Live stream), and so many other things. We just wanted you to know what is happening. Your Editor
